Edward P. Greeley

By: Janet Greeley and Family

Let us pray: Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Second Sunday of Easter - Divine Mercy Sunday

Reading 1 - Acts 5:12-16

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

Responsorial Psalm – 114:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

R Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.
or: R Alleluia.

Let the house of Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."

Let the house of Aaron say,
"His mercy endures forever."

Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His mercy endures forever."

R Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.
or: R Alleluia.

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.
My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.
The joyful shout of victory
in the tents of the just:

R Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.
or: R Alleluia.

The stone which the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.
This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

R Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.
or: R Alleluia.

Reading 2 - Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19

I, John, your brother, who share with you the distress, the kingdom, and the endurance we have in Jesus, found myself on the island called Patmos because I proclaimed God's word and gave testimony to Jesus. I was caught up in spirit on the Lord's day and heard behind me a voice as loud as a trumpet, which said, "Write on a scroll what you see." Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and when I turned, I saw seven gold lampstands and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, wearing an ankle-length robe, with a gold sash around his chest.

When I caught sight of him, I fell down at his feet as though dead. He touched me with his right hand and said, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, the one who lives. Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. I hold the keys to death and the netherworld. Write down, therefore, what you have seen, and what is happening, and what will happen afterwards."

Gospel - John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Next Week's Readings

Third Sunday of Easter

May 1, 2022

First Reading - Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

Psalms 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13

Second Reading - Revelation 5:11-14

Gospel - John 21:1-19

From Fr. Mike's Desk

There is an old prayer in the Church that has been said from the beginning. It is short and simple, but it says so much. In fact, this prayer is very appropriate for what we hear in today's Gospel. The prayer goes like this; "Lord I believe but help me in my unbelief." In fact, it was also very appropriate for last week's Gospel from Luke. As you may recall, the Apostles did not believe the women who went to the tomb and found it empty. They did not believe that the angels spoke to them, however, Peter listened to the story, got up and ran to the tomb. He did not find Jesus' body but did find the burial cloths in a place all their own. He was amazed and he began to believe. As was pointed out last week, Peter began His journey back to being the Rock on whom Jesus will build His Church.

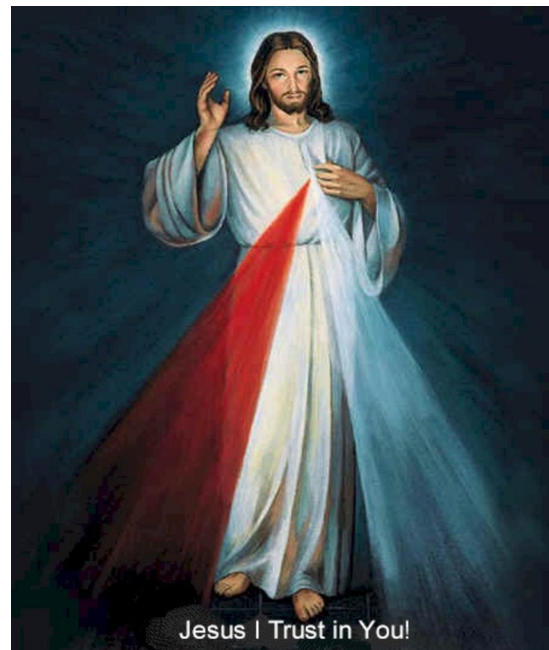

Now we come to this week's Gospel from John. We read this Gospel every Second Sunday of Easter, and in it we see that the Risen Lord appears to the Apostles in the locked Upper Room. When He appears He says, "Peace be with you!" The disciples are overjoyed and as Deacon Jim points out, Jesus did not condemn them for running away, and He did not yell at Peter for denying Him three times. However, as we will soon see, Christ will deal with that event separately. He greets them with Peace, Blessings, Love and tells them to receive the Holy Spirit. Today's passage also tells us that Thomas was missing, and we do not know why. We can guess or suppose, but the fact is he was not there. When Thomas returns, the others tell him, that they had seen the Lord, but he refused to believe them. Why? I imagine that he wanted to believe but could not accept it until he saw for himself. He wanted to believe, but it was just too good to be true, so to avoid disappointment he chose not to believe. The prayer applies right here, Lord I believe, but help me in my unbelief. How could You rise from the dead?

