Growing in Faith, Love, and Christ

The apostles said to the Lord,
"Increase our faith."

The Lord replied,
"If you have faith the size
of a mustard seed,
you would say to this mulberry tree,
'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,'
and it would obey you."

From Fr. Mike's Desk

A little less than a month ago, we celebrated Labor Day, and on this day, we honor all of those who work so hard for the good of our country and the world. This consists of all types of labor and professions, and we know that all types of honest labor are blessed by God, especially as remembered by our dear Saint Joseph under the title of St. Joseph the Worker (May 1st). Today's readings give us a view of the labors of a Christian; the labor every follower of Christ must do to build the Kingdom of God, and to change the image of the world to conform to the Gospel. While it is true that all good labor contributes to the building up of the Kingdom, it is also true that we are to labor beyond our occupations and professions to preach and live out the Good News. In fact, to strengthen us in our Spiritual Labor, the Church provides us with two sacraments of Vocations: one being Marriage and the other Holy Orders. These are also aided by those who have taken Solemn Vows to the Consecrated or Religious Life, and for those who, as single Christians, dedicate their lives to the Gospel. All of these: Sacraments, Vows, and Dedications help Church members increase their faith, and help us all to live out our Baptismal Call. But service to the Church is not always easy and sometimes it is downright frustrating, so much so that we even ask why are we doing this?

The Prophet Habakkuk asks God this very question, and seems to be saying to God, 'Why do you allow the things that defeat us to happen?' But God answers him with a vision in which He tells Habakkuk to write it down, so that all may read it. And then do not be impatient, rather be people of faith. In time, we will see God's plan emerge. Paul tells us that we were not given a spirit of cowardice, but rather the power and love of self-control. Paul tells us not to be ashamed or lose heart, but to bear our share of hardships for the Gospel and to do it with the strength that comes from God.

Finally, Jesus' response to the Apostles' request to increase their faith reflects what our call to Christian Labor is all about. Jesus tells them that if they had faith the size of a mustard seed, that would be enough for them to do anything. Then, Our Lord goes into the example of a master and his slave. How the slave must do his master's bidding before he can take care of himself. That is the natural way, and Jesus is implying that is the way it should be with us in our service to God, the Church, and the World. We as disciples are called to work, and when we have come to the end of the day, we are not looking for a reward, but say we are just unprofitable servants doing just what we are supposed to do. While this may seem contrary to common thought and certainly seems un-American, it is truly the Christian Way. We should gladly do what is required of us and do it out of love and with gladness. The gift that will help us to do this is Faith (as we saw in the Letter to the Hebrews, from August 7th). This is part of what Jesus means when He tells us that if we have faith the size of a mustard seed, it is enough because if we put our faith into practice, the easier it is to serve the Lord with gladness, and the more our faith will grow from the size of a mustard seed to being the whole bush.

We close with a Prayer to Strengthen Faith, Hope and Love.

Almighty and ever-living God, strengthen our faith, hope, and love. May we do with loving hearts what you ask of us and come to share the life you promise. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever. Amen

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 12, 2025

First Reading - 2 Kings 5:14-17

Psalm 98: 1, 2-3, 3-4

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Gospel - Luke 17:11-19

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we hear the story of Jesus healing ten lepers. Jesus sent them off to the local priests, whom would observe that they were now clean. Nine went to the priests, but one stopped along the way and returned, glorifying God and thanking Jesus. Jesus then said to him, "... your faith has saved you."

How often do you glorify God, and thank Jesus for all He has done for you?

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

The Adult Bible Study Group will resume meeting on Wednesday, October 15th in the Cenacle Room. Fr. Hyacinth will lead the group.

All are welcome to attend.

Care for Our Common Home

Neglecting to monitor the harm done to nature and the environmental impact of our decisions is only the most striking sign of a disregard for the message contained in the structures of nature itself. When we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities – to offer just a few examples – it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected. Once the human being declares independence from reality and behaves with absolute dominion, the very foundations of our life begin to crumble, for “instead of carrying out his role as a cooperator with God in the work of creation, man sets himself up in place of God and thus ends up provoking a rebellion on the part of nature”

Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' -
Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 117

Parish Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

“Could you not watch one hour with Me?”

Friday Morning Following 9:00 AM Mass—Noon
Friday Evening 7:00—8:00 PM

Pope John Paul II wrote, “The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the church and to the entire world. Let Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your heart. It is He who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: He is God with us. Seek him without tiring, welcome him without reserve, love him without interruption: Today, tomorrow, forever.” - 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.

Did You Know...

While being aware of the severe shortage of priests worldwide, and in recognizing all that our pastor, Father Mike, and assisting priests, Father Hyacinth and Father Jude, do for us, let us pray to the Holy Spirit on behalf of all priests:

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

O Jesus, I implore Your divine assistance for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your Priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your lonely and desolate priests; for Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in purgatory. But above all, I commend to You the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your Sacred Heart, and bless them abundantly in time and eternity. Amen
