Third Sunday of Lent

Reading 1 - Joshua 5:9a, 10-12

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you."

While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

Responsorial Psalm – 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Glorify the LORD with me,
let us together extol his name.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy,
and your faces may not blush with shame.
When the poor one called out, the LORD heard,
and from all his distress he saved him.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Reading 2 - 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters:

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Gospel - Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.'" So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday of Lent

April 3, 2022

First Reading - Isaiah 43:16-21

Psalms 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

Second Reading - Philippians 3:8-14

Gospel - John 8:1-11

From Fr. Mike's Desk

We are all very familiar with the great story of the Prodigal Son, as it is one of the three parables found in Luke's Gospel which can serve as a gospel within a gospel. The first one is the Parable of the Lost Sheep, and the second is the Parable of the Lost Coin. They present us with a vivid teaching to understand Jesus' message.

As we look at today's parable, we have often heard that this should not be called the Prodigal Son, but the parable of the Loving Father. Yet, in my reading for this parable, one commentator pointed out that this should be called the Prodigal Father. The word prodigal refers to one who is spendthrift and is wasteful, and we certainly can see this behavior in the actions of the son who takes his father's wealth and spends it on all types of destructive living. However, that also can be said about the father, as he lavishly treats the wayward son when he returns. He places sandals on his feet, a ring on his finger and gives him a fine robe to wear. The father even orders the slaughtering of the fatted calf for a feast to celebrate. The Prodigal Father spares nothing for his returning son, who a little while ago basically said to his father you are dead to me, give me what is mine!

Many times, when we look at this story, we focus on the actions of the older brother and his response. I am sure that many of us would agree with him and would refuse to go to the feast. Likewise, we would agree with the brother as he complains to the father for never giving him anything. However, as it has always been pointed out, we must pay attention to the father's words, "My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours...we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again, he was lost and has been found."

Now we may ask, is that the reason why I must forgive him? Yes, because the prodigal, loving father is none other than God, the Father, and through His Beloved Son, who two weeks ago we were told to listen to Him, is telling us to forgive. As we read in the parable, the younger son realized that the slaves in his father's house had plenty to eat, and as Jesus tells us, 'Coming to his senses' or as another translation has it, "When he had come to himself" he returned home seeking forgiveness. What this means is he realized that he had greatly sinned not only against his earthly father, but also his Heavenly Father. What we can gather from this, is that Jesus believed as long as a person was away from God, he or she was not truly him/herself. We can only be truly ourselves when we return to God, and that is why the younger son decided to return home. He hardly expected the welcome he got from his father, but this is how God treats us when we come to our senses and return to Him. God forgives us generously and welcomes us back home to Him. When we look at the older brother, we are to see more than sibling rivalry, we are to see how we should not act in the presence of the Loving Father. The older brother takes on the role of the Scribes and the Pharisees who totally disagree with Jesus when it comes to sin and forgiveness. He represents their self-righteousness, their lack of sympathy, and their desire to see a sinner be destroyed rather than be saved.

St. Paul tells us today, that in Christ we have become a new creation and He has given to all the Church the ministry of reconciliation. Therefore, we, as ambassadors of Christ, are to forgive one another and not seek self-righteousness, but the true righteousness of God.

Happy Laetare Sunday!

This Sunday reminds us we have almost completed our Lenten Journey and getting closer to the Great Day of Easter.

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LENTEN RULES - FASTING & ABSTINENCE

LENT
Pray + Fast + Give

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Roman Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Roman Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.
