From Fr. Mike's Desk

In Exodus Chapter 20 we read the account of God giving the Israelites the Ten Commandments, and we are told that while God was giving them to Moses there was thunder and lightning, the sound of trumpets, and the entire mountain was surrounded by smoke. At this sight, the people trembled and kept their distance from the mountain. They begged God and Moses to have only Moses speak to God, and subsequently, Moses could share God's message with them. They cried out, "But, do not have God speak to us or we will die."

Today's reading from Deuteronomy continues the story from Exodus. Again, Moses was the Lord's spokesperson along the journey, but now the journey was ending, and so was Moses. So, in today's reading, Moses tells the people, "A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the Lord, your God, at Horeb." And as God continues, "I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it."

This promised prophet is understood in later times, to be none other than the Messiah; the One who will come and speak in God's name. The prophet then is Our Lord Jesus Christ, and this is what Mark is getting at in today's Gospel Reading when he notes that Jesus speaks as one having His own authority, and not like the scribes. What does this mean?

Jesus speaks like Moses in the sense that what He says comes directly from God. The scribes, Pharisees, and Rabbis of old and of great fame (even to this very day) spoke about the things that they studied from the Torah and what was spoken by the great prophets. They taught what was passed down to them, and there was nothing wrong with this because they were passing on good, holy teachings that were inspired by the Holy Spirit. However, Jesus, like Moses, is speaking directly what was being said by God, but unlike Moses, Jesus is much more than a prophet, for Jesus is God. Therefore, what Jesus spoke is not like Moses repeating what he heard from God, when Jesus spoke it was (and is) God directly speaking to humanity.

As Scripture Scholars and Mark points out, it seems the one who knows Jesus best at His first preaching in the synagogue, is the demon who is driven out of the man. It is the demon who says, "I know who you are – the Holy One of God!" In fact, in every occurrence where Jesus drives out an unclean spirit, the demon or demons always know who He is and always react with fear because He has power over them. Also notice, that Jesus will not allow them to speak or testify to who he truly is. This is because it is not their testimony He wants. Jesus wants the testimony of those who have been saved. Mark wants us to know that Jesus' fame spread all over Galilee not only because He drove out demons, but because He teaches with divine authority. Mark wants us to know that His message is just as important as His deeds.

For the past 2,024 years, the Church has been spreading the Good News about Jesus and He has given her the ability to speak in His name and to invoke His authority in spreading the Gospel. At times, the Church has done this very well, and at times she has not. When she did not, the Church was listening to itself, and not her founder or she was more concerned with how she looked than what Jesus wanted her to do. But keep in mind that we are the Church, and for the Church to stay on the right path all of us must listen to the voice of the Messiah, and yield to His wonderful, loving, and merciful authority. All of us must continue His work and do what Jesus would do. The saying What Would Jesus Do (WWJD) is more than just something found on a bracelet, it should be our motto and how we live our lives every day.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 4, 2024

First Reading - Job 7:1-4, 6-7

Psalms - 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Gospel - Mark 1:29-39

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Mark's Gospel we hear of Jesus healing the sick and casting out demons, which brings those who are cured back to healthful life. People who are afflicted with disease, have demons, or who lack hope, such as in today's reading of Job 7, need to be healed, have their hope restored, and be brought back to life and into the light.

Jesus is always preaching to us, and looking to heal us of our afflictions and loss of hope. How can you prepare yourself so as to be ready to accept His healing touch, and be brought back to full life with a restored hope for the future?

Sacraments of Initiation for Adults

DIocese of Rockville Centre
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 28, 2024
Catholic Schools Week

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, the Church throughout the United States takes the opportunity to celebrate the gift of Catholic Education during Catholic Schools Week which begins today and concludes on February 3, 2024. As Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, I want to express how incredibly proud I am of our Catholic Schools in the ways that they evangelize our young Catholics here on Long Island.

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis says, "Catholic schools, which always strive to join their work of education with the explicit proclamation of the Gospel, are a most valuable resource for the evangelization of culture" (§134). This mission-driven approach to Catholic Education is especially fitting as the Church in the United States participates in a national Eucharistic Revival, because the mission of the national Eucharistic Revival is embedded into the mission of Catholic Education. Assisting students to know and love Jesus through the transformative power of the Mass, and equipping them to evangelize their families and communities, is an extraordinarily beautiful and achievable goal that our Catholic Schools strive to achieve each day.

As schools throughout the Diocese celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2024 with Masses, open houses, and other various activities, we give thanks to the Lord for those who make these events and Catholic Education as a whole possible. To the dedicated and faithful administrators, teachers, and staff members: thank you for working tirelessly every day to advance the Church's evangelizing mission by your love for Christ and by helping his children to know the presence and power of his love in their lives. To the many parents and guardians who generously offer so much time to assist your pastors and principals in advancing the mission of Catholic Education in your parish and regional schools: your love for Christ and his Church is inspiring, and I am so grateful for your Good Samaritan charity, dedication, and perseverance. In addition, I want to express my gratitude to the Morning Star Initiative and the Department of Education staff who collaborate and work together to provide every student in our Catholic Schools with an education that is robustly Catholic, academically excellent, safe and supportive, and sustainable.

St. John Bosco, a patron saint of school children, understood the essential mission of Catholic Education in the world. He once said, "If we want to have a good society, we must concentrate all our forces on the Christian education of the young." Because of the fantastic work being accomplished in our Catholic Schools, I think we can have great hope in the future of society here on Long Island: a future that is filled with young Catholics who are on fire for Jesus Christ and his Church!

Through the intercession of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, the patron saint of Catholic Education, Saint John Bosco, and Mary, Star of Evangelization, may the Lord continue to bless the Morning Star Initiative, the Department of Education, our Catholic Schools, and all those involved in Catholic Education on Long Island, especially our students!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Feast of St. Blaise – February 3rd

St. Blaise was a bishop living in what is now modern day Turkey. He was martyred in 376 AD for preaching the Gospel of Christ. While in hiding during his persecution, St. Blaise is said to have healed sick and wounded animals. He is best remembered for saving a boy with a fishbone stuck in his throat. This is commemorated each year on his feast day.

Throats will be blessed immediately following the 9:00 AM Mass on Saturday, Feb 3rd in the church.

Are You an Independent Senior Seeking a Life-giving Environment

HARVEST HOUSE

Residents give a happy look at our collection of unique "Santas" (25) gifts given to Harvest House over these 40 years
It is time to put away our "special Santas" as we joyfully begin a new year:

2024 at HARVEST HOUSE

Some time ago Chris, a relation of our resident shared the following with us:
"In her later life, we watched our Aunt Minnie's spirit rapidly decline. Then We found HARVEST HOUSE! In a very short time, we saw her spirit spiraling Upward to the Aunt Minnie we always knew and loved.:

Forty years ago we, with the Sisters of St. Dominic, recognized that the experience of aging in our society at that time was negative.
Something new was needed! HARVEST HOUSE was created!

- Where each individual would be encouraged to live life to the fullest
- Where independent seniors would live in a setting that is nurturing and life-giving
- Where the gift of laughter keeps all young at heart

DO YOU KNOW AN INDEPENDENT SENIOR WHO WOULD BENEFIT AND ENJOY LIVING IN SUCH A LIFE-GIVING ENVIRONMENT?
