*I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
“You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel!”*

Psalm 22:23-24

Palm Sunday

At the Procession with Palms - Luke 19:28-40

Jesus proceeded on his journey up to Jerusalem. As he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples. He said, "Go into the village opposite you, and as you enter it you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. And if anyone should ask you, 'Why are you untying it?' you will answer, 'The Master has need of it.'" So those who had been sent went off and found everything just as he had told them. And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying this colt?" They answered, "The Master has need of it." So they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks over the colt, and helped Jesus to mount. As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; and now as he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. They proclaimed:

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest."

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." He said in reply, "I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!"

Reading 1 - Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm – 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me scoff at me;
they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:
"He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
let him rescue him, if he loves him."

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Indeed, many dogs surround me,
a pack of evildoers closes in upon me;
They have pierced my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

They divide my garments among them,
and for my vesture they cast lots.
But you, O LORD, be not far from me;
O my help, hasten to aid me.

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
"You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel!"

R My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Reading 2 - Philippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
something to be grasped.

Rather, he emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness;
and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name,
that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
of those in heaven and on earth and under
the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Next Week's Readings

Easter Sunday

April 17, 2022

First Reading - Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Psalms 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

Second Reading - Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel - John 20: 1-9

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers and the people and said to them, ‘You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So, no capital crime has been committed by him’...But all together, they shouted out, ‘Away with the man! Release Barabbas to us!’ Again, Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus but they continued their shouting, ‘Crucify him! Crucify him!’”

We sometimes read this account of Jesus' trial and passion and we may say to ourselves why did the people in the crowd call for the release of Barabbas, and demand Jesus' death? Well, there is probably some truth in the idea that Barabbas' supporters, who, on that day, included the Jewish leadership, shouted louder than the supporters of Jesus, but there is much more to this than we can ever imagine. There would have to be, because some in the crowd were the very same people who welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem with palm branches and were shouting, “Hosanna and blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!” What made them stop believing in Him? After all they saw everything, He did and listened to everything He said, and they were still swayed by the Scribes and the Sadducees and lies that the priests told about Jesus. The leaders convinced the people that it was better for them to forget about Jesus for He was not the promised one. Since the people's faith was weak, they had no problem walking away. The leaders also convinced those gathered to demand Jesus' death, for it was better for one man to die, than for Rome to come and destroy all the people!

How could the people be taken in by the leaders so fast? We may wonder and we may say, “If I were there, I would never have given in!” Well, that was true for many who were there on that first Good Friday, as the Gospel tells us that crowds lined the way to Golgotha crying and some even trying to help Jesus. Even though the Apostles fled, out of fear for their lives, they eventually came back to their senses and allowed their faith in Jesus to grow. So, you or I would not have weakened, but there is also the possibility that we might have fled.

On this Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, we should ask ourselves how many times in this life have we denied Christ, and how many times have we called out for today's equivalent of Barabbas? I am sure that if we look at our lives we can find at least one time, but do not get upset, because even the Apostles denied Him and ran away, and Our Lord forgave them. Jesus would not let this stand in the way of them being with Him and allowing them to serve Him. For as we have seen in the past few weeks, Jesus forgives us constantly and He does it all by the Wood of His Cross, which is our focus on this Sunday. Of course, next Sunday we will focus, with immense joy, upon the empty tomb. And this leads us back to the statement of the High Priest, when he said it was better for one man to die for the sake of the people. He was correct, but not for the reason he placed before the people. He was correct because in the Divine Truth of the crucifixion and resurrection, it is not one nation that is being saved, it is all nations. Nations that are not being set free from the slavery of Rome, but nations and generations being set free from the slavery to sin and spiritual death. Yes, all of this was accomplished by the death of one man, and the only person who could do this was/is the Messiah, the Son of God, who took on our humanity.

Soon we enter the holiest week of the Church's year, and during this week, we will retrace the last moments of Jesus' life and we will remember His death on the cross on Good Friday. On Holy Thursday, we will recall the institution of the priesthood and the Eucharist and spend some time before the Blessed Sacrament. On Monday we will hear Confessions from 3PM-9PM on the Diocesan Day for Confessions. Please note that on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday Morning there is no 9 AM Mass since Mass is not allowed on these days, but we will have Morning Prayer at 9 AM.

NO EVENING MASS ON EASTER SUNDAY

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Easter 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Christ is Risen, Alleluia!

Every Easter, as we celebrate our Lord's victory over death, we delight in the consolation that all is restored through the Resurrection, and we ponder God's relentless invitation to live the divine life given at baptism.

This is the good news of our faith: Christ has conquered death and we are invited to life. This good news needs to be heard time and again. Even when things are bleak, we remember Christ is victorious and that we have been invited to witness to his victory. As Pope Francis says:

"Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force. Often it seems that God does not exist: all around us we see persistent injustice, evil, indifference and cruelty. But it is also true that in the midst of darkness something new always springs to life and sooner or later produces fruit. On razed land life breaks through, stubbornly yet invincibly. However dark things are, goodness always re-emerges and spreads. Each day in our world beauty is born anew, it rises transformed through the storms of history. Values always tend to reappear under new guises, and human beings have arisen time after time from situations that seemed doomed. Such is the power of the resurrection, and all who evangelize are instruments of that power."¹

We know well the bleakness that can overwhelm us. How good it is to recall God's goodness! The Risen Lord moves through the locked doors of fear to lead us, to lead our families and to lead the world to peace. May we never forget God's triumph over death and our baptismal call to be an instrument of that power. May we show the Risen Lord to all we meet.

This Easter, as we rejoice in Christ's Resurrection, let us remember especially those who suffer in Ukraine and the millions who have been displaced by that tragic war. Together, we pray that the Risen Christ bring light to their darkness and give them peace.

Be assured of my prayers for you in these holy and joyful weeks.

Happy Easter!

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre
