From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This feast is a devotional feast, meaning that this feast does not mark a particular event like the Nativity or the Resurrection. However, it is designed to promote a devotion to the Holy Family, so it can serve as a model for modern family life. This Feast was added to the Church's Calendar by Pope Leo XIII in 1893 and was first celebrated on the Sunday after the Feast of the Epiphany. The Second Vatican Council moved the Feast to be remembered on the Sunday that falls between Christmas and the Epiphany, thus linking it closer to Christmas. This also reminds us that God's presence is not only seen in Jesus, the babe of Bethlehem, but also as a member of a human family (the whole human family from age to age).

Many times, when we contemplate the Holy Family, we interpret this to mean that they were always happy. While I am sure that many times, they were happy, there were also many times they were unhappy, or had to face their share of trouble, just like our families. After all, families that are always happy can only be found on television of the 1950's, 60's, and the 70's. Yes, they had their troubles, as we can see in the various Gospel accounts for this day (i.e., The Flight to Egypt or how upset Joseph and Mary were when they could not find Jesus in Jerusalem until they came to the Temple). Like all families, they knew the loss of loved ones, especially as St. Joseph died before Jesus began His Public Ministry. So, how did they get through all these encounters and some even tougher predicaments? They relied on their strong faith in God, which was the very same faith that allowed the Blessed Mother to say yes when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to her, just as Joseph had when he was told in a dream whose child she was carrying. The same strong faith that brought the Holy Family to the Temple to fulfill the Law of Moses, likewise helped our dear Mother to hear and ponder the words uttered by Simeon and Anna.

This is the same faith that helped other Scriptural Families accomplish so much. It helped Abraham leave his household and travel to the Holy Land as he believed God's promises to him would be fulfilled, and it allowed Moses' mother to put him in a small ark and send him down the Nile, knowing that God would save her son. This is the same faith that can help us when we are faced with troubles or demanding situations. Bear in mind that this faith may not make the trouble go away, but it will give us the strength to face trouble, endure it, and hopefully gain insight to grow from the experience. No, family is perfect, but each family should strive to do their best to love one another, to forgive one another, and support each other. This is what makes a family holy, and this is what we found in Nazareth, and what we can see and find in Syosset and Woodbury.

We close with the Blessing of Families from the Book of Blessings. We bless your name O Lord for sending your own Son to become part of a family, so that as He lived His life, He would experience its worries and joys. We ask you, Lord, to protect and watch over our families, so that in the strength of your grace we may enjoy prosperity and possess the priceless gift of your Peace. May the Lord Jesus, who lived with His Holy Family in Nazareth, dwell also with our families, keep us from all evil, and make us all one in heart and mind. Amen

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Mike

In Matthew's Gospel we hear the story of the magi, who, guided by a star, sought out "the newborn king of the Jews". They found the newborn Jesus with His Mother, and honored him with deep respect and expensive gifts.

Care for Our Common Home

The divine Persons are subsistent relations, and the world, created according to the divine model, is a web of relationships. Creatures tend towards God, and in turn it is proper to every living being to tend towards other things, so that throughout the universe we can find any number of constant and secretly interwoven relationships. This leads us not only to marvel at the manifold connections existing among creatures, but also to discover a key to our own fulfilment. The human person grows more, matures more and is sanctified more to the extent that he or she enters into relationships, going out from themselves to live in communion with God, with others and with all creatures. In this way, they make their own that trinitarian dynamism which God imprinted in them when they were created. Everything is interconnected, and this invites us to develop a spirituality of that global solidarity which flows from the mystery of the Trinity.

Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' -
Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 240

Parish Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

“Could you not watch one hour with Me?”

Friday Morning Following 9:00 AM Mass—Noon
Friday Evening 7:00—8:00 PM

The Gospel is an invitation to love, and if we accept that invitation, our priorities will inevitably change. Consecration is also an invitation to love the Eucharist more deeply, more completely, than ever before. And the result of this journey will be shifting priorities. [33 Days to Eucharistic Glory, p.94]

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.
