

LOTS TO DO IN THE LAST MONTH OF SEASON

With a little over a month left in the snowbird season, the Destin Snowbirds have plenty left on their plates to enjoy. This year's array of entertainment has continued to thrill the birds attending our weekly meetings on Tuesdays, with one meeting at 8:30 and the other at 11 am. The Hashtag Swing Band promises a throwback to the earlier years with music from the good old days. The Lloyd Carter Band 'can't git to Destin fast enough,' according to Cindy Varnell, our TGIT (Thank Goodness It's Tuesday) coordinator. That party at Lulu's is on February 6 from 3 until 6 pm. and is open to all badge-carrying Destin Snowbirds. It's country music all the way from Georgia. Ken Campbell, President of the Club, said that the band will start the day rollin' for the snowbirds with music at our general membership meetings in the morning. The Annual Craft Show, harbor cruises, casino trips, the Valentine's Day Party, golfing events, the Ladies Luncheon, the Friendship Club, and more TGIT parties are ahead along with lots of other activities to choose from. You can register online at thedestinsnowbirds.com or on Mondays, February 5 and 12 from 10 until noon, at the Destin Community Center on Stahlman Avenue.

