From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Jesus answered and said to her, ‘If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, “Give me a drink” you would ask him and he would give you living water.’ The woman said to him, ‘Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep, where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern?’ Jesus answered, ‘everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become...a spring of water welling up to eternal life.’”

Water is a common theme of today's readings. In one account, water meets the immediate need of very thirsty people in the desert, and in the other, we are told about water that will satisfy the soul. Both are necessary to live in this world and to increase our spiritual life. Who can blame the Israelites in the desert for being upset when they did not have water, and who could blame them for complaining? However, we still have to ask the question, why did they have such a great lack of faith in God? After all, they had seen everything God did to set them free from over 400 years of slavery in Egypt. He sent the plagues, the Passover, the parting of the Red Sea, and He gave them the Ten Commandments. He gave them the quail and the manna from heaven and still they complained and even asked if the Lord was in their midst? This great lack of faith, was also their great sin, fortunately that did not stop God from providing water from the rock. The significance of water coming from the rock is that in the Old Testament, the Rock refers to God (the Rock of Ages that never ends and is the foundation of the world). This is a sign that the Rock will never abandon His people even when they abandon Him.

In today's Gospel, the Samaritan woman goes to the well also looking for water to satisfy her physical thirst, but she receives so much more. She does not come away with physical water; no, she comes away with the true spirit of God and the new life given to her through Jesus. She asks Jesus, “‘are you greater than our father Jacob?’” The answer to that is you bet, much greater! For it was with God that Jacob made a covenant and it is with God, made one of us, that the woman has this encounter. After her encounter, she believed in Jesus, in fact the whole town believed in Him. They believed first by listening to her, and then by listening to Him, and not wanting to let Him go. Jesus gives them new life, forgiveness for their sins, and a hope and faith that reaches deep into the heart and never disappoints as St. Paul tells us in today's letter. The people of this Samaritan village knew that they could truly trust in God, because of Jesus. Can the same be said about us? Can we say the same as we walk through our lives and trials? Can we trust enough in God that He will mend what is broken and pick us up when we fall down, and that He will be the Good Shepherd who leaves the 99 and goes out and searches for us when we are lost? On the other hand, will we be like the Israelites in the desert who saw God do all of those wonderful things and still disbelieved? How will you answer these questions? If you do not know or if you do not like your answers, then continue using this holy season to help you and truly prepare for the great celebration of our new life, Easter!

Two weeks ago, at the Rite of Election, Wen Bo took the next step toward full initiation into the Church. Also this year we have Eduardo and Feliz who are being brought into full communion with the Church by receiving Confirmation and Eucharist. Let us keep them in our prayers.

Happy Third Sunday of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 19, 2023

First Reading - 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

Psalms 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:8-14

Gospel - John 9:1-41

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we will hear that Jesus gave sight to a man who was blind since birth. The man did not know Jesus, and could not explain how he had been given sight, yet he believed in Jesus and worshipped him.

How do we respond when Jesus heals us of our wounds and despair, or answers our prayers? Do we recognize and feel God's touch, and do we then go and worship him as the blind man did?

Obligation to Abstain from Eating Meat

The holy Season of Lent is a time of spiritual preparation for the celebration of our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection at Easter, the holiest of days. Through prayer, fasting and works of charity, we draw closer to the Lord, deepen our faith, and prepare for eternal life.

The obligation of abstinence from meat on Fridays of Lent is an important element of the Church's observance of the penitential nature of this holy season. However, if you choose not to abstain from meat on March 17th (St. Patrick's Day), please substitute some other penance, prayer, and work of charity in its place.

A Catholic Brotherhood Changing the World

*In Service to One,
In Service to All.*

A special THANK YOU to all those parishioners and members of our local community who donated blood during our recent drive on February 26th. We achieved our goal and collected 45 pints of blood, which will go to save the lives of over 130 people in the months to come.

During our recruitment drive during the Masses last weekend nearly a dozen men stepped up to join the Knights of Columbus. This is the largest number of men to join our Council over a weekend in recent history, and we look forward to seeing them put their talents, abilities, skills and ideas to work for St. Edward's parish in the coming year. You can still join at any time. Just contact our Grand Knight as indicated below, or speak to any of the Knights you may see around the parish.

Columbiettes

Dear Parishioners,

I want to thank each and every one for the tremendous support that you so generously gave to the Columbiettes at our recent FUNdraiser. Because of your generosity, the Columbiettes are able to continue to work at making a difference in the lives of others here, in our community and across the world. Your generosity and kind spirit are enabling the Columbiettes to provide services that so many need. Because of your generosity we were able to raise over $3,000.

If there is anyone that is interested in joining us, you can reach me at 561-450-8946. Thank you again and God Bless you all.

Lay Carmelites in Hicksville

Lay (Third Order) Carmelites

"The soul that walks in love neither rests nor grows tired"
(St. John of the Cross)

Learn how the great Carmelite saints "walked in love" with the Blessed Mother as their guide. If you desire a deeper contemplative prayer life and have a special place in your heart for the Blessed Mother, we welcome you to come and see what the Lay (Third Order) Carmelites are all about. If you would like to join us at a monthly General Meeting, please contact the Holy Family Lay Carmelite Chapter Director, Marianne Mirkow at (516) 330- 4739.

Penance in Christian Life

The seasons and days of penance in the course of the liturgical year (Lent, and each Friday in memory of the death of our Lord) are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice. These times are particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises, penitential liturgies, pilgrimages as signs of penance, voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving, and fraternal sharing (charitable and missionary works).
