Chuck Dowe

2024 Silver Beaver Recipients

Chuck's Scouting journey began as a Boy Scout, where he earned the rank of Eagle Scout. His numerous accomplishments include earning Wood Badge beads, the Order of the Arrow Founder's Award, OA Vigil Honor, District Award of Merit, Scouting Alumni Award, James E. West Fellowship Award, James Stewart Service Award, and the Scouter's Training Award. With over seven years of adult service, Chuck has held key leadership roles, including Pack 355 Committee Chair, Bear Den Leader and he was selected as the Troop 355 Scoutmaster for the Combined Troop pilot program. At the district level, he has served as a member of the Foothills Webelos Woods and Camporee Committee and as Foothills Outdoor & Camping Chair; a District Member at Large, and OA Shash-tsoh Chapter Adviser. His council-level contributions include serving on the Eagle Scout Alumni Association Board, as a Tiwahe Lodge Associate Adviser, Dean of Scouts BSA at the University of Scouting, and as a member of the Special Needs and Disability Committee.

Bob Keeley

Bob began Scouting as a youth in Cub Scouts. As an adult leader, he has earned his Bachelors of Commissioner Science, completed National Camp School for Day Camps, and received the Driving Force Award, District Award of Merit, and Wood Badge beads. With over 23 years of adult service, Bob has served in numerous leadership roles, including Den Leader, Camping Chair and Committee Chair for Pack 659, Assistant Scoutmaster and Unit Training Chair for Troop 649. He's also served as Unit Commissioner and Assistant District Commissioner, Cub Day Camp Director, District Training Chair, and Assistant District Commissioner at the district level. He is an active member of the Special Needs and Disability Committee. Bob says he tends to over commit, but being busy is better than being bored! One of his proudest accomplishments is developing and leading a highly successful training team that has hosted BALOO and IOLS training events since 2016. More recently, he is proud to have helped revive Cub Scout Day Camp in North County, Palomar District for three consecutive years.

Bryan Kimball

As a youth, Bryan was a Webelos in Pack 194, Chula Vista and achieved the rank of Life Scout in Troop 855. As an adult leader, he has founded a new Scouting unit, served as adult Shooting Sports Director, and earned the District Award of Merit. With over 18 years of dedicated service, Bryan has made a significant impact in Scouting. His leadership roles include adult leader at the den, troop, and crew levels, Shooting Sports Director, Assistant Scoutmaster for the 2013 National Jamboree, and Scoutmaster for the 2017 National Jamboree. One of his favorite Scouting projects was leading a small family-oriented group of Scouts towards their Eagle Rank. The troop includes several special needs boys. Activities and skills were tailored to each boy with repetition being a key element in the learning process. As of 2018, all Scouts earned the rank of Eagle Scout. Bryan takes great pride in mentoring Scouts on the range and witnessing their excitement as they hit their targets for the first time.

Joe Minner

Joe earned his Eagle Scout rank in 1968 with Troop 18 in Longhorn Council. As an adult leader, his accomplishments include the Cub Scout Leader's Award, Webelos Den Leader Award, Order of the Arrow Brotherhood, and the NESA Outstanding Eagle Award. He is especially proud of inviting two or more Eagle Scouts to the annual Eagle Recognition Dinner each year since 2014. With over 33 years of adult service, Joe has served as Cub Scout Den Leader and Webelos Den Leader for Pack 733, as well as Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 18. At the district level, he has served as an Eagle Board of Review member. At the council level, Joe has served on the Executive Board, the Properties Committee, and the Executive Committee as Vice President of Operations, Vice President of Properties, and currently, Vice President of Program. Additionally, he served as the Eagle Scout Recognition Dinner Chair in 2018 and 2019. Joe's proudest achievement is seeing his two sons earn the rank of Eagle Scout.

CONGRATS!

OUR NEWEST EAGLE SCOUTS

KYLER · T2001

Balancing extracurriculars such as sports and Scouts, hobbies like hiking and mountain biking, and spending time with friends requires strong time management. Though the workload is heavy and many might back down, Scouting has taught me that the view from the top is worth every challenge.

KOHNER · T2001

Scouting has taught me that service to others is not just about performing kind acts, but about making a lasting impact. As a Scout, I have been allowed to serve my community in numerous ways—whether through local food drives, helping maintain public parks, or working with younger Scouts.

BEN · T2000

Within the Scout Oath, Duty to Self speaks as the overarching priority. This may initially sound self-serving. However, to me this means trying my best every day. Specifically, this means much more than serving my own interests. In contrast, this represents my duty to be the best person I can become. It is my duty to myself to continue growing and serving others with the behaviors listed in the Scout Law. This is my reminder and personal commitment to live according to the fundamentals of the Scout Law.

LIAM · T975

A fun part of my Scouting legacy has been the role of “Kazoogler,” where instead of a bugler, I have a kazoo, which I use in Scout songs to lead “repeat after me” songs. But a bigger part of what I’m trying to teach younger Scouts is knowing when/when not to be silly, which is a big part of Scouting, balancing that brand of Scout spirit with courteousness and respect. His Eagle Scout Service Project was an interactive sensory pathway at the Rancho Elementary School.

TINA NINTEMAN!