A week passes, and Jesus appears again to them (on the 2nd Sunday), and this time Thomas is present. Jesus once again greets them with peace, and then He questions Thomas about his disbelief. Thomas has no answer, instead he falls to his knees and makes the most profound statement of faith ever seen in both Testaments, "My Lord and My God!" He perceives Jesus not only as his Lord, but now he can clearly see that Jesus is God! As Jesus continues, He tells Thomas that he believed because he saw, but blessed are those who believe without seeing. Blessed are they who believe because they look through the eyes of faith, blessed are we because we see with the same eyes. Lord I believe, but help me in my unbelief, help me when my faith is weak, or when life gets too hard to bear. Help me when I build walls between You and me, and help me to trust in You always.

In a unique way, the following words can also help us in our unbelief. The words that Jesus commanded be placed on the Icon of the Divine Mercy, whose feast Day we also celebrate on this Second Sunday of Easter. The words are, "Jesus I trust in you." Jesus' love and mercy was always with the Apostles 2022 years ago and His love and mercy are here for us today and for who will follow us. Never lose sight of this, and never forget it!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

RETRouvaille

Retrouvaille Weekend You Can Help Heal Your Marriage

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationships. Primarily a practical program to improve communication, build stronger marriages and help couples reconnect. Presenters are not trained marriage counselors, but rather couples sharing their personal stories of marital struggles and the tools they used to rediscover their love.

For confidential information about the Retrouvaille program, or to register for the upcoming weekend that begins on Friday, May 13-15th, 2022, please visit our website www.helpourmarriage.org or email our Registration Office for more information at: 3028R@HelpOurMarriage.Org You can also call this toll free number: 1-800-470-2230 and you will be connected directly and confidentially to a couple from our Long Island Metro Retrouvaille community who can help.

DEVINE MERCY PRAYER SERVICE

Please Join Us Today

Sunday, April 24th

For The

Devine Mercy Prayer Service

At 3:00 PM

In The Church

May is the Month for Our Lady - Family Marian Activities

Parish Family Rosary Monday, May 2nd at 6:30pm in the Church

Join with other families and fellow parishioners of all ages to pray the rosary as we give honor to our Mother Mary. Later in the Month, we will celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima. During Mary's appearances to the children at Fatima, our Lady asked that we dedicate ourselves and our families to her Immaculate Heart. She told the children that through prayer and sacrifice many good things would come to pass even the conversion of Russia. Many have credited the break up of the former Soviet Union to such devotions. So, it seems especially fitting today, that in honor of her feast day, we gather to rededicate ourselves, our families to Mary's Immaculate Heart by praying Her Holy Rosary. This Rosary gathering will be a "child friendly" prayer service. A special invite to our First Communion children, and all school aged children to help lead us in a decade of the Rosary.

Our 7th and 8th Graders can get service hours by volunteering to bake for the Hot Dog Supper.

All are welcome to our Hot Dog Supper following the Family Rosary!

A gathering of hot dogs, chips, and lemonade will follow the May 2nd Rosary in the field adjacent to the Church.

This supper will be sponsored and hosted free of charge by the St. Edward's Knight of Columbus .

In case of inclement weather, supper will be held in the Holy Family Room.

Parish May Crowning

Sunday, May 22nd at the 9:30 am Family Mass

We especially invite all of our First Holy Communicants to join in our May Crowning Procession. We ask that the children wear their First Communion outfits and gather at 9:15 am in the Church lobby for the Procession line up. The May Crowning will take place at the beginning of the 9:30am Family Mass.

On this Mothers' Day, come join with your parish family, as we gather to crown Mary, our Mother, Queen of Heaven and of our Hearts.

TOMORROW'S HOPE

Invest in the Future of Our Church!
