From Fr. Mike's Desk

School has been in session for a few weeks, and I know that our students are just settling into a new year. When I was in school, I used to like how school started slowly, and we did not have everything thrown at us at once. This seemed to change as I got older and went through each grade. Before you knew it, on the first day, you realized you were already behind a week, and that was especially true in college and graduate school.

Today, Jesus is giving us a crash course on the Gospels, and He does this through the many lessons in Luke's Gospels. According to William Barclay, a world-renowned Scripture Scholar, he tells us that Christ is giving us four lessons in one Gospel, so pay attention! The first lesson is that people of this world are wiser in their own generation, more so than the children of the light. As he writes, "...if only the Christian were as eager and ingenious in his attempt to obtain goodness as the man of the world looks to obtain money." Jesus is telling us our Christianity will be truly effective when we spend as much time and effort on it as we do on worldly activities.

The next lesson involves wealth itself. Barclay believes that having wealth itself is not a terrible thing; it is what you do with it. If all we do is just concentrate on accruing wealth, it consumes us. If we use wealth to cement the friendships we were in, then it cannot be used to help the poor, to make life easier for those in need. We must look at the idea that having wealth is not a sin, but it carries with it great responsibility, and the person who uses wealth has a great task.

The next lesson Jesus gives us concerns the way one conducts a small task (which shows how he/she will conduct a larger one. As Barclay tells us, no person will advance to a higher office until he/she gives proof of honesty and ability. Your gifts and talents are only given to you for a fleeting time, but how you use them shows us how we get to eternal life.

When it comes to service to God, we must look at ourselves not as a steward, but as a slave when it comes to God. As a slave, we cannot serve two masters, but only one God. Keep in mind, a slave has no spare time, since every moment of his day is given to and belongs to God. Serving God can never be considered a part-time job. God must be looked at as our exclusive master, and we should look at ourselves and all we are and be firm that we belong to God totally or not at all.

One does not know if the Unjust Steward realized that part with his new master, but Jesus is telling us that we should be that way with God.

Welcome back to school!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

Second Reading - 1 Timothy 9:11-16

Gospel - Luke 16:19-31

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we hear Jesus tell the story of a rich, finely dressed man, and Lazarus, a poor man who suffered from sores. When Lazarus dies, he is carried away by angels to be with Abraham. When the rich man dies, he was cast into the netherworld, where he was tormented. The rich man then begs Abraham to send a messenger with a warning to his five brothers, so that they may change their ways and avoid eternal torment. Abraham replies "if they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead."

With Moses, the prophets, and Jesus Christ to guide you, will you change?

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

Care for Our Common Home

“God, who calls us to generous commitment and to give him our all, offers us the light and the strength needed to continue on our way. In the heart of this world, the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present. He does not abandon us, he does not leave us alone, for he has united himself definitively to our earth, and his love constantly impels us to find new ways forward.

Praise be to him!”

Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' -
Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 245

Parish Holy Hour

Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

“Could you not watch one hour with Me?”

Friday Morning Following 9:00 AM Mass—Noon
Friday Evening 7:00—8:00 PM

Most people are confused about what really matters, and God wants to liberate us from that confusion. Eucharistic clarity leads us to focus on the right things. We all get to choose who and what we care about, and who and what we choose to care about determines everything. For whatever we focus on will increase in our lives. - 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.

Did You Know...?

As many of you will recall, in the past 2 or 3 weeks, we had a table set up in the vestibule for our Parishioners to write their personal petitions and in turn, these petitions were being delivered to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes. At left, you will see a picture of the petitions actually being placed at the foot of the shrine still sealed so that Mother Mary knows what petition you sent to her. We thank both of our dear parishioners, Karin and Mila, for taking almost 350 petitions to the shrine on our behalf.

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying...

Whom shall I send?... And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" - Isaiah 6:6

The Lord is calling out to those men who will heed His call, and are willing to serve. You may not think that you are ready, but you are. Come and help build God's kingdom through works of charity and selflessness. Use your talents and gifts to support the church and local community. Do what you are being called to do.

The Knights of Columbus has been serving the parish of St. Edwards for nearly 65 years, with everything from organizing and running the Parish Festival, to fundraising for Seminarians, from hosting several blood drives per year, to honoring Veterans. When the Pastor (who is also our Chaplain) needs help, we show up!

If you are a Catholic man and want to be of service but only have an hour or two per month, then come to our next meeting this Tuesday, September 23rd in the Holy Family Room. Food will be provided by Master Chef Frank Vasile of Frank-E-Boy's Smokin' BBQ! Come, enjoy, learn, make new friends, and Answer His call!

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

On Sunday, September 21st, we will join with the global Church to celebrate Catechetical Sunday. It is a day set aside to acknowledge and to give thanks for the faithful and generous service of our Catechists. These dedicated men and women volunteer to come every week during the school year to teach the faith to our young people. St. Edward's Church in Syosset will continue to flourish for years to come because of their steadfast commitment to catechizing our youth. As a small token of our appreciation for their teaching ministry here at Saint Edward's, there will be a special blessing for our catechists at all the Masses on the weekend of the 21st.

We ask that you keep these fellow parishioners in your prayers as they begin a new school year of religious education for our young people.
