From Fr. Mike's Desk

Just how generous are you? Are you as generous as you can be, or do you hold back a little, even a lot? No matter how generous you are, we can never be as generous as God is, especially as we see in today's Gospel. We are familiar with the parable of the vineyard owner who goes out several times in the course of the day to find laborers to handle his harvest. Each time he went out at dawn, at 9 AM, Noon, 3 PM, and even 5 PM, he found people looking for work, so he sent them to his vineyard. We are also familiar with the parable's ending, which takes place at the end of the day when the owner pays his workers. Recall how the owner pays those who worked only an hour the usual day's wage (which one usually receives for working from sunup to sunset). Wow, this was great for them, but not so great for the people who were working since dawn, who likewise received the usual wage. As we see in the exchange of words, the workers felt that they should receive even more money than the people who only worked for an hour. This seems fair to many people, wouldn't you agree?

Yet, we know that did not happen, and the workers certainly complained, but the answer that the workers received from the owner was not one they anticipated. As the owner says, "My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me about the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give the last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?" Indeed, the vineyard owner is extremely generous, and Jesus means for us to understand the vineyard owner as none other than God the Father, and that the vineyard is life on this side of the Kingdom in which we are all laborers. Evidently, the lesson for this parable for us is that no matter how long we have been working to build the Kingdom (whether it be our whole lives, ½ our lives, or even the last ¼ of your life), we will all be treated the same by our Heavenly Father. If one works for the coming of the Kingdom and amends his or her life, then the Kingdom of God is ours.

The rest of the lesson from this parable is that we should not object or say that God is being unfair. After all, God created and loves us all, and God wants all of us to be with Him in Heaven. It is up to us to do the will of the Father and do our best to help all people, no matter when they come to God and seek the Kingdom. Keep in mind: whenever we help others to get to Heaven, we also help ourselves.

Also, please remember our wonderful Youth Group; this is a wonderful time of the year for our young people to join this ministry. It offers them fun and games, social activities, service projects which help others, and spiritual events which are uplifting and full of life. Do not forget our Youth Mass Music Group Vision, which allows those with musical talents to share them with the whole community.

God bless you for all you do for Saint Edwards!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 27, 2026

First Reading - Ezekiel 18:25-28

Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Second Reading - Philippians 2:1-11

Gospel - Matthew 21:28-32

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel we hear the story of the man with two sons, in which the man asked each son to work in the vineyard. The first son said 'no', but afterwards had a change of mind and went. The other son said 'yes', that he would go to the vineyard, but did not. Jesus used this story to explain which of us will enter the kingdom of God.

In your life do you say yes to God, but then do nothing? Or are you the person who says no, but upon reflection, turns slowly towards the path that God has laid out? Which type of person are you?

Magnificent Humanity

The Social Doctrine of the Church is a living reality, in dialogue with history, cultures and sciences. At the same time, it enshrines a core set of unchanging truths. For this reason, it can be considered a form of wisdom that is capable of guiding the personal and societal lives of believers even today. In this second chapter, I would like to focus on some of the foundations and principles of the Church's Social Doctrine that will help us to interpret the "new things" of our time, particularly in view of the inherent dignity of the human person. In order to protect the human person in the age of artificial intelligence, I believe that today we must once again reflect on the common good, the universal destination of goods, subsidiarity, solidarity and social justice. I am convinced that a harmonious relationship between these principles requires that they be considered collectively, so that it becomes clear how they relate to and complement each other.

CELEBRATE Catechetical Sunday

Sept.
20

On Sunday, September 20th, we will join with the global Church to celebrate Catechetical Sunday. It is a day set aside to acknowledge and to give thanks for the faithful and generous service of our Catechists. These dedicated men and women volunteer to come every week during the school year to teach the faith to our young people. St. Edward's Church will continue to flourish for years to come because of their steadfast commitment to catechizing our youth. As a small token of our heartfelt appreciation for their teaching ministry at Saint Edward's, there will be a blessing for our catechists at all the Masses on the weekend of the 19th & 20th starting with the 5:00pm Mass on Saturday. We ask that you keep these fellow parishioners in your prayers as they begin a new school year of religious education for our young people.
