From Fr. Mike's Desk

At the end of Mass, we hear the Deacon or the Priest saying one of the following: "Go forth, The Mass is ended, Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord, or Go in Peace glorifying the Lord by your life, or simply, Go in Peace". Of course, the response is "Thanks be to God." Now I am sure you know that when this is announced and we reply, "Thanks be to God", we are not saying to God thank you it is finally over. However, I can see sometimes when that may be the case (certainly not, when I am saying Mass!). No, what is being said is summed up in the second sending forth, "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." This sending forth is also known as the dismissal and the giving and receiving of the mission. In fact, the giving of the mission is how the Eucharist came to be known as the Mass, which in Latin is missa (and as it is said in Latin "Ite, missa est"). People would ask one another if they were present for or received their missa, and this soon became the common name for the Liturgy, and as usually happens, the common name becomes the official name.

This sending forth to proclaim the Gospel is what we are supposed to do when we leave the Mass, and not just on Sundays, but every day of the week. It is what we are supposed to do when we go out. Just as Jesus told the seventy-two, whom He sent out in today's Gospel. He told them to prepare the way for His coming, to announce that the Kingdom of God is here and we should be living in the joy and peace of the Kingdom, now! We should be seeking the justice of the kingdom, which means trying to have the correct relationship between God and ourselves, with our brothers and sisters. We should strive to seek forgiveness where we need it and offer it to those who have hurt us. We should seek to be in a harmonious relationship with God and all of God's creation. Most importantly, we should not be afraid to do it. Why? Because when we do it, we are not doing it by ourselves, we are doing it with the whole Church. Notice that Jesus sent them two by two so that one could give strength to the other and fill in any blanks that the other may have left unfilled. As we see at the end of the reading, the seventy-two came back rejoicing as they said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." This is how powerful we can be if we put ourselves to the task. In fact, we can be more powerful than they were, because we have been baptized and we have received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Yes, we can do more, and we are challenged to do more, so why don't we?

Is it out of fear, and the notion that I do not know what to say, so I do nothing. We do not act because we may think that it is not my job. After all, this is the job of the Clergy or the Religious, or we may say, we do not have the time to do it. Not so, after all, we all can proclaim the Good News and be Christ's missionaries, just by being the best Christian, every day and in every place.

We have all been sent out on the mission to spread the Gospel, so get busy, and let us support and pray for one another as we go out to glorify the Lord by our lives.

God bless you always, and go announce the Gospel of the Lord!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 13, 2025

First Reading - Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Psalms 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37

Second Reading - Colossians 1:15-20

Gospel - Luke 10:25-37

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel a scholar of the law questioned Jesus about what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus asked the scholar what he thought. In short, the scholar said "You shall love the Lord, your God.....and your neighbor as yourself". Jesus told the scholar he had answered correctly. But then the scholar asked "And who is my neighbor". Jesus told the scholar the story of the 'Good Samaritan'.

Could you be as merciful as the Samaritan?

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us – the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair – at even greater risk. Suicide is not healthcare.

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path – one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit bit.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.
