From Fr. Mike's Desk

As we look at our Old Testament reading from the Book of Wisdom, and today's reading from Mark, we can see why the Liturgists of the Church put these two readings together. Remember, except for the Easter Season, the first reading and the gospel have some form of connection. Of course, during the Easter Season the first reading comes from the Acts of the Apostles. This week we can see the connection, as Wisdom gives us a prophetic Old Testament account of what will happen to the Messiah. This can be perceived especially when we read, "Let us beset the just one...he set himself against our doings." "For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him, and deliver him from the hands of his foes... Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his own words, God will take care of him." Now compare this to what Jesus tells the Apostles, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him."

Without a doubt they work together, however, the human author of Wisdom did not intend this to be a prophecy about the Messiah, as he wrote this passage to tell us about human nature and weakness. Look at the many Saints throughout the Church's history, the Prophets of Old, and any great person in the world's history that worked for the good of others. So many times people have gone against these good people or tried to find any flaw they could. So many times people have tried to take them down or test them, and Wisdom's author is asking why? Why do we not rally behind these good people? Why do we not immediately follow their good example? Perhaps the answer is fear of being hurt by that person, or we have learned not to be too trusting. We have seen too many con men throughout history who at first looked so good but turned out to be so bad and had to be destroyed. People like Caesar, Napoleon, Mussolini, Hitler, and I am sure you can add a few more names. So while we should be careful at the beginning, why is it that after the person has proven him or herself, so many still go against that person? Maybe this reaction comes from jealousy, or the fear that we can never hope to be as good as that person so we look for shortcomings and flaws. So we will not feel bad or so we have an excuse to turn away. After all, it is very hard for us to see where we fall short in our own lives. Therefore, Wisdom is urging us to avoid this behavior. Once we know that person is truly good and truly from God, we should do our best to follow that person.

If only the teachers and the leaders during Jesus' Public Ministry had understood Wisdom's lesson, perhaps their response to Jesus would have been different. Even the Apostles did not understand the lesson when they argued amongst themselves who was greater. While they truly saw the goodness of Jesus, they still could not totally see it in each other as they fought for Our Lord's approval. They allowed their fears and shortcomings to get the best of them, as they thought they were going to be left behind. Nevertheless, this is not what it means to be a follower of Christ. If we have truly accepted Christ we must work for the good of all and we must all do it together. This is why Jesus places the child in their midst and tells them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and the one who sent me." Why does Jesus choose a child? In Jesus' day, a child was considered the property of his or her father and the child owned nothing and had no power to control his own life. So if Christ's disciples act as innocently and as powerless as a little child, they will in fact gain everything. They will not gain anything of earthly power and riches, no, they will gain everything that comes down from God and leads to Eternal Life in Heaven. Let us learn Wisdom's Lesson and let us freely, without fear follow Christ.

God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

Addressing the Sexual Abuse Scandal

All parishioners are invited to attend a Listening / Discussion meeting addressing the sexual abuse scandal facing our Church. The meeting will be held on:

Date: Tuesday, September 25th
Time: 7:00 pm
Location: The Church

Our parish, which has always come together in times of need, will be hosting a listening session to discuss the current crisis in our Church which has left many of us with feelings of anger, confusion, shame and disgrace.

Our Church has been attacked from within by sinful acts which were hidden as sinners were protected through deception. As any family, we survive and become stronger when we recognize the truth and can truly support each other. In preparation for this listening/discussion meeting you may choose to submit your comments and questions in writing to me or another staff member. It is my hope that you will join us for this important meeting.

Faithfully yours,

Fr. Mike

Altar Servers

Attention GIRLS and BOYS!
Is Jesus calling you?

Our parish, St. Edward the Confessor is in need of girls and boys to help us at Holy Mass by acting as altar servers. Is Jesus asking you to become an altar server for His Church? Jesus speaks with us all the time, speaks to our hearts and minds. Have you thought of becoming a server? Are you thinking of becoming a server now? Those thoughts may be Jesus whispering to your heart to please help Him and serve His Church. We will be offering training for servers this coming September. Please listen to your heart. Is Jesus calling you? For more information you may contact Deacon Barry at the rectory: 516-921-8030

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the malice and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

St. Michael the Archangel pray for us.

The original version of the St. Michael's prayer was put forth 1886 under the direction of Pope Leo XIII. In 1902 the prayer was shortened to a version similar to that shown above. In 1994 Pope John Paul II requested the faithful to take up again the praying of the Prayer to St. Michael in the battle of our times "against the forces of darkness and against the spirit of this world."

St. Francis - Blessing of the Animals

Please bring your pets to the “Blessing of the Animals” to be held on Thursday, October 4th in front of St. Edward’s church.

A Franciscan Blessing Prayer For All Animals

*Blessed are you, Lord God, maker of all living creatures.
On the fifth and sixth days of creation,
you called forth fish in the sea,
birds in the air, and animals on the land.
You inspired St. Francis to call all animals
his brothers and sisters.
We ask you to bless this animal.
By the power of your love,
enable [him or her] to live according to your plan.
May we always praise you
for all your beauty in creation.
Blessed are you, Lord our God, in all your creatures!
Amen.*

The 100th Anniversary of St. Padre Pio Receiving the Stigmata of Jesus Christ and the Wounds of the Church in our Day

On Thursday, September 20, 2018 we will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of St. Padre Pio (1887-1968) receiving the stigmata of Jesus Christ.

The stigmata are the wounds of Christ – in his hands, in his feet and in his side— which he experienced in his passion, crucifixion and death. Certain saints in the history of the Church have been given the gift of the stigmata as a special sign of their union with the Crucified Christ.

As a Capuchin Friar, St. Pio was a son of St. Francis of Assisi (1181/1182-1226) who also received and lived his life with the stigmata. St. Pio's stigmata showed how he lived the Passion and Crucifixion of Christ in a mystical way.

His wounds helped him to understand the cosmic power of the Catholic Mass, the unbloody renewal of Christ's sacrifice on Calvary and the relationship between a holy living of the priesthood and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

His wounds helped him to be a Doctor of Mercy in the confessional and a Doctor of Mercy for those who had experienced all types of trauma in life. St. Pio's wounds gave him a unique understanding of how to heal the wounds of the Church throughout history.

During these painful and traumatic moments for our Church, we ask St. Padre Pio's intercession to help heal the wounds of the Church in our time.

FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT, WE THANK YOU FOR THE HOLY WITNESS OF YOUR PRIEST, SAINT PADRE PIO, AND THE GIFT OF THE STIGMATA THAT YOU GAVE HIM.

WE ASK THROUGH ST. PIO'S INTERCESSION THAT THE WOUNDS AND TRAUMAS OF SURVIVORS OF ABUSE AND THE WOUNDS OF THE ENTIRE CHURCH MAY BE TOUCHED BY THE GLORIFIED WOUNDS OF THE RISEN CHRIST. WE ASK THIS THROUGH CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN.

Bishop of Rockville Centre
