

Greater Fresno Alliance of Museums & Educational Sites

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Sally Ramage, 559-341-6921

Second Annual Free Museum Day Set for November 3rd, 2018

Fun-filled day of exploration presented by Greater Fresno Alliance of Museums & Educational Sites

On Saturday, November 3, select museums and educational sites in Fresno, Kings, Madera, and Tulare counties will come together to celebrate the Second Annual Free Museum Day. Participating sites will offer free admission to visitors during their regular business hours.

Free Museum Day gives everyone an opportunity to experience the wealth of art, culture, history, science, and natural beauty in the greater Fresno region and its surrounding areas. The event encourages visitors of all ages to explore and engage in each site's educational offerings.

Participating Museums & Educational Sites for Second Annual Free Museum Day:

Alta District Historical Museum - Dinuba
Arte Américas - Downtown Fresno
Central Sierra Historical Society & Museum - Shaver Lake
Children's Storybook Garden & Museum - Hanford
Clovis Botanical Garden - Dry Creek Park, Clovis
Clovis Museum - Old Town Clovis
Coke Hallowell Center for River Studies (River Center) - Fresno
Eastern Fresno County Historical Society - Tollhouse
Fossil Discovery Center - Madera
Fresno Art Museum - Fresno
Fresno County History Museum - Fresno Fairgrounds
Fresno Discovery Center - Fresno
Henry Madden Library - California State University, Fresno
ImagineU Children's Museum - Visalia
Kearney Mansion Museum - Kearney Park, Fresno
Meux Home Museum - Downtown Fresno
Shinzen Friendship Garden - Woodward Park, Fresno
The Big Fresno Fair Museum - Fresno Fairgrounds
Tulare County Museum - Mooney Grove Park, Visalia

Free admission does not include special ticketed events or parking fees. More participants may be added to the Second Annual Free Museum Day prior to November 3. Visit fresnomuseums.com for an up-to-date list.

A map of the area's museums and educational sites is available at www.fresnomuseums.com. Visitors can also find the map at each participating location during the month of October.

About the Greater Fresno Alliance of Museums & Educational Sites

The Greater Fresno Alliance of Museums & Educational Sites exists to spread awareness of the numerous educational facilities in the greater Fresno region, including traditional museums, education-focused galleries, outdoor exhibits, children's museums, planetariums, and more. For more information about the Alliance, visit www.fresnomuseums.com.

#