We are led to the Kingdom

The Decalogue, the Sermon on the Mount, and the apostolic catechesis describes for us the paths that lead to the Kingdom of heaven. Sustained by the grace of the Holy Spirit, we tread them, step by step, by everyday acts. By the working of the Word of Christ, we slowly bear fruit in the Church to the glory of God.

Catechism of the Catholic Church - 1724

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“After this I had a vision of a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: ‘Salvation comes from our God who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb’”
“Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, ‘Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?’ I said to him, ‘My lord, you are the one who knows.’ He said to me, ‘These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made white in the Blood of the Lamb.’”

This passage from the Book of Revelation (Rev. 7:2-4, 9-14) appears every November 1st with the celebration of All Saints Day. It tells us how the Saints who went before us have become the great multitude in heaven praising God. They got there by serving the Father and the Son in all things. The Gospel reading for All Saints Day is the same Gospel we have for today, the Beatitudes of Jesus. Nine statements of blessings which come upon all those who truly follow Him. The connection between Revelation and Matthew for this wonderful day is that the saints in heaven lived out the Beatitudes. They were more than something that had to be memorize in religion class. They are the way we are to live our lives. As we see in our Old Testament Reading for today, Zephaniah tells the people that God will leave a remnant in our midst, a people humble and lowly. They will do no wrong and speak no lies and they shall pasture the flock. While these words were spoken before the Assyrian and Babylonian invasions of the Northern and Southern Kingdoms, they were spoken to let the people know that God will not abandon His people; and that those who would return would be His people and live in a new way, the new way given to the world through the Messiah.

The Beatitudes are part of Jesus' new way. In effect they can sum up the entire Gospel. They do, indeed, speak of a bright promise, not just for a holy remnant but for all who follow Jesus. Yes, they do indeed point to a bright promise, but they are calling Christians into a life which the rest of the world would not consider pleasant. Look at them carefully; each unpleasant thing that we experience here leads to a greater fulfillment in heaven and even here on earth. Each unpleasant thing calls us to a life we experience beyond this life. Without a doubt they are paradoxical. For how can something like mourning, being meek, hunger and thirsting for righteousness, or facing persecution, insult, and injury lead to happiness? This makes no human sense! But we are not speaking about these things from purely human wisdom; no, we are speaking from a position of Divine Wisdom. Divine Wisdom makes more sense to us when we take the time to pay attention to it. This, of course, can only happen when we allow the Holy Spirit to speak directly to our heart and soul. And this can only happen when we take the time and make the effort to not place our total trust in society's wisdom.

As Paul tells us in his First Letter to the Corinthians, "...Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise." Today the challenge is before us to be fools for Christ and to allow His wisdom to come into us. We are to follow the Beatitudes to the best of our abilities, and to follow the examples given to us, in the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, Matthew Chapter 25, and so much more. Are you willing to be Wisdom's fool?

ThGod Bless You Always!

Fr. Mike

Make a Difference in the World

Since 1882, membership in the Knights of Columbus has been open to men 18 years of age or older who are "practical" (that is, practicing) Catholics in union with the Holy See. Since that time, the Knights of Columbus has understood "practical catholic" to mean a Catholic who accepts the teaching authority of the Catholic Church on matters of faith and morals, aspires to live in accord with the precepts of the Catholic Church, and is in good standing in the Catholic Church.

If you desire to strengthen your faith while supporting your parish and contributing to charitable works within the community, The Knights of Columbus offers you that opportunity. Devote as much or as little time as you have. All are welcome! With the Knights, you are never alone. Our motto, "In service to one, in service to all" simply means that the Knights take seriously the two great commandments of Jesus Christ: to love God with our entire being, and to love our neighbor as ourselves (cf. Mt 22:37-40).

In 2022 there were 2 million Knights worldwide who stepped up with close to 48 million service hours and who donated nearly $154 million for worthy causes, both large and small.
