Death to New Life

The Readings for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Reading 1 - Jeremiah 31:31-34

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant, and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness;
in the greatness of your compassion
wipe out my offense.

Thoroughly wash me from my guilt
and of my sin cleanse me.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

A clean heart create for me, O God,
and a steadfast spirit renew within me.

Cast me not out from your presence,
and your Holy Spirit take not from me.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Give me back the joy of your salvation,
and a willing spirit sustain in me.

I will teach transgressors your ways,
and sinners shall return to you.

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Reading 2 – Hebrews 5:7-9

In the days when Christ Jesus was in the flesh, he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence.

Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

Gospel – John 12:20-33

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me.

I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'?

But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name.

Then a voice came from heaven,

"I have glorified it and will glorify it again."

The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.

He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.”

This is Jesus' answer to Andrew and Philip when they tell Him some Greek visitors wanted to meet Him. What a strange answer Our Lord gives to the two Apostles. Most of us would have said, “ok, bring them over”. Yet Jesus uses this reference to a grain of wheat! What does it mean, why does He offer this answer? John wants us to see, in his gospel, that Jesus has come into the world for all people, not just the Chosen People. In a way, the Greek visitors represent the gentile nations of the world. So, now Jesus can and will be glorified by the Father, for His mission is coming to its completion. However, Jesus' glorification is not what the world thinks it would be. Jesus is glorified by the Father in the greatest act of love the world has ever seen, the Crucifixion! He is the grain of wheat that must fall to the ground and die. This is true for every seed, because if a seed remains a seed, it cannot produce a new plant. This is true for every plant from a weed to the Great Red Woods of California. So, when the seed dies to its seed hood, it comes alive as many strands of wheat. These in turn can feed many people and sustain life.

When Jesus dies on the Cross, He dies to this life, but this is not the end of His relationship with us. His death brings true glory to God the Father because through His death all humanity is saved from spiritual death, sin, and darkness. His, and our new life, are manifested in the Resurrection, which we will celebrate in two weeks' time. For Saint John, Jesus' death and resurrection are joined as the Great Glorification of God the Father through His Son. As we continue with the Gospel, Jesus says, “I am troubled now. Yet what should I say, Father save me from this hour? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name. Then a voice came from heaven, I have glorified it and will glorify it again.” How will the Father glorify Jesus' name again after He rises from the dead? The Father will do this through each of us. We who believe, who died and rose with Him in the waters of Baptism, we will glorify the name of Jesus. Each of us must proclaim and live out the Good News. We must show the world that Jesus does indeed make a difference in our lives. We must change the world, and not allow the world to change us, which seems to be happening more and more. We, like Jesus, must die to this world so we can grow into the next. We, like Jesus, must seek to glorify God by offering our lives.

Lent is almost over, but we still have time to use this great season to change the areas in our lives where we have not died to this world. Next weekend is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. Please check the bulletin for a schedule of events for this Holy Week. Remember, we will be hearing Confessions on Monday of Holy Week from 3PM to 9PM. On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday mornings we will have Morning Prayer at 9 AM, since we are not allowed to have any other Mass except the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday night, The Passion of the Lord on Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. Let us use this last full week of Lent wisely and make the most out of Holy Week.

Happy Lent!

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 52 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to the Fourth Sunday of Lent, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

This coming Wednesday, March 17th we celebrate with the whole Church around the world the great feast of Saint Patrick of Ireland. Not only is he the patron Saint of Ireland, but as I mentioned a few weeks ago he is the patron saint of Nigeria, locally the Archdiocese of New York, and several parishes in our own diocese.

While we are not certain about the day and year that he was born, we do know that it was in Great Britain. According to the autobiographical confessor of Patrick, he was about 16 when he was captured by Irish Pirates and sold into slavery. During his enslavement, he was charged with looking after animals and lived there for a period of six years before he escaped and returned home. After his return, he felt that he was being called to return to the people who held him captive. It was during his captivity that his Christian Faith came alive to him. Before he was merely a Christian in name, even though his father was a Deacon, and his grandfather was a Priest. But enduring his slavery, he sought comfort and strength in Jesus. He also fell in love with the simple people of Ireland who he befriended. As so, he was called to return. Not knowing what he was to do, he also realized that he was called to the priesthood, so he went to mainland Europe to study, he was ordained, and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit he was sent to Ireland to preach the Gospel. He returned, and while the date of his return is not totally clear, we do know that when he arrived, he faced opposition. Yet, as time went on and by the grace and power of God, he made converts and the faith began to grow.

March 17th is believed to be the date of his death and he is said to be buried at Down Cathedral in Downpatrick, and he is alongside St. Brigid, and St. Columba. St. Patrick is also honored with a feast day in the Episcopal Church (USA) and with a commemoration in the Evangelical Lutheran Church. St. Patrick is also venerated in the Orthodox Church, as he is considered a pre-Schism Saint. One of the legends about Saint Patrick is that he forced the snakes out of Ireland. While this is probably not true, I do not think we would be in the wrong, if we asked this great saint to banish COVID19 from here and the whole world.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Fr. Mike

Year of Saint Joseph

DEC. 1, 2020 - DEC. 6, 2021

St. Joseph's Prayer Group

All are welcome to join us on Thursdays at 8:00pm in the Church.

