From Fr. Mike's Desk

I came upon this story a few years ago and it is an effective way to start this Easter Letter. There was a young man who had to go before the members of his parish and recite the 23rd Psalm. He had practiced it for a long time and when the day came to recite it, he knew it backwards and forwards. As he got up in front of the Church, and all eyes were upon him, he began to panic. After some time passed, he began with, "the Lord is my shepherd." He suddenly stopped, and after another period of silence, he continued with, "And that's all I need to know." With that, he received a great deal of applause. Now, were they applauding because they approved of his ability to think fast on his feet? Or were they applauding him for his great insight? Of course, it does not have to be either or, it should be both.

Today Jesus tells us as He does every 4th Sunday of Easter, that He is the Good Shepherd who knows His sheep and they know Him. He is the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for His sheep so they can live. This should be a great comfort for us, especially when we feel tested or abandoned. Why, well keep in mind the relationship that a shepherd has with his sheep. In Jesus' day, they lived side by side and the sheep will only come to the shepherd's voice with whom they feel completely safe. The shepherd does not run away when the wolf comes, in fact, he stays and defends his sheep and redeems those who were lost. Our Lord is telling us we can totally trust in Him even more than the sheep depending on the shepherd. For Jesus will go out of His way to find a lost sheep, even to leaving the ninety-nine behind to find the one who was lost. This is great for the lost sheep, but what about the ninety-nine left behind? Is the shepherd really going to leave them behind by themselves? Of course not, the Good Shepherd never leaves the sheep alone, and through the power of The Holy Spirit He is always present. This same Spirit empowers others to care for the sheep in the Good Shepherd's name. Christ cares for us, and He appoints shepherds over His Church to preach the Good News, teach in His name, heal, and minister in the same way He did when He was on Earth.

Please pray for our shepherds: His Holiness Pope Francis, our Bishop John O. Barres, and all the Bishops of the Church, Fr. Hyacinth, Fr. Jude, Msgr. Beckmann, Fr. Celestine, Fr. Joe Fitzgerald, Fr. Tom Fusco, and all who have had the great privilege of serving the people of St. Edwards. Let us also pray for Deacon Jim, Deacon Barry, Deacon Tom, Deacon Ray, Lay Staff Ministers, and the Good Sisters of Mercy who served here.

Also please pray for an increase of vocations to the Diaconate, Priesthood, and Religious Life. Pray that there will always be shepherds molded in the image and likeness of Jesus.

Happy Good Shepherd Sunday!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday of Easter

April 28, 2024

First Reading - Acts 9:26-31

Psalms - 22:26-27, 28, 30, 31-32

Second Reading - 1 John 3:18-24

Gospel - John 15:1-8

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we will hear Jesus tell His disciples that He is the true vine, and God the Father is the vine grower. We are the branches that grow on the vine, and whether we bear fruit is the result of being connected to the vine, which is Jesus.

How are we to remain inwardly connected to Jesus, so that through us, the Holy Spirit can work outwardly to bear fruit?

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

The members of the St. Edward's St. Vincent De Paul Conference thank you for supporting us through your generous donations to the poor boxes in our church.

It is said that to truly love, we must enter into the chaos of the other.

People often come to us in crisis. Some come to us because of an eviction or serious illness. Some come because of the loss of a job, an impending heat or electricity shut-off or any number of stressful situations where they need stop-gap financial assistance.

As Vincentians, we try to offer some comfort and hope and to see the face of God in our neighbors. We hope they will see the face of God in us.

In 2023, with your help, we assisted numerous people with utility bill payments, back rent, housing security deposits, furniture and more. However, the need remains greater than ever. Rents are on the rise and the needs of our neighbors are increasing.

This Lent, traditionally a time for almsgiving and sacrifice, we ask you to consider further helping our mission by making a contribution to poor boxes as you enter or leave the church.

In the midst of our neighbors' chaos, let us work together to be the face of God to each other. Peace and God's blessings! We are grateful for your continued and generous support!