MY CURRENT PRIMARY ROLE IS FOOTHILLS DISTRICT CHAIR WHICH ALSO GIVES ME THE OPPORTUNITY TO SIT ON THE COUNCIL BOARD. IN THE PAST I HAVE HELD THE POSITIONS OF SCOUTMASTER FOR TROOP 308. ADVISOR FOR CREW 4373 AND JUST ABOUT EVERY POSITION AVAILABLE FOR PACK 342.

THE BEST ADVICE THAT I CAN GIVE A YOUTH IN THE SCOUTING PROGRAM TODAY IS TO STICK WITH IT. THERE WILL BE TIMES THAT YOU DON'T WANT TO KEEP GOING BECAUSE YOU ARE BUSY WITH OTHER THINGS I.E., SCHOOL, SPORTS, MUSIC, WORK, BUT IN THE LONG RUN THE SKILLS THAT YOU WILL LEARN IN SCOUTING WILL HELP YOU THROUGHOUT YOUR LIFE. I HAVE SEEN IT OVER AND OVER AGAIN. MAKE SCOUTING A PRIORITY AND YOU WILL FIND TIME TO DO ALL THE THINGS YOU WANT TO DO.

EXPLORING™
DISCOVER YOUR FUTURE

Aviation Post 120

Our newest Aviation Exploring Post at Palomar Airport is growing quickly. They recently enjoyed a private tour of the USS Midway Museum, followed by simulator rides. The USS Midway (CV-41) had a storied history from 1945 to 1992, serving with pride throughout the Cold War, Viet Nam, and Desert Storm. Learning about the ship's air wing gave our Explorers an up close look at naval aviation as well as our nation's history.

Are you a Scouts BSA that's seriously on the path toward Eagle Scout? Eagle Camp will be an opportunity unlike any other! National Jamboree

2026 Jamboree Info

Jamboree is more than a destination for Scouts.

It's the adventure of a lifetime!

And there is simply nothing else like it on the planet.

What's a Jamboree? It's not camp. National Jamboree is 360-degrees of Scouting fun, friends and fellowship with hands-on adventure that takes a Scout places that they never thought they would go and challenges them to try things that they never thought they could do. It's the beginning of their own heroes' journey that will challenge them to go farther than they ever thought possible - to reach deeper and lift themselves higher to become the best version of themselves. We also need adults for the SDIC Jamboree committee and leadership.

Please scan the QR Code or contact Linda Latimer or Staff Partner Dan Ontiveros for more information.

Scouting America Test Lab

What is the Scouting America Test Lab?

The Test Lab is an exciting way to help develop new topics for merit badges. Digital resources will help Scouts complete the requirements, rather than using a printed pamphlet, and a certificate of completion is issued rather than a merit badge.

If surveys indicate positive results, the potential new badges may become official in the future, and Scouts who completed the requirements will be credited with having earned the merit badge. Each badge has a Test Lab expiration by which all requirements must be completed, and any registered adult may work with Scouts on the potential new badges.

Potential merit badges in the Test Lab will be presented at the University of Scouting scheduled for August 9 at Point Loma Nazarene University, and includes the following three badges:

- 1) Auctioneering: Combines public speaking and salesmanship in which Scouts learn presentation techniques, persuasion and critical thinking skills, while building rapport with their audience.
- 2) Wildland Fire Management: Scouts learn how to make homes, camps and communities more resistant to wildfire and the natural role that fire plays in our wildlands. They will explore and may consider careers in wildland fire management or even become wildland firefighters.
- 3) Life Skills: Scouts learn concepts of daily living: maintaining physical and mental well-being; how to manage personal finances and care for their living spaces; how to communicate effectively with others and explore career options; among others.

Scouts who complete the requirements will decide if it becomes a merit badge by filling out a survey online.

NEW

MULTISPORT MERIT BADGE

[More Info from
Aaron on Scouting](#)

The Multisport merit badge is designed to encourage Scouts to participate in endurance-based fitness activities that combine two or more sports. Some of the multisport formats Scouts can explore include: 1) Triathlon: Swimming, biking, and running; 2) Duathlon: Running and biking; 3) Aquathlon: Swimming and running; and 3) Aquabike: Swimming and biking.

By participating in these sports, Scouts improve their endurance, coordination, and resilience while working toward an achievement that recognizes their commitment to staying active. This is a natural next step for Scouts who have earned Swimming, Cycling, Athletics, or Personal Fitness merit badge. The Multisport merit badge builds on those skills and opens new pathways for future fitness challenges.

Scouts will need to participate in two sports for at least one season while following a structured plan to track progress and improve their skills. Here's what the process looks like:

1. Choose Two Sports: Scouts must pick two endurance-based sports to focus on. These can be swimming, biking, running, or a combination of two.
2. Get a Physical: A healthcare professional must complete a Scout medical examination form to ensure Scouts are ready for the physical demands of the activities.
3. Create a Training Plan: With the help of a merit badge counselor, Scouts will develop a training program for each sport that outlines their goals, practice schedule, and progress tracking.
4. Track Your Progress: Scouts will document their training, practice sessions, and improvement over time. This helps them stay accountable and see how they're developing their skills.
5. Participate for a Full Season: Scouts must commit to each sport for at least one season, whether competing individually or on a team.
6. Reflect on the Experience: After completing the season, Scouts will discuss what they learned, how the sports challenged them, and how the experience affected them physically and mentally.
7. Submit Your Blue Card: Once all requirements are completed, Scouts will submit their blue card to their unit leader to record their achievement in ScoutBook.
