From Fr. Mike's Desk

Peter tells us in his First Letter that we should, “Come to him, a living stone rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and like living stones let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood...” Peter tells us that accepting Jesus, being a part of His Church, and its mission is natural for a person of faith. Jesus becomes a stone that will make people stumble, and He will be a rock that will make them fall. People stumble because they disobey His word. This is a choice we must make in our lives: will we be people of faith, or will we stumble on His words and allow Him to become an obstacle in our lives? Now we have all gathered here to celebrate the Eucharist, so we have chosen to be people of faith; however, even people with faith have doubts and questions. This is part of the human condition, and none of us is immune to it, not even the Apostles!

In today's Gospel, the Apostles Thomas and Phillip question Jesus. They all had questions on that First Holy Thursday Night, and they were all deeply troubled. Yet Jesus tells them not to worry and not to have questions, for He is indeed the one the Father sent into the world. In fact, as Jesus tells Phillip, He is more than just one sent by the Father, He and the Father are one! There is no need to ask to see the Father because we have seen the Son, and the Son is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Jesus is the obstacle to those without faith, and they cannot see Him as being the Way, the Truth, and the Life, because they have allowed their hearts to be troubled by the things of this world. When we avoid totally focusing on problems and worries, we seem to better pass through the times of questions and doubts.

However, sometimes the world's problems and our own problems are very troublesome, and no matter how hard we try, we cannot get past them, especially remembering the Corona Virus and its effects. How did we manage the problems? We did it by listening to the words of Jesus, spoken some weeks ago when we were last in Ordinary

Time. Our Lord said, do not worry and trust only in God. This is also the theme of Divine Mercy Sunday, as we see in the image of the Divine Mercy the words, “Jesus I trust in you.”

Jesus, of course, can say all of this with confidence because He and the Father are one; to place all trust in Jesus is to place all trust in the Three Persons of the Blessed Trinity.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026

First Reading - Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

Second Reading - 1 Peter 3:15-18

Gospel - John 14:15-21

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel next week Jesus says to His disciples that the Father “will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot accept”. The Advocate (the Holy Spirit), will guide the disciples into a full and complete understanding of God's truth, as revealed through Jesus Christ.

When you ask “what is truth”, just as Pontius Pilate did of Jesus, do you then ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and understanding?

Care for Our Common Home

The current global situation engenders a feeling of instability and uncertainty, which in turn becomes "a seedbed for collective selfishness". When people become self-centred and self-enclosed, their greed increases. The emptier a person's heart is, the more he or she needs things to buy, own and consume. It becomes almost impossible to accept the limits imposed by reality. In this horizon, a genuine sense of the common good also disappears. As these attitudes become more widespread, social norms are respected only to the extent that they do not clash with personal needs. So our concern cannot be limited merely to the threat of extreme weather events, but must also extend to the catastrophic consequences of social unrest. Obsession with a consumerist lifestyle, above all when few people are capable of maintaining it, can only lead to violence and mutual destruction.

- Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter - Laudato Si' - Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 204

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "...whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father. Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. The coins placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box bring Christ love and compassion to the poor.

If you would like to join us as we help our neighbors in need, please come to our next meeting on Monday, May 4th at 7:00pm in the Cenacle room.

Knights of Columbus - 65th Anniversary Celebration

This past Saturday the Joseph J. Gorman Council No. 5091 of the Knights of Columbus celebrated their 65th Anniversary. Many parishioners were in attendance, and listened to the various ways the Knights have served the parish and the local community over the years. Iavarone Brothers catered the food, the Women's Guild arranged for the beautiful cake and delicious cookies, and the Knights served the drinks. During the event, the Knights honored one of their own, and also a Parish Family.

Ciro 'Jerry' Migliore was honored as the Knight of the Year, pictured here with his lovely wife Marylou. Jerry organizes the 'Lights of Peace, Hope & Remembrance' outside the church during Christmas, and also helps coordinate the planting of the Veteran's Flags.

This year's Family of the Year, Frances and Leo Scally. They devoted many years to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and now help with the Parish Social Ministry. Leo, a Knight, and devotes a number of hours each month working on various projects around the parish. Fran has served on the Parish Finance Committee for many years.
