Seventh Sunday of Easter

Reading 1 - Acts 7:55-60

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, and Stephen said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." But they cried out in a loud voice, covered their ears, and rushed upon him together. They threw him out of the city, and began to stone him. The witnesses laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. As they were stoning Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he fell to his knees and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them;" and when he said this, he fell asleep.

Responsorial Psalm – 97:1-2, 6-7, 9

R/ The Lord is king, the most high
over all the earth.

The LORD is king; let the earth rejoice;
let the many islands be glad.
Justice and judgment are the foundation of his throne.

R/ The Lord is king, the most high
over all the earth.

The heavens proclaim his justice,
and all peoples see his glory.
All gods are prostrate before him.

R/ The Lord is king, the most high
over all the earth.

You, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth,
exalted far above all gods.

R/ The Lord is king, the most high
over all the earth.

Reading 2 - Revelation 22:2-14, 16-17, 20

I, John, heard a voice saying to me: "Behold, I am coming soon. I bring with me the recompense I will give to each according to his deeds. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Blessed are they who wash their robes so as to have the right to the tree of life and enter the city through its gates.

"I, Jesus, sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the root and offspring of David, the bright morning star."

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let the hearer say, "Come." Let the one who thirsts come forward, and the one who wants it receive the gift of life-giving water.

The one who gives this testimony says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

Gospel - John 17:20-26

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: "Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me. Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

Next Week's Gospel Question

In our Gospel today Jesus says,

"As the Father has sent me,
so I send you."

What have you done to answer this call?

Next Week's Readings

Pentecost Sunday

June 5, 2022

First Reading - Acts 6:1-11

Psalms 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Gospel - John 20:19-23

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Lifting up His eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying : ‘Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word, so that they may all be one as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us.’”

Today's Gospel gives us a part of Jesus' High Priestly Prayer, offered by the High Priest on Holy Thursday night before He went out into the garden to pray and was subsequently arrested. At the beginning of this prayer, which is not part of today's passage, Jesus prays especially for the Apostles and places before the Father that He was not praying for the world (remember for John the world means human society which tries to exist without God) but was for His Apostles. He prays for them because He is going to send them out so they could change the world. Jesus also prays that the Apostles will be able to share in the joy that Jesus has in His relationship with the Father. For to share in this joy will give them part of what they need to go out and spread the Good News. Today's passage tells us that Jesus is extending His prayer beyond the Apostles to all of those who believe in what they are preaching. Our Lord has complete faith in His Father and complete faith in the ones who He will send out because they are the Father's gift to Him. Jesus has this faith in God and the Apostles even though He knows He is about to face the cross.

In this prayer, Our Lord ask that we live in unity. Sometimes this is extremely hard for us to do, especially when it seems easier to point out our differences. While it is true that there are different Christian Congregations, which have real differences in practices and beliefs, it is also true that we have so much in common with each other especially God's love. As Jesus prays for us to be unified in His love, so has Pope Francis and the popes of the past few decades. They not only have prayed but have taken steps to focus on what we have in common and have stressed that in our relations with non-Catholic Christians. Likewise, Christian groups are reaching out to us and others to make a more unified spreading of the Gospel. But for this to happen and for Jesus' prayer to touch us we must change our hearts. Jesus' prayer for us, is a great gift and it is a great challenge as well.

Next weekend we celebrate Pentecost Sunday which is the last day of the Easter Season. We will, of course, celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles, the Blessed Mother, and the whole Church. What better way to conclude Easter then remembering how the Church was empowered to carry out the petitions of Jesus' High Prayer by the grace and power of the Holy Spirit. Do not forget to wear RED to show how we are indeed open to the fire, power, and love of God.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Ascension Day Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus Christ, right before your Ascension into heaven you told your apostles to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth upon receiving the Holy Spirit. May I be similarly inspired to spread your Gospel message in word and deed, according to your will for me. And may I do so prudently and joyfully, with your help, your guidance, and your grace! And remembering this glorious event, help me to seek what is above, Heaven, where you are seated at the right hand of God the Father!

Liturgy of the Hours

Last week the bulletin contained an introduction to the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. The Liturgy of the Hours is the official prayer of the Catholic Church. There are five canonical Hours; Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer, Evening Prayer and Night Prayer. Each of the 'hours' designates a marked period of time where we sanctify that part of the day with prayer. Priests, Deacons and many Religious are obligated to the daily recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours, and the lay faithful are encouraged to do so also.

Finding several times per day to stop and pray may not be possible for everyone. This being the case, start with the two most important Hours, or 'hinge Hours', which are Morning and Evening Prayer. There are numerous resources available to help you pray the Liturgy of the Hours, both in book form, and via websites and apps for your smartphone. Some of these resources are:

The Rosary - Mother Mary's Promises

Come to the church on Thursday nights at 7:30 PM and join others in praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. The benefits of what Pope St. John Paul II called “an exquisitely contemplative prayer” were enumerated in a special way by a 15th century Dominican friar. According to the tradition, Alanus de Rupe experienced a private revelation from the Blessed Virgin Mary which included 15 promises to those who pray the Rosary devoutly. Last week the first promise of receiving ‘signal graces’ was mentioned.

The second promise of the Blessed Virgin Mary was: “I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary”. In our current world, couldn't each of us find just a little more peace if we had the special protection which Mary promises? Find your rosary and say a few prayers.

Prayer Service for the Victims of the Mass Shootings

Please join us on Tuesday, May 31st at 7:00 pm in the church for a special prayer service for the victims of the Buffalo and Texas mass shootings and for their families.

We will also pray for our great country to come together and in one united voice we will try to stop these senseless murders.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

SAINT OF THE DAY

May 29th

Saint Julia Ledóchowska - foundress of the Congregation of the Ursuline Sisters of the Agonizing Heart of Jesus.

She was a prolific supporter of Polish independence which she often spoke about at conferences across Scandinavia, while she settled in Russia for a time to open convents until her expulsion. But she continued to found convents across Scandinavian countries and even translated a Finnish catechism for the faithful there while later founding her own order which she would later manage from Rome at the behest of Pope Benedict XV.

Pope John Paul II canonized her in Saint Peter's Square on 18 May 2003 before a crowd of 50,000 people.
