The Readings for the Third Sunday of Easter

Reading 1 - Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people:

“The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate’s presence when he had decided to release him.

You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away.”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

R. Alleluia.

When I call, answer me, O my just God,
you who relieve me when I am in distress;
have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one;
the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

or:

R. Alleluia.

O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us!

You put gladness into my heart.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

or:

R. Alleluia.

As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep,
for you alone, O LORD,
bring security to my dwelling.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 2 – 1 John 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.

The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, “I know him,” but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

Gospel – Luke 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them,

“These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Then he said to them, ‘Why are you troubled? Look at my hands and feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see that I have.’” Today’s Gospel reading takes place also on that first Easter Sunday, after the two disciples had an encounter with the Risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus. Recall how Jesus came upon them yet they did not recognize Him, because He had changed. Recall how Jesus explained everything in the Scriptures that dealt with the Messiah and how the Messiah had to suffer and die. Remember how their hearts were burning inside them as He told them how this would save the whole world. (This is also brought out in our second reading, from John’s First Letter, in which he writes, “He is the expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only, but for those of the whole world.”) As the Gospel account continues, the two disciples, when they sat at table with this stranger, had their eyes opened when He took the bread, broke it, and with that vanished before their eyes. The two rushed back to Jerusalem where they found the others, and suddenly Christ appeared, and they all were very much afraid. And who could blame them?

They did not know what to make of these events, after all this has never happened before that a man dies and comes back from the dead. But what about Lazarus or the dead son of the widow of Nain or Jarius’ daughter, they were brought back from the dead by Jesus, shouldn’t that have been proof for the disciples? Yes, you might think so, but they were returned to this life, and they would die again. Also, they had the same limits all humans have; they could not appear out of nothing or vanish from sight like the Risen Lord did. We may also think that we read these accounts every year and we know that Jesus is not a ghost, why couldn’t they? Well, we have one thing that they did not have, we have the Holy Spirit. This is very important because it is the Holy Spirit who constantly communicates to us, who Jesus truly is, the Son of God made one of us. They did not receive the Holy Spirit for some fifty days after Easter, and so they are afraid, and they do not lose this fear until they realize that He is not a ghost, but their saving Lord. When fear disappears all that is left is joy. As we mentioned last week, we must not be like Thomas who did not trust, and we must not allow any lack of trust to allow us to give into fear.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 56 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to the Second Sunday of Easter, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

What a difference a year makes! Last Sunday we celebrated Easter with Masses that were almost full, full, and in two cases overfilled. While the number of people attending was less than 2 or 3 years ago, it was a fantastic number for this year; especially compared to last year. This year the count of faithful attending Easter Masses was over 1009, last year it was about 10 (those who were the priests, deacons and liturgical ministers who were needed). Of course, we were grateful that we could record the Mass and send it over the internet, but this year was much better. Hopefully, it is a sign of things to come, and for some who have been afraid to come, or have fallen out of the habit of coming, will change their minds and join us again. However, if you still have reservations, or major health issues, you are correct in staying home and joining us through the internet.

This weekend, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, and this year at 3PM we will have a special prayer service as we pray the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. As was mentioned last year in this space, Our Lord commanded that the words, "JESUS I TRUST IN YOU" be featured on the Icon. I suggested last year when we were going through so much uncertainty, different medical opinions, and so many other aspects of COVID 19 that we focus on these words. Again, we should give all that we are going through to Jesus, allow Him to handle our fears and problems and He will get us through them. Even for those who have died, their trust in Jesus was not in vain, as Jesus led them from death to eternal life and happiness.

Remember the Gospel reading for this weekend is the story of Doubting Thomas. We know that Thomas refused to believe that the Risen Jesus appeared to the 12 and the Blessed Mother on that first Easter Sunday night. Thomas had his doubts and thought that this news was just too good to be true, so he chose not to believe. As time went on, Jesus appeared in the upper room again and this time Thomas was present. As he saw the Risen Lord, he came to not only believe but to truly believe, and out of him came the greatest expression of faith found in both testaments; "My Lord and My God." Let us not allow our doubts, fears, and confusion get in our way from truly trusting and believing that Christ is here with us always. Let us never forget that Jesus' love and mercy is always here for us.

Happy Easter and let us trust that God will allow more good things to happen!

Harvest Houses

Residences for Independent Seniors

MAKING A DIFFERENCE— PANDEMIC OR NO PANDEMIC!

We are celebrating Harvest Houses 35th Birthday!

Over 35 years ago we, the Sisters of St. Dominic, recognized the need for a completely new kind of living for independent elders. Today, we reflect on what we have learned about life from the more than 100 seniors who have lived in a Harvest House. And as we mark nearly one year since the Pandemic abruptly changed our lives, we've experienced a new reality. COVID-19, the "great revealer" threw us a new learning curve — how do we respond to life in the midst of great adversity and challenges?

Residents and staff came together during the 'lock-down', planning active days that would bring us enrichment, laughter and peace (we did have a few tumultuous days!) We became so involved in our daily activities that the months and weeks passed calmly and in comfort. Holiday and birthday celebrations with family (via Zoom or our front window) became a "happening" for everyone. We managed together to successfully plan our Easter dinner—now that was a challenge!

During the early days and months, we frequently heard from or called Senior friends whom we knew lived alone, to check on them. These calls saddened our hearts: "I am so lonely!"... "I am frightened!"... "What if I get sick?" However, as our residents adjusted to their 'new normal', we heard the following comments: "We are not afraid!"... "We are together!" And most importantly... "We feel safe and secure."

HEREIN LIES THE VALUE OF HARVEST HOUSES

"Research shows it is the face-to-face human interactions that are fundamental to our overall well-being. It is the day-to-day, real, in-the-flesh encounters, the direct human contact that matters...from birth to death we are hard-wired to connect. We are happier, healthier and more resistant to despair and disease if we satisfy the need for human contact!"

— from The Village Effect by Susan Pinka

HARVEST HOUSES are residences for eight independent seniors who live together in a family-like environment, which provides:

- Private bedroom
- Nutritious meals
- Beautiful private grounds
- Non-institutional family environment
- Social and recreational services
- Connection to community resources
- Stimulating independence
- Mutual daily support
- Security & safety

This is what Harvest House offers to independent seniors - not only in times of a pandemic crisis, but every single day! This is the very reason Harvest House Residences were created 35 years ago: to offer independent seniors a new opportunity of living in later life.

PLEASE JOIN US, SENIORS...COME! DON'T WAIT!

COLUMBIETTES

A UNIFIED BODY OF CATHOLIC WOMEN
WORKING TOGETHER TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE
BY TOUCHING HEARTS AND CHANGING LIVES.

In April of 2015, the Joseph J. Gorman #5091 Columbiettes began their work with a small body of just twenty-one Catholic women. With the cooperative efforts of this extraordinary group, we began our journey by reaching out to our parish, our community, the dioceses and to each other...and then broadened our scope by supporting young seminarians overseas. Wherever there is need, we offer help. Since our inception we have accomplished so much, and continue to do so. The causes and activities we support are based upon the Mission of the Columbiettes, guided by the precepts of faith, hope and charity.

The Columbiettes are an ordinary group of Catholic women doing extraordinary things.

DIOCESE OF

One Family in Mission
Creating Pathways to Faith

Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island.

As of April 12, 2021 the Parishioners of St. Edwards have pledged over $75,000, and we are now at 71.4% of our annual goal. Please consider making a pledge to support the various ministries of the Diocese.
