From Fr. Mike's Desk

"And this is the will of the one who sent me that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day." In this quote from John's Gospel, Jesus tells the entire world that God the Father sent the Son so that all may be saved. Christ calls all to salvation and eternal life in the Kingdom. However, in today's gospel that question asked and its answer contradicts the above quote. As we read in Luke's Gospel, "Lord will only a few people be saved?" In addition, He answered, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many I tell you will attempt to enter, but will not be strong enough." Now we may ask which account is correct. Well, knowing that both come from the New Testament and are inspired by the Holy Spirit, we can conclude that they are both correct!

Certainly, God the Father wants all His children saved, yes, He did send Jesus, and the Holy Spirit was sent upon the Church for our salvation. However, we must also remember that God gave us Free Will, and while this is a great gift, it can be our greatest liability. Just ask Adam and Eve. Free Will gives us the ability to place our will before God's and when we do this, sin occurs. This is what Jesus means when He says that some will not be strong enough to enter. They will not be strong enough because they keep placing their will before God's. As we have seen through most of this summer, the readings keep telling us that to enter Heaven we need more than just a lukewarm faith. Heaven requires us to have more than a knowledge of Jesus. It requires us to know Jesus truly, to have true conversion, and to have an ardent desire to be one with Him and with one another as members of His Living Body, the Church.

Those who do not work for this will hear from Jesus, "I do not know where you are from." Yet, before we lose all hope, realize that these words are for those who do not try to repent, and for those who do not seek any type of relationship with Him because they feel they do not need it. Remember the above quote, Jesus came to save all who do acknowledge Him and try to live as He has told us. That is why Jesus also says, "...people will come from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Thus, many will come, and they will be saved, provided they are strong enough and allow their faith to change and shape their lives. This requires us to look at our whole life and examine our conscience to see how well we are living according the Jesus' teachings, and how well we try to put God's will before ours. After we examine our lives, hopefully we will be hearing, come and recline at my Father's table. Keep in mind that we may not always succeed in surrendering our wills to God's put God does appreciate the fact that we are entering into the struggle to try to do what is right.

Some points of Reference to Examine One's Conscience is to see how well you have followed the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes of Jesus, how well you practice the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy, and how well have you followed the Precepts of the Church. These can all be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church or look it up online in the Baltimore Catechism.

May God bless you always and enjoy the rest of the summer, which is ending soon, sorry Kids.

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 31, 2025

First Reading - Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Psalm 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

Second Reading - Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Gospel - Luke 14:1, 7-14

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus tell a parable of whom to invite to a wedding ceremony. If you invite family, friends, or neighbors, they may reciprocate and invite you to some event they are hosting, as if repaying a debt.

When you host events, are there people you should invite so as to receive your repayment at the resurrection?

Care For Our Common Home

Mary, the Mother who cared for Jesus, now cares with maternal affection and pain for this wounded world. Just as her pierced heart mourned the death of Jesus, so now she grieves for the sufferings of the crucified poor and for the creatures of this world laid waste by human power. Completely transfigured, she now lives with Jesus, and all creatures sing of her fairness. She is the Woman, "clothed in the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars". Carried up into heaven, she is the Mother and Queen of all creation. In her glorified body, together with the Risen Christ, part of creation has reached the fullness of its beauty. She treasures the entire life of Jesus in her heart, and now understands the meaning of all things. Hence, we can ask her to enable us to look at this world with eyes of wisdom.
