From Fr. Mike's Desk

This weekend, we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles. Last week, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, which usually leads us back to the Sundays of Ordinary Time. Today would have been the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time, but this year it has changed because this feast day is too great to be overlooked. Also, we must not forget that Saints Peter and Paul are the patron saints of the Diocese of Rome, of which the Pope is the bishop. Both Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome; Peter first around 64 AD under the control of Nero, and Paul was martyred around 67 AD. Now, even though they were a few years apart, they were still close enough to be considered martyred at the same time. Despite what the Romans thought, their deaths did not weaken the Church in Rome; in fact, it made the faith and the community stronger and not ready to give in. The people learned not to lose hope, and they realized that Christ was with them in all times and situations.

One of the points of interest about this feast day is the great churches that were built over the resting places of these Apostles. As you may know, St. Peter was crucified upside down, on Vatican Hill, and was buried in a cemetery on the same hill. This resulted in the building of a great church over that cemetery and hill, which lasted until the late Middle Ages/Renaissance period. But this could only happen after the Emperor Constantine declared that Christianity was a legal religion in the Empire, which led to Christianity being the only religion allowed in the empire. Saint Paul's remains were placed in a tomb that was located outside of the ancient walls of the city, and they built a large church over the remains and became known as St. Paul's Outside the Walls. This original church suffered a great fire and was rebuilt with a larger church.

The churches remind us of the words from today's Gospel, "You are Peter the Rock and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." After two thousand years, we are still here and will be here until Christ comes again. Remember the Church is the Living Body of Christ, and the dwelling place of The Holy Spirit, and that means God will always guide her and the forces of evil will never win, because you cannot defeat The Holy Spirit.

On this day, remember these two great saints, we must continue to pray for Pope Leo XIV, who assumed the Chair of St. Peter to be the Bishop of Rome and Pope of the whole Church. Pray that he may always do well and love, and care for the Church.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 6, 2025

First Reading - Isaiah 66:10-14c

Psalms 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

Second Reading - Galatians 6:14-18

Gospel - Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we hear Jesus say to His disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few...". By harvest, Jesus means people who have yet to hear the 'Good News'. By laborers, He means people who have heard it, and who need to work at spreading His message of love, hope, and salvation.

As a laborer, are you working to spread His message to others? If not, why not?

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us – the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair – at even greater risk. Suicide is not healthcare.

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path – one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit bit.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.

Did You Know...?

In this important time of our Catholic faith we focus especially on the importance of receiving the Holy Eucharist. As a Catholic, receiving Holy Communion on Sundays is not only a pious practice but also an essential part of one's faith and spiritual journey. Here are seven reasons why a Catholic should receive Holy Communion on Sundays:

- ♦ The Lord's Day: Sunday is the Lord's Day, the day of Christ's resurrection. By receiving Holy Communion on Sundays, Catholics commemorate and celebrate the most significant event in Christian history.
- ♦ Participating in the Eucharist: The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Catholic faith. By receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, Catholics enter into a profound union with Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross.
- ♦ Obligation: The Church obliges Catholics to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Receiving Holy Communion is an integral part of this obligation, and it fulfills the call to worship and honor God.
- ♦ Spiritual Nourishment: Just as the body needs physical sustenance, the soul requires spiritual nourishment. Holy Communion provides spiritual strength, grace, and closeness to Christ to face life's challenges.
- ♦ Unity with the Church: Receiving Holy Communion on Sundays unites Catholics with the universal Church. It is a visible expression of the communal aspect of the faith and strengthens the bond with fellow believers.
- ♦ Repentance and Forgiveness: Before receiving Holy Communion, Catholics typically participate in the Penitential Rite, acknowledging their sins and seeking God's forgiveness. Communion then becomes an opportunity for spiritual healing and reconciliation with God.
- ♦ Witness to the Faith: By receiving Holy Communion on Sundays, Catholics bear witness to their faith in Christ's real presence in the Eucharist. It is a public declaration of their belief in the central tenet of Catholicism.

In conclusion, receiving Holy Communion on Sundays is a way for Catholics to encounter Christ intimately, express their devotion, and grow in their faith as they strive to live more Christ-like lives.

Saints Peter and Paul - Pillars of the Church

Saints Peter and Paul are celebrated together because they are both considered foundational figures in the early Christian Church and were both martyred in Rome. While they had distinct roles and backgrounds, their martyrdoms, combined with their shared dedication to spreading the Gospel, led to them being honored on the same feast day, June 29th. Here is more on each of them -

- Foundational Figures: Peter, one of the original twelve apostles, is considered the "rock" upon which the Church was built. Paul, originally a persecutor of Christians, became a key apostle, particularly known for his missionary work among the Gentiles.
- Shared Martyrdom: Both Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome during the reign of Emperor Nero. While the exact dates differ, historical accounts and legends place their deaths close together, and they are believed to have been buried in Rome.
- * Symbol of Unity: Their combined legacy represents the unity and universality of the Church. They are often seen as complementary figures, with Peter representing the Church's foundation and Paul representing its outreach to the wider world.
- Feast Day: The Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, celebrated on June 29th, is a major feast day in the liturgical calendar. It is a day of solemnity and is marked with special religious services and celebrations.
- * Patrons of Rome: They are also considered the principal patrons of Rome, reflecting their connection to the city and their martyrdom there.
