Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet,
until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch.

Nations shall behold your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.
You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD,
a royal diadem held by your God.
No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight,"
and your land "Espoused."
For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse.
As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm – 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations,
give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name!

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Worship the LORD in holy attire.
Tremble before him, all the earth;
Say among the nations: The LORD is king.
He governs the peoples with equity.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Reading 2 - 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters:
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.
To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit;
to another, faith by the same Spirit;
to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit;
to another, mighty deeds;
to another, prophecy;
to another, discernment of spirits;
to another, varieties of tongues;
to another, interpretation of tongues.
But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Gospel – John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Gospel - Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

From Fr. Mike's Desk

You may have seen the poster we have up in the Church Gathering Space, concerning the series The Chosen. Last year one of our parishioners purchased Season 1 and has lent it out so others can watch and then return them for others. We are happy to say Season 2 is available as well, and may be checked out in the Gathering Area. What I find very interesting in this series about Our Lord's life, is how in the beginning of each episode the producers start with either an account from the Old Testament, or with something from the Apostles' earlier life, or with something that happened earlier in Jesus' life. When it comes to the telling of the story of the Wedding Feast at Cana, today's Gospel reading, they begin with the account of the 'Finding in the Temple' which was our Gospel a few weeks ago. As they tell the story, when Mary and Joseph find Jesus, they have the dialogue we are all very familiar with, including Jesus asking His parents why they were looking all over for Him. Where else would He be but in His Father's house. To this statement the series creators added this answer by the Blessed Mother. Not now it's too soon for you to begin. To that the boy Jesus answers, "If not now, when". These very words will appear in their telling of the Wedding Feast. When our dear Blessed Mother goes to her Son and tells Him they ran out of wine. Our Lord, of course, answered her, with "not now, my hour has not yet come". His mother replies with the same words He used at the Temple. "If not now, when"! And so, Our Lord turns the water into wine.

Yet, there is more to this story than meets the eye. There are many elements at work and John wants you to be aware of them. First, the stone jars used for ceremonial washings. These are highlighted because it represents the imperfection of the Law. For there are only six jars, they are one short of seven which represents perfection, and Jesus will reverse this. He does this by using the remnants of the Law to manifest His overwhelming grace. His grace is seen in the amount of wine Jesus creates, for this is more than anyone could consume. Therefore, where the Law is lacking, Jesus shows great abundance.

We are also told that Jesus performed His first miracle at Cana, so that His disciples would really begin to believe in Him. Again, John wants us to see this because the miracles are also performed for us. As Pope Saint Leo the Great said in a sermon, "Because human ignorance is slow to believe what it does not see, and equally slow to hope for what it does not know, those who were to be instructed in the divine teaching have first to be aroused by bodily benefits...so that, once they had experienced His gracious power, they would no longer doubt...His doctrine."

John also wants us to see the role of the Blessed Mother. She intercedes for the couple (because running out of wine would be a disgrace they would have to bear for the rest of their lives), because the disciples who came with Jesus were extra guests and drank more than was expected. St. John, who wrote his Gospel 70 years after Jesus ascended into Heaven, knows that Jesus gave His mother to us as He died on the Cross, and in doing so gave her the special gift of being the Queen Mother of heaven and earth. The Mother who intercedes between the person at prayer and the King.

Finally, John wants us to see the dialogue between the head waiter and the groom. When the headwaiter pulls the groom aside and tells him that he did the opposite from every other wedding he ever waited at. He was amazed that he served the choice wine last, instead of serving it first. What John wants us to understand is that with Jesus the best is yet to come, not only 2022 years ago, but right now, here in our very lives, if only we can see it, just as Pope St. Leo tells us above.

We have once again entered Ordinary Time and we will be in it until Ash Wednesday, when our focus will be to prepare us for Easter Sunday, through the Season of Lent. During Ordinary Time we look at every aspect of Jesus' life and mission. John wants you to realize that Jesus is always with us and will always help us.

God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

"He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures." (Lk 24:45)

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in Him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of His love and so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

Thank you to all who supported the St. Vincent de Paul second collection. We appreciate your generosity!

If you know of someone who might benefit from a home visit, please call our conference at: 516-218-7837.

The Saint Joseph's Prayer Group

As declared by Pope Francis, 2021 was The Year of Saint Joseph. St. Joseph was a worker, devoted husband to Mary, a father figure to Jesus, and provides us with a great example of what a man should strive to be. In 2022 let us continue to follow the example of Saint Joseph, sharing in the love of his Blessed Spouse and Divine Son, by praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. If you feel the call of the Holy Spirit to spend more time in prayer, then gather with The St. Joseph's Prayer Group on Thursday nights at 7:30 pm in the Church. Prayer pamphlets for how to pray the Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be made available to everyone. These powerful prayers are gifts from Heaven, and we should believe in their great promises. "Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears".

New York State - Important Update to Mask Mandate

Dear Brothers:

The New York State website FAQ's that accompany the Governor's directives regarding masks now includes "houses of worship".

Therefore, since Churches will not be requiring parishioners to present proof of vaccination, we ask that the following announcement be clearly communicated to parishioners through your normal means of communication:

"The Governor of New York State has included houses of worship in her recent directives. Therefore, since the Church does not require parishioners to present proof of vaccination in order to worship God, we ask that all parishioners (two years of age and older) comply with the requirement to wear masks when participating in any activities on parish grounds. This State requirement is currently in effect through January 15, 2022. We will continue to adapt accordingly as new information becomes available. Your patience and Christian charity towards one another during this difficult time is appreciated."

For your information: Priests and any other clergy / assistants may wear masks while processing in / out and while distributing Holy Communion. Please encourage all parishioners, especially volunteers / ushers, to be patient and charitable towards all. It is not the responsibility of any individual to police / enforce State regulations. Thank you for your patience and calm leadership.

Oremus pro invicem!

In Christ,
Fr. Eric R. Fasano
Vicar General
