Third Sunday of Easter

Reading 1 - Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

Responsorial Psalm – 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13

R I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld;
you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger lasts but a moment;
a lifetime, his good will.
At nightfall, weeping enters in,
but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me;
O LORD, be my helper.
You changed my mourning into dancing;
O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Reading 2 - Revelation 5:11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing."

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out:

"To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever."

The four living creatures answered, "Amen", and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Gospel - John 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Easter

May 8, 2022

First Reading - Acts 13:14, 43-52

Psalms 100:1-2, 3, 5

Second Reading - Revelation 7:14b-17

Gospel - John 10:27-30

From Fr. Mike's Desk

As we mentioned last week in this space, Jesus spoke with Peter and brought about a remedy for the three times he denied Christ on that first Holy Thursday night. This of course, was necessary so that all (including Peter) could see and understand that Peter was chosen to be the head of the Church on earth after Jesus ascended into heaven. Today's Gospel begins with Peter telling the others that he was going fishing, and they all joined in and said they would accompany him. Scholars believe that they were doing this because Peter, and the others, want to return to their former way of life. That could be true, or they just needed a break, or they were simply hungry as they made their journey from Jerusalem to Galilee, we will never fully know! However, if they were trying to return to their old life, they saw quite clearly that a fisherman's life was no longer for them. They fished all night and caught nothing until daybreak, when a man on the shore told them to cast their net once more. Of course, they realized a large catch of fish (John tells us 153). With that John yells out, it is the Lord, and Peter so excited jumps into the water to run to Jesus.

Jesus tells them to get some of the fish they caught and join them with the fish He had already cooking. After they ate breakfast, Jesus takes Peter aside and asks him three times, if Peter loved Him. Peter answers yes, each time, and with each yes came a command (feed my lambs, tend my sheep, and feed my sheep). After these questions and answers, Peter was upset! However, through these questions the Risen Lord made all things new, and Peter was once again fully the Rock upon which Jesus would build His Church. When the visit was ending, Jesus looked at Peter and the rest and said to them the same words He said to them when they were first called, "Follow me."

We too are called to follow Jesus; we too are to dedicate our lives to serving Him and making Him known to others. We are to follow the Gospel, love others as He has loved us, and to be instruments of His peace and forgiveness. This call was given to us at our baptism, but also before then. We received it sooner even before we were born. As Our Lord says in the Gospel, "It was not you who chose Me, it was I who chose you."

During this Season of Easter, God the Father is calling us to new life through His Son Our Lord, Jesus Christ. He is calling us to renew our Baptismal Promises and to see Jesus more clearly than ever. Jesus is also asking us if we love Him more than these. If we love Him more than the world and what it hands out to us? How will you answer? How will I answer? Hopefully, "Yes, Lord you know that I love you."

Happy Easter

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

RETROUVILLE

Retrouvaille Weekend You Can Help Heal Your Marriage

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationships. Primarily a practical program to improve communication, build stronger marriages and help couples reconnect. Presenters are not trained marriage counselors, but rather couples sharing their personal stories of marital struggles and the tools they used to rediscover their love.

For confidential information about the Retrouvaille program, or to register for the upcoming weekend that begins on Friday, May 13-15th, 2022, please visit our website www.helpourmarriage.org or email our Registration Office for more information at: 3028R@HelpOurMarriage.Org You can also call this toll free number: 1-800-470-2230 and you will be connected directly and confidentially to a couple from our Long Island Metro Retrouvaille community who can help.

THE POOR BOXES

Do you know how important your contributions to the poor boxes in the church are?

The offerings you make help us serve our neighbors in need through our St. Vincent de Paul Society. Following the long period of COVID-19 many families are still in need of assistance. Sadly, due to the harshness of this past winter many of them are in need of basics like utilities and home heating fuel.

Please, if you will, remember those who do not share our bounty. If you have some change that you can spare drop it into the Poor Boxes when you enter or leave the church. Thanks very much!

May is the Month for Our Lady - Family Marian Activities

Parish Family Rosary Monday, May 2nd at 6:30pm in the Church

Join with other families and fellow parishioners of all ages to pray the rosary as we give honor to our Mother Mary. Later in the Month, we will celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima. During Mary's appearances to the children at Fatima, our Lady asked that we dedicate ourselves and our families to her Immaculate Heart. She told the children that through prayer and sacrifice many good things would come to pass even the conversion of Russia. Many have credited the break up of the former Soviet Union to such devotions. So, it seems especially fitting today, that in honor of her feast day, we gather to rededicate ourselves, our families to Mary's Immaculate Heart by praying Her Holy Rosary. This Rosary gathering will be a "child friendly" prayer service. A special invite to our First Communion children, and all school aged children to help lead us in a decade of the Rosary.

Our 7th and 8th Graders can get service hours by volunteering to bake for the Hot Dog Supper.

All are welcome to our Hot Dog Supper following the Family Rosary!

A gathering of hot dogs, chips, and lemonade will follow the May 2nd Rosary in the field adjacent to the Church.

This supper will be sponsored and hosted free of charge by the St. Edward's Knight of Columbus .

In case of inclement weather, supper will be held in the Holy Family Room.

Parish May Crowning

Sunday, May 22nd at the 9:30 am Family Mass

We especially invite all of our First Holy Communicants to join in our May Crowning Procession. We ask that the children wear their First Communion outfits and gather at 9:15 am in the Church lobby for the Procession line up. The May Crowning will take place at the beginning of the 9:30am Family Mass.

On this Mothers' Day, come join with your parish family, as we gather to crown Mary, our Mother, Queen of Heaven and of our Hearts.
