- Guidelines for Pastoral Councils, Sec. B.2

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Then he said to Thomas, ‘Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.’ Thomas answered... ‘My Lord and my God!’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

This exchange of words between the Risen Lord and St. Thomas is familiar to us as we hear them every Second Sunday of Easter. Yes, they are familiar, but the danger with familiar words is that we get used to hearing them, that we fail to listen to them, or they fail to move us as they should. When we look at St. Thomas we are filled with many emotions, especially when we hear that he refused to believe the account the other Apostles told him about seeing the Risen Lord. We might even be upset with him for leaving the room, for abandoning the others. Some of us, however, may agree with Thomas and say that they too would not have believed the story of seeing the Risen Jesus. They too would say I have to see it with my own eyes!

But the key to the account of Thomas' doubt is Jesus' words to him to believe. Belief is defined as the ability to accept or regard something as true; to accept the truth of what is said by someone or what is written, and to trust completely in the context (in this case the New Testament). Without believing in Jesus, as He is, and who He is, you can never see the truth about Him. Without believing in Jesus as the one sent by the Father, and who is one with the Father, humanity cannot be saved. Not because God is petty and says to us, if you do not accept me, I will stop loving you and not allow you into the kingdom. God is never like that, because He loves us unconditionally, but if we refuse to believe, we are the ones who are cutting ourselves off from God and all He wants to give us through the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

St. Thomas wanted to believe the other Apostles when they told him about the appearance of the Risen Lord, and he was hoping it was true, but it was for him too much to believe. It was for Thomas something that was too good to be true, so he chose not to believe or trust. This lack of trust got him into trouble, and it blocked his mind, heart, and soul from believing the others, even our dear Blessed Mother. This all changes when he sees Jesus, who takes Thomas to task for not believing and trusting in His word and the word of the others. This is only for a brief period, for Thomas discontinues his disbelief, and not only does he believe, but he also truly believes, and thus makes the most profound statement of faith found in the New Testament when he falls on his knees and declares, “My Lord and my God.”

How about us, will we be like doubting Thomas and believe in only what we can see, or will we trust completely in God's promises made throughout the ages (as we recalled them last Saturday Night at the Easter Vigil)? The promises that He would deliver us from sin, death, and darkness, that God would send us a Messiah who would bring us new light and life. Christ tells us in today's Gospel, blessed are those who have not seen and have believed, is that you, is that me? To some degree, it must be us, or we would not be here today, but we can always grow more in our trust and faith, and we can share that with others. After all once St Thomas received the Holy Spirit, he went out to India to share his faith and began the founding of the Church in one of Asia's most critical areas. As we know, Thomas would die because of his faith in Jesus.

In the world we are living in now it may be easier for us to understand Thomas' doubts as we may have our own. Again, this is where the words of Jesus to Thomas are worthwhile for us to hear and apply to ourselves. Jesus told him, “...do not be unbelieving, but believe.” Trust in Jesus to help and guide us through the situations we are presented with here and now. This is especially true because today is also Divine Mercy Sunday, this day was declared officially on the Church's Calendar by Saint Pope John Paul II, as he confirmed the visions of the Risen Lord to St. Faustina, and that this day was to be dedicated to the Divine Mercy and the Icon that was written with the words “Jesus I trust in you.” Our Lord wants us to approach Him, not like Thomas with fear or disbelief, but with love, confidence, and total trust in Him.

Happy Easter! - Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Third Sunday of Easter

April 14, 2024

First Reading - Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Psalms - 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

Second Reading - 1 John 2:1-5a

Gospel - Luke 24:35-48

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we will hear Jesus say to the Apostles “that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name...”. This message was not only for the Apostles, but for us as well.

We are all sinners, striving to lead better lives.
In asking God for forgiveness of our sins, how must we truly repent?

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

The members of the St. Edward's St. Vincent De Paul Conference thank you for supporting us through your generous donations to the poor boxes in our church.

It is said that to truly love, we must enter into the chaos of the other.

People often come to us in crisis. Some come to us because of an eviction or serious illness. Some come because of the loss of a job, an impending heat or electricity shut-off or any number of stressful situations where they need stop-gap financial assistance.

As Vincentians, we try to offer some comfort and hope and to see the face of God in our neighbors. We hope they will see the face of God in us.

In 2023, with your help, we assisted numerous people with utility bill payments, back rent, housing security deposits, furniture and more. However, the need remains greater than ever. Rents are on the rise and the needs of our neighbors are increasing.

This Lent, traditionally a time for almsgiving and sacrifice, we ask you to consider further helping our mission by making a contribution to poor boxes as you enter or leave the church.

In the midst of our neighbors' chaos, let us work together to be the face of God to each other. Peace and God's blessings! We are grateful for your continued and generous support!
