From Fr. Mike's Desk

"I am the resurrection and the life; and whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" With these words and the whole account of Lazarus' resurrection, we are given the last glimpse of Jesus' earthly mission. Today's Gospel presents us with many images and leads to many questions. At times, we can find ourselves acting just like Thomas, Martha, and Mary, and all the others who gathered around the tomb. They asked the question, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" I am sure that at times we might ask why Jesus took so long to go to Bethany, and then why He went even knowing that Lazarus was already dead?

There are reasons why Jesus does all of this and says what He says so that all can benefit from what they will see, and so that we can benefit from what we read and what we see in our midst. Listen to Our Lord's prayer to the Father. "Father, I thank you for hearing me, I know that you are always with me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." The Gospel gives us a good picture of the friendship that Jesus had with Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. We see this in the way the two sisters speak to Jesus when He arrives. Mary comes out of the house (after being forced), and she points out that Jesus is extremely late in arriving, and if He had been there, Lazarus would not have died. Jesus does not get angry with her or the others for their lack of understanding. However, He does use the occasion to reveal more about Himself and His Divine Mission.

Jesus uses the occasion to reveal His Divine power and calls Lazarus from the tomb (after he had been dead for four days), and he comes forth. What Jesus did for Lazarus in a small way, He will do for us in a bigger way! Small Way you might ask, well, yes. Even though He called Lazarus back from the dead, Lazarus would die again, and this great miracle would pale in comparison to the greater miracle Jesus will carry out in Jerusalem. Lazarus' resurrection is a foreshadowing of the Resurrection to Eternal Life gained for us by Jesus Christ. Now, even when our bodies die (and they will), we will not, we will live on forever in God's Kingdom that does not end.

Jesus delays going to Bethany so that He could awaken Lazarus and show his sisters, the crowd, and us that the Resurrection is not just something that is far off in the future or reserved for the end of time, no, it is here and now. How do we know? Jesus tells us, "I am the Resurrection and the Life." He is not the product of the Resurrection; He is the Resurrection. We are reminded that Resurrection is something we can encounter every day. Every day presents us with opportunities to sin, to die, and to rise to a new life of grace and holiness.

God bless you always, and Happy Fifth Sunday of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

March 29, 2026

First Reading - Isaiah 50:4-7
Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24
Second Reading - Philippians 2:6-11
Gospel - Matthew 26:14-27:66

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel we hear the story of the Last Supper, where Jesus tells Peter that he will deny knowing Him three times before the night is over. Peter says that "Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you." Later that night, Peter ends up denying Jesus three times by saying "I do not know the man!"

Every day you meet people, strangers, friends, neighbors, and co-workers. Do you give witness and testimony by your life and words, or do you hide your belief in Jesus so as make 'polite conversation' or not offend anyone? What does that say about your faith?

Care for Our Common Home

The ultimate destiny of the universe is in the fullness of God, which has already been attained by the risen Christ, the measure of the maturity of all things. Here we can add yet another argument for rejecting every tyrannical and irresponsible domination of human beings over other creatures. The ultimate purpose of other creatures is not to be found in us. Rather, all creatures are moving forward with us and through us towards a common point of arrival, which is God, in that transcendent fullness where the risen Christ embraces and illumines all things. Human beings, endowed with intelligence and love, and drawn by the fullness of Christ, are called to lead all creatures back to their Creator.

Knights of Columbus

As we get closer to Easter the Knights of Columbus are encouraging families in the Parish to attend the Good Friday Liturgy here at St. Edwards. Putting faith into action, the Knights have produced 5 short videos making up the Mission of the Family series. The Knights encourage participation and educating everyone on the vital importance of our faith. The Lord's passion and death reminds families of the suffering Jesus endured through his passion and resurrection, thereby opening the gates of heaven for each of us.

Watch with your family members and spread the word!

Pope Leo XIV on Marriage

Pope Leo XIV declared marriage is "not an ideal, but the measure of true love between a man and a woman," and families are "the cradle of the future of humanity". The Pontiff emphasized that marriage represents "the measure of true love between a man and a woman: a love that is total, faithful and fruitful." He stated that the Church tells us that today's world needs the marriage covenant in order to know and accept God's love and to defeat, thanks to its unifying and reconciling power, the forces that break down relationships and societies."
