Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Sirach 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one's faults when one speaks. As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace, so in tribulation is the test of the just. The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had; so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind. Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.

Responsorial Psalm – 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,
To proclaim your kindness at dawn
and your faithfulness throughout the night.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

The just one shall flourish like the palm tree,
like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.
They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

They shall bear fruit even in old age;
vigorous and sturdy shall they be,
Declaring how just is the LORD,
my rock, in whom there is no wrong.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Reading 2 - 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters:
When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

*Death is swallowed up in victory.
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Gospel - Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, “Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,’ when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite!
Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye.

“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.”

For every tree is known by its own fruit.

Luke 6:44

First Sunday of Lent

March 6, 2022

First Reading - Deuteronomy 26:4-10

Psalms 91:1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15

Second Reading - Romans 10:8-13

Gospel - Luke 4:1-13

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last week Jesus instructed us at the end of the Gospel to, “Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give and gifts will be given to you...For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.” Jesus does not suggest this to us, no He orders us to do so. Yet, at times, these are the hardest orders to follow. We all judge one another, condemn or are critical of others. For some it is easier to walk on hot coals than to forgive or apologize. Why is that? None of us really wants to be this way, well maybe Judge Judy! Jesus does give us a hint as to why we do this in today's Gospel. Jesus tells us today, “Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?” He then goes on to tell us that when we the disciples are fully trained, we will be just like the teacher. But it has been 2022 years since Jesus walked the earth and several thousand years before Jesus, that God spread the teaching of loving God and neighbor. So why do we still find ourselves judging, condemning, etc.? Is it because we are so busy looking at the splinter in our brothers and sisters' eyes, and so concerned about their failings and shortcomings, that we notice nothing else? When we do this, we cannot see their true goodness.

Jesus then comments, “Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?” Jesus is telling us, it is impossible to see others when we have more than a splinter in our own eyes, in fact how can we see anything clearly? Unless we remove the beam from our eyes, we will not be able to help our neighbor remove the splinter from his/her eye. However, how can I do this, for if I could, I would have done it a long time ago? Well, the great saints of the Church were able to do this, but so have the Church's little saints: people like you and me. How did they do it? We must turn to Jesus and listen to what He tells us, we must seek His forgiveness, and ask for a share of His compassion and gentleness. We must try to see beyond our brothers and sisters' faults and should not focus on our own faults. If we fixate on our own faults or do the opposite and say we have no faults, then the beam is going to grow into a house. Christ is calling us to be honest with ourselves, and with His help, we can. This honesty will allow us to see others as they are and help them to remove their splinters, beams, houses and even neighborhoods, and it will help us do the same for ourselves. In this way, every good tree can bear good fruit and will not be mistaken for a bad tree with bad fruit.

This Wednesday, March 2 we will begin the Holy Season of Lent. It is a time to fast, abstain, and to take the time to look at our lives to see how well we have followed the teachings of Jesus. It is a time to reform our lives and as I say every year, a time for us to die to those things that are getting between God and ourselves. Our schedule for Ash Wednesday is 7AM Prayer Service with distribution of ashes; 9 AM Mass with ashes; 12Noon-12:20 Distribution of Ashes; 12:30 Mass with ashes, 7PM Mass with ashes. Between these scheduled services, we will have Eucharistic Ministers giving out ashes until the evening. Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstaining from eating meat (likewise, we are to abstain on the Fridays of Lent). Please note that if you are 62 or over or have a condition that requires you to eat regularly you are excused from fasting. Please use this day well, do not come just to get ashes and that is it. Come, receive your ashes and if you go to Mass receive the Eucharist and resolve that this outward sign of the ashes will be a sign to you and others that you want to die to sin and rise to new life with Jesus on Easter.

God bless you always and make the most out of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

THE TRAIN

At birth we boarded the train and met our parents, and we believe they will always travel by our side. As time goes by, other people will board the train; and they will be significant, i.e. our siblings, friends, children, strangers and even the love of your life.

However, at some station our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone. Others will step down over time and leave a permanent vacuum. Some, however, will go so unnoticed that we don't realize they vacated their seats. This train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. Success consists of having a good relationship with all passengers requiring that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone is: We do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. So, we must live in the best way - love, forgive, and offer the best of who we are. It is important to do this because when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty, we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life.

I wish you a joyful journey for the coming years on the train of life. Reap success, give lots of love and be happy. More importantly, thank God for the journey!

Lastly, I want to thank you for being one of the passengers on my train!

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, Jesus uses images in speaking to his disciples: "Can a blind man act as guide to a blind man? Why look at the speck in your brother's eye when you miss the plank in your own? A good tree does not produce decayed fruit..."

It is true that donations come to the Society because a good person produces goodness from the good in their heart.

If you know of someone who might benefit from a home visit, please call our conference at: 516-218-7837.

THE SAINT JOSEPH'S PRAYER GROUP

As declared by Pope Francis, 2021 was The Year of Saint Joseph. St. Joseph was a worker, devoted husband to Mary, a father figure to Jesus, and provides us with a great example of what a man should strive to be. In 2022 let us continue to follow the example of Saint Joseph, sharing in the love of his Blessed Spouse and Divine Son, by praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. If you feel the call of the Holy Spirit to spend more time in prayer, then gather with The St. Joseph's Prayer Group on Thursday nights at 7:30 pm in the Church. Prayer pamphlets for how to pray the Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be made available to everyone. These powerful prayers are gifts from Heaven, and we should believe in their great promises. "Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears".
