From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep... Whoever enters through me will be saved...I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly.”

This Fourth Sunday of Easter is traditionally called Good Shepherd Sunday, because the Gospel each year refers to Jesus as the Good Shepherd. This day reminds us that through the life, death, and resurrection of Christ, we have all become something new and that Jesus the Good Shepherd will lead all His sheep to salvation and eternal life, especially those sheep who are lost. Why does He refer to Himself as the Good Shepherd, and why does he refer to us as His sheep? It goes back to one of the images of God that is seen in the Old Testament, that God is Israel's Shepherd. Keep in mind the relationship that a shepherd in the ancient world had with his sheep. The people of Israel believed that they had the same kind of relationship with God. Unlike modern shepherds who control their sheep with dogs, horses, and modern devices, shepherds in ancient Israel knew their sheep individually. They did not walk behind them, but before them, so the shepherd could forge a path to ensure that they would not fall or get into any kind of trouble. The shepherd would search for the best pastureland and water holes, taking care of the sheep's every need. If a sheep were hurt, he would nurse it back to health, and if one were lost, he would go out and find it.

Jesus approaches us with the same care, and in today's Gospel, He refers to Himself as the Sheep Gate. Shepherds during Jesus' time, at night, would function as a living gate, standing or lying in front of the sheepfold, and he would make sure that every single sheep was accounted for. Likewise, Jesus, as our living sheep gate, knows each of us, watches over us, and leads all people and every generation to the Father. Jesus also invites His disciples to do the same, to join Him in shepherding people. He is also calling us to serve as shepherds to each other and to help others get closer to God. The words of the Third Eucharistic Prayer repeat this as we read, "...you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name." These words tell us that God the Father, through the Son and by the working of the Holy Spirit, is always calling us to Himself. He calls us to be His sheep but also His shepherds, and each of us is called to a specific shepherding role in the Church. Jesus calls people to shepherd His sheep through the Ordained Ministries of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. Jesus calls people to shepherd through the Consecrated Life of Religious Sisters and Brothers. These two groups of ministries call a person to dedicate their lives in service to the sheep watching over them and guiding them, acting as Christ. On this day, we traditionally pray for an increase of vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life. Every Christian has an obligation to pray for vocations, and every one of us should be looking to encourage vocations among young men and women who they believe may have a calling to these ministries. Remember, God is always calling people to these ministries; however, the problem is that people do not know how to listen to God's voice. That is why it is our priority to echo the Divine calling. It's easy, all you have to do is ask! Ask that person, have you ever thought of pursuing a religious vocation? Many of us in service to the Church in these ministries would not be here if we were not asked.

God bless you always, and do not forget to ask.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 3, 2026

First Reading - Acts 6:1-7

Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19

Second Reading - 1 Peter 2:4-9

Gospel - John 14:1-12

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we hear Jesus speak to His disciples and tell them that he is going to prepare a place for them. He says “Where I am going you know the way”. Thomas states that they do not know where He is going, and how can they know the way?

We hear the words of Jesus each week. We know that He has prepared a place for us, and that He has clearly shown us the way. Unlike Thomas, do you the way and can you show others how to get there?

Care for Our Common Home

Politics and the economy tend to blame each other when it comes to poverty and environmental degradation. It is to be hoped that they can acknowledge their own mistakes and find forms of interaction directed to the common good. While some are concerned only with financial gain, and others with holding on to or increasing their power, what we are left with are conflicts or spurious agreements where the last thing either party is concerned about is caring for the environment and protecting those who are most vulnerable. Here too, we see how true it is that "unity is greater than conflict". What is needed is a politics which is far-sighted and capable of a new, integral and interdisciplinary approach to handling the different aspects of the crisis.