In December, the Holy Father announced that 2021 is The Year of Saint Joseph. St. Joseph was a worker, devoted husband to Mary, a father figure to Jesus, and provides us with a great example of what a man should strive to be. Like Joseph, Sons and Fathers in Christ must always strive to deepen their faith in the Lord. Let us answer the call to prayer by coming together with total trust in Our Father.

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

In these uncertain times, let us follow the example of Saint Joseph, sharing in the love of his Blessed Spouse and Divine Son, by praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. During this season of Lent, this is a great way to spend some time in prayer with the Blessed Mother and our Lord, surrendering our crosses and trust to Jesus who is "Love and Mercy Himself."

If you feel the pull of the Holy Spirit to spend some more time in prayer, come join us and become part of the St. Joseph's Prayer Group!

Prayer pamphlets for how to pray the Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be made available to everyone. Bring your own Rosary Beads. If you do not own a Rosary, a pair will be given to you. These powerful prayers are gifts from Heaven, and we should believe in their great promises. "Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears."

Looking forward to seeing you there and God Bless!

Prepare Yourself

*“Lord, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will prepare their heart...” Psalm 10:17*

As you progress through this Lenten season, set aside some time each and every day to pray, give thanks for all that you have, reflect on your life and that of your family, friends and neighbors, and prepare your heart to receive Him on Easter Sunday. Welcome Him so that He may heal your broken heart. Receive the joy that He brings, and wear your smile throughout the year, knowing that He resides in you.

Pope Francis on Safeguarding God’s Presence

At the General Audience on March 17th, the Holy Father focused in particular on the role of the Holy Spirit. “The first gift of every Christian existence is the Holy Spirit,” he said. The Holy Spirit opens our hearts to Christ, and allows us to invoke God as “Abba,” that is, “Father.” Citing the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Pope Francis noted that it is the Holy Spirit, “by His prevenient grace,” that draws us to pray to Jesus. At the same time, the Church reminds us that we must pray to the Holy Spirit as well, encouraging us to address our prayer to Him “every day, especially at the beginning and end of every important action.” This, said Pope Francis, “is the experience of so many who pray, men and women whom the Holy Spirit has formed according to the ‘measure’ of Christ, in mercy, service, prayer.” It is the experience not only of monks and hermits, but of ordinary people who “have woven a long history of dialogue with God.” Seeking God, the Pope said, “they safeguard His presence” – in the Gospel, in the Eucharist, and in the faces of those in need – “like a secret flame.” Pope Francis said that keeping this flame of God’s presence alive is “the first task of Christians,” a task symbolized by the lighted lamps that burn night and day before the Eucharist present in the tabernacles of Catholic churches. Again quoting the Catechism, Pope Francis said the Holy Spirit is the “interior Master of Christian prayer... the artisan of the living tradition of prayer.” It is the Spirit Who inspires “the many paths of prayer,” which are as unique and varied as the individual people who pray.

Lenten Prayer

Loving and gracious God, I have given gold, but there is only so much gold. I have given blood, but I have only so much blood to give. I have given my time, but days have only so many hours. I have given my strength, but even that has its limits. So I give my love. Because love is gold, and love is blood, and love is time, and love is strength. But love is also so much more. Because love is God, and God is love, and only you, God, have no limits. Amen

Harvest Houses

Residences for Independent Seniors

MAKING A DIFFERENCE— PANDEMIC OR NO PANDEMIC!

We are celebrating Harvest Houses 35th Birthday!

Over 35 years ago we, the Sisters of St. Dominic, recognized the need for a completely new kind of living for independent elders. Today, we reflect on what we have learned about life from the more than 100 seniors who have lived in a Harvest House. And as we mark nearly one year since the Pandemic abruptly changed our lives, we've experienced a new reality. COVID-19, the "great revealer" threw us a new learning curve — how do we respond to life in the midst of great adversity and challenges?

Residents and staff came together during the 'lock-down', planning active days that would bring us enrichment, laughter and peace (we did have a few tumultuous days!) We became so involved in our daily activities that the months and weeks passed calmly and in comfort. Holiday and birthday celebrations with family (via Zoom or our front window) became a "happening" for everyone. We managed together to successfully plan our Easter dinner—now that was a challenge!

During the early days and months, we frequently heard from or called Senior friends whom we knew lived alone, to check on them. These calls saddened our hearts: "I am so lonely!" "I am frightened!" "What if I get sick?" However, as our residents adjusted to their 'new normal', we heard the following comments: "We are not afraid!" "We are together!" And most importantly... "We feel safe and secure."

HEREIN LIES THE VALUE OF HARVEST HOUSES

"Research shows it is the face-to-face human interactions that are fundamental to our overall well-being. It is the day-to-day, real, in-the-flesh encounters, the direct human contact that matters...from birth to death we are hard-wired to connect. We are happier, healthier and more resistant to despair and disease if we satisfy the need for human contact!"

— from The Village Effect by Susan Pinkas

HARVEST HOUSES are residences for eight independent seniors who live together in a family-like environment, which provides:

- Private bedroom
- Nutritious meals
- Beautiful private grounds
- Non-institutional family environment
- Social and recreational services
- Connection to community resources
- Stimulating independence
- Mutual daily support
- Security & safety

This is what Harvest House offers to independent seniors - not only in times of a pandemic crisis, but every single day! This is the very reason Harvest House Residences were created 35 years ago: to offer independent seniors a new opportunity of living in later life.

PLEASE JOIN US, SENIORS...COME! DON'T WAIT!
