From Fr. Mike's Desk

"When the captain and the court officials had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, 'We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name?' 'Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching...' But Peter and the apostles replied, 'We must obey God rather than men.' The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus and dismissed them. So, they left...rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name."

As we continue to celebrate Easter, our reading from the Acts of the Apostles gives us the account of what became a wonderful moment for the early Church. For they were brought before the Sanhedrin and ordered to stop speaking about Jesus. The members of the Holy Court certainly believed that this would be enough to silence the Apostles, but as we can see, it was not! The Apostles left happy, and this would be the case every time they came before the authorities, even when they were jailed. This also would be true when they went out from the Holy Land to go to all the ends of the earth, where they would all face death (except for St. John). But please keep in mind that this was not always the case with the Apostles, as we see in today's reading from John's Gospel.

"Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'we also will come with you.'" So, what, they went fishing, what is so wrong or unusual about that? They were of the mind that a bad day of fishing is better than a good day at work. Or they just liked to fish. Keep in mind that with John's Gospel, there is always more than what meets the eye. Recall that Peter, Andrew, James, and John were professional fishers, and as we see in Luke's Gospel, Peter followed Jesus after a large catch some three or four years earlier. Fishing was not a day off activity for them; it was a way of life, and some scholars believe that Peter (even after seeing the Risen Lord) was going to give up the whole mission and go back to his former way of life. Some scholars also believe he was trying to give it up because of the guilt he felt for denying Jesus three times on Holy Thursday Night. Whatever the reason, Peter and the others are saying that the past three years have been something we will never forget, but now it is time to go back to our normal lives.

Christ, the Lord, would not allow them to go backwards; no they were to constantly move forward, as we see in each question that Jesus puts before Peter. These three questions were asked to counterbalance the three times that Peter denied Christ outside the High Priest's house. With each question, Jesus gives Peter a command: Feed my lambs, Tend my sheep, Feed my sheep. Finally, after the whole discourse, the Risen Lord gives Peter one more command, Follow Me! Obviously, something happened between this encounter at the Sea of Galilee and the events in the Acts of the Apostles, and that something is the Coming of The Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit that gave the Apostles the strength to confront the very same people they feared in the Garden of Gethsemane. It is this same Holy Spirit that would keep the Apostles from going backwards, and it is this same Holy Spirit that keeps us 2,025 years later ever moving forward.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Easter

May 11, 2025

First Reading - Acts 13:14, 43-52

Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5

Second Reading - Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

Gospel - John 10:27-30

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we hear Jesus say that we are all His, and that He will give us eternal life. As sheep, if we hear His voice, we will follow Him, and no one can pull us away. He will always care for us.

Do you trust in Jesus, our Lord and Savior, who will provide you with eternal life? If He asked you, what would you willing to give up for Him?

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father,

We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

A vocation is all about love...that comes from God.

Knights of Columbus - Mission of the Family Video Series

Men with a Mission

*A Catholic Brotherhood
Changing the World*

Christ is Risen! Let us rejoice this Easter Season, and spread the good word, especially among our family members. To walk with you in this journey, the Knights of Columbus have produced 5 short videos making up the Mission of the Family series. The Knights encourage participation and educating everyone on the vital importance of our faith. The Lord's passion and death reminds families of the suffering Jesus endured through his passion and resurrection, thereby opening the gates of heaven for each of us. Watch with your family members and spread the word!

These short videos can be found at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/Mission-of-the-Family>

Or you can scan this QR code and watch the videos on your phone ►

---

Pope John Paul II referred to the Knights of Columbus as the “strong right arm of the Church”. Our mission is simple. Whether it is the pastor, a bishop or the pope who needs our help, the Knights respond. We do this because we are first and foremost men who love our church. All Catholic men are welcome!

Show up. Set your own schedule. Be an example of what a CATHOLIC MAN is supposed to be!

Support St. Edward's Church

Like your home, St. Edward's Church is in need of ongoing maintenance, repairs, and improvements. Most of you don't have the time to spare (or energy) to swing a hammer or climb a ladder, but you could help by making a monetary donation, however small. As always, you can place your donation in the collection basket at Mass, or drop off a check at the Rectory. We now have the ability to receive your donation through our secure payment site. Just scan this QR code. It's simple and quick. Thank you in advance for your support!

May is the Month for Our Lady - Family Marian Activities

Parish May Crowning All are welcome!

Sunday, May 11th at the 9:30 am Mass

We especially invite all of our First Holy Communicants to join in our May Crowning Procession. We ask that the children wear their First Communion outfits or their Sunday Best and gather at 9:20 am in the Church lobby for the Procession line up. The May Crowning will take place at the beginning of the 9:30am Family Mass.

On this Mothers' Day, come join with your parish family, as we gather to crown our Blessed Mother, Queen of Heaven and of our Hearts.

Parish Family Rosary Monday, May 5th at 6:30pm in the Church

Join with other families and fellow parishioners of all ages to pray the rosary as we give honor to our Mother Mary. On May 13th, we will celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima. During Mary's appearances to the children at Fatima, our Lady asked that we dedicate ourselves and our families to her Immaculate Heart. She told the children that through prayer and sacrifice many good things would come to pass, even the conversion of Russia. Many have credited the break up of the former Soviet Union to such devotions. So, it seems fitting, that in honor of her feast day, we gather to rededicate ourselves, our children and our families to Mary's Immaculate Heart by praying her Holy Rosary. This Rosary gathering will be a "child friendly" prayer service. A special invite to our First Communion children, and school aged children to help lead us in a decade of the Rosary.

Our 7th and 8th Graders can get service hours by volunteering to bake for the BBQ Supper.

All are welcome to come to our BBQ Dog Supper!

A gathering of hot dogs, hamburgers, baked macaroni and cheese, pasta salad, chips, cookies and lemonade will follow the Family Rosary in the School Cafeteria. This supper will be sponsored and hosted free of charge by the St. Edward's Knight of Columbus. All are welcome.

About

Suffolk County Police will discuss how to respond appropriately to concerning statements about schools posted on social media, along with the potential consequences of making such posts. The session will also address what steps to take if you or your child sees or receives these types of comments online. An overview of the Suffolk County Police Department's investigation procedures will be provided.

Planning and practice keep schools safe. Schools are safe. It is important not to live in fear. We will talk about the difference between lockout and lockdown. It is easy to get the words mixed up especially in the height of a situation. The evening will end with information about the Suffolk County Police response and our roles in schools.
