Blessed the man who follows not
the counsel of the wicked,
nor walks in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the company of the insolent,
but delights in the law of the LORD
and meditates on his law day and night.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Jerimiah 17:5-8

Thus says the LORD:

Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings,
who seeks his strength in flesh,
whose heart turns away from the LORD.

He is like a barren bush in the desert
that enjoys no change of season,
but stands in a lava waste,
a salt and empty earth.

Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
whose hope is the LORD.

He is like a tree planted beside the waters
that stretches out its roots to the stream:
it fears not the heat when it comes;
its leaves stay green;
in the year of drought it shows no distress,
but still bears fruit.

Responsorial Psalm – 1:1-2, 3, 4 and 6

R Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.

Blessed the man who follows not
the counsel of the wicked,
nor walks in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the company of the insolent,
but delights in the law of the LORD
and meditates on his law day and night.

R Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.

He is like a tree
planted near running water,
that yields its fruit in due season,
and whose leaves never fade.
Whatever he does, prospers.

R Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.

Not so the wicked, not so;
they are like chaff which the wind drives away.
For the LORD watches over the way of the just,
but the way of the wicked vanishes.

R Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.

Reading 2 - 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brothers and sisters:

If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead? If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all.

But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Gospel - Luke 6:17, 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.

Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult
you, and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.

But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

Woe to you who are filled now,
for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will grieve and weep.

Woe to you when all speak well of you,
for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

Psalms 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13

Gospel - Luke 6:27-38

From Fr. Mike's Desk

In Matthew's Gospel, one of the main events is the Sermon on the Mount. In this account, Matthew has Jesus climbing up to the top of the mountain so that all could hear Him. Matthew makes a direct connection between Moses and Jesus, for just as Moses went up to Mt. Sinai to receive the Ten Commandments, so does Jesus go up the mountain to deliver the Beatitudes. The difference between the two is that Moses receives the commandments from God and Jesus delivers the Beatitudes based on His authority as the Son of God. Luke also has Jesus delivering the Beatitudes, only it does not happen on a mountain top, but on the crossroads or on the plains (as it is known as the Sermon on the Plains). Now we may ask did Jesus give two sermons with the same message. That is entirely possible after all. There was no mass communication in those days. On the other hand, perhaps it is true that Luke's special source had the sermon-taking place somewhere else. Or maybe Luke wants to make a point about who Jesus directs the sermon to, and where it happened. Luke's setting on the plains or the crossroads, makes it a place where many people come and go, and where many types of different people would mix (Jews and Gentiles alike). Luke wants people from all over the world to hear the words of Jesus, and if they can understand them put them into practice. There is another difference between the two accounts; Matthew has Jesus intending to teach the whole assembled crowd, whereas Luke has Jesus speaking primarily to the twelve. However, he does hint that anyone who cared to listen could and would spread the good news.

In Luke's account, we see Jesus is very concerned with those who are poor, hungry, homeless, weeping, and all the established society hates and pushes aside. Luke wants all to know that Jesus has come into the world to change the world, as well as free us from sin and darkness. As Luke sees it, to neglect the poor is, indeed, a great sin. Matthew also speaks about this in his Chapter 25 when Jesus says "Whatsoever you do for the least of my brothers that you do unto me". Luke adds one more thing, the woes! We do not see them in Matthew's account of the sermon, but the woes point out to those who have everything, but do not help those who have not, they will suffer in the end.

Again, Jesus directs this message to the twelve and anyone who has the good sense to listen. That, of course, means the Church, must take the words, act on them, and make a difference in the world. In other words all of us who are the Church must listen and do our part to change things. We are called to share our time, and talents to make things better. We are called to pray for the poor and for those who are persecuted and denied justice in this world, and we are also to pray for the peace and safety of the world. Likewise we are called to share our treasure so that we can help the Propagation of the Faith and other agencies of the Church. We are to share our treasure to help those who educate young and old alike, to maintain Catholic Hospitals and Nursing Homes especially in this time of COVID. We can do all of this through our participating in the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Our goal for this year is $112,100.00 and if we reach our goal and go beyond, we will receive a rebate of over $26,000.00. Please help by making a pledge and know that you are supporting so many vital parts of the Church's ministry right here on Long Island.

Let us then all pray that we can listen to the words of Jesus on the crossroads, the plains and on the mount and make a difference here in our parish, in our diocese and in the whole world.

God bless you always and thank you for all you do for St. Edward's!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY PLACED IN THE POOR BOXES GO?

Do you know how important your contributions to the poor boxes in the church are? The offerings you make help us serve our neighbors in need through our St. Vincent de Paul Society. During this long period of COVID-19 many families are in need of assistance. Sadly, due to the harshness of this winter many of them are in need of basics like utilities and home heating fuel. Please, if you will, remember those who do not share our bounty. If you have some change that you can spare drop it into the Poor Boxes when you enter or leave the church.

Thanks very much!

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives us the blessings of serving the poor, hungry and weeping people, for you will then rejoice and leap for joy. But Jesus also teaches us the decisiveness of choice: blessing or woe.

Choosing to help those who are suffering will fill your heart with the blessing of Jesus and indeed your reward will be great in heaven.

If you know of someone who might benefit from a home visit, please call our conference at: 516-218-7837.

THE SAINT JOSEPH'S PRAYER GROUP

As declared by Pope Francis, 2021 was The Year of Saint Joseph. St. Joseph was a worker, devoted husband to Mary, a father figure to Jesus, and provides us with a great example of what a man should strive to be. In 2022 let us continue to follow the example of Saint Joseph, sharing in the love of his Blessed Spouse and Divine Son, by praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. If you feel the call of the Holy Spirit to spend more time in prayer, then gather with The St. Joseph's Prayer Group on Thursday nights at 7:30 pm in the Church. Prayer pamphlets for how to pray the Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be made available to everyone. These powerful prayers are gifts from Heaven, and we should believe in their great promises. "Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears".

PRAYER OF COMFORT DURING THE PANDEMIC

Almighty and merciful Father, who show your love to all your creation, Humbly we come before you asking for a swift eradication of the coronavirus.

Graciously hear the prayers we offer for all those affected by the virus.
Calm our fears and give strength to those who support and care for others.

Grant healing to all suffering in mind, body and spirit, eternal life to the dead and consolation to the bereaved.

Counsel governments and health authorities to take appropriate steps for the good of all.

Look lovingly upon us all, and in your mercy, forgive our failings.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
