From Fr. Mike's Desk

Let us pray: Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, today we rejoice in the holy men and women of every time and place. May their prayers bring us your forgiveness and love. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen. As the above prayer tells us, today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, which we celebrate each year on November 1st. Even when this day falls on a Sunday, it requires our full attention to its theme and to its readings. This day calls us to remember all of those who came before us. While we certainly remember all the saints who are known throughout the many centuries of the Church, today calls us to remember those whom we do not know (or who are only known to us). The saints whom we know are people recognized as being holy or close to God, yet remember that all who have gone before us are also considered saints.

The English word Saint comes from the Latin Sanctus, which means holy. They are the great number of witnesses who, even with their faults, strove to keep moving closer to Christ. They surrendered themselves to God's love. The saints are our heroes who remind us that the Church is holy and can never stop being holy even when its members and leaders seem to turn from God. The Church teaches that it does not make or create saints; rather, She recognizes them. Proof of virtue is regarded and is examined in the process of beatification. Formal canonization is a lengthy process, taking many years or even centuries (there are some exceptions, i.e., Pope Saint John Paul II). There are four major steps to becoming an "Official Saint." The first is investigation of the person's life by professional investigators who send a report to the local Bishop, and if it passes the bishops, it is sent to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome. If the person is approved, he or she is given the title Venerable. Further investigation may lead to step three, which is beatification, with the person given the title Blessed. Next, there must be proof of at least two important miracles obtained from God through the intercession of the Blessed person, and these miracles must be done posthumously. After the three steps are completed, the move is to the fourth step, which is the Pope declaring that the person is a Saint and that he or she is worthy of being venerated throughout the whole Church.

Saints do more than represent a good example to follow; they also help us on our earthly journey. They pray for us (intercede), they help us present ourselves before God as we ask for their help in response to a problem or seek forgiveness for our sins. Many saints are patron saints for a country, occupation, illness, or cause (like asking St. Anthony to help find our lost keys). Of course, the greatest of all Saints is Our Dear Blessed Mother. She has a special place in Heaven because of the role she played in our salvation. By her saying yes to God and agreeing to be the mother of the Savior of the World, she acquired a special relationship with her Divine Son, and with us. She, as His mother, was given to us on the Cross and, as our loving mother, cares and prays for us. As the Queen Mother of Heaven, she serves as the chief advisor to Jesus, our King. What does she advise Him on? Well, that is easy; it is us; she intercedes for us before her Son, who pleads for us before God the Father.

Let us put all the Saints to work for us, especially in these challenging times. Tomorrow, Monday, November 2nd, which is All Souls Day, at 7:30 PM, we will have our annual Mass of Remembrance for All Souls' Day. At this Mass, we remember especially all those whose Funeral Mass or Service was celebrated here at St. Edward's during the past year. Their names will be announced, and you are invited to come forward to receive a flower to remember your loved ones. All are invited to this Mass even if you have not suffered a loss this past year. In addition, to have your loved ones remembered at all the Masses on All Souls' Day and during the month of November, please fill out and drop in the collection or drop off at the rectory an All-Souls Envelope found in your packet.

Happy Feast Day, and May God Bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 8, 2026

First Reading – Wisdom 6:12-16
Psalm 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8
Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
Gospel - Matthew 25:1-13

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel we hear how Jesus likened the kingdom of heaven to the story of the ten virgins with lamps, who went out to meet the bridegroom. Five took their lamps and brought oil, and the other five brought their lamps, but no oil. When the bridegroom finally arrived, the five who had their lamps and oil were allowed into the wedding feast. The other five were barred, and would not be allowed in.

None of us know the day or hour when we will be called. Entry into the kingdom of heaven takes forethought and preparation. What more do you need to do?
