From Fr. Mike's Desk

“In the name of The Father and of The Son, and of the Holy Spirit Amen”. Every Roman Catholic, Orthodox Christian, and some other Christians begins their prayers and Liturgical celebrations, with these words as they make the Sign of the Cross. These words remind us of whom it is we are directing our prayers to, namely our dear Lord who is the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. What does it mean when we refer to God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and why do we refer to God this way? Well that's easy; that's how God exists (for lack of a better word). Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This is one of the days on the Church's calendar which focuses on one of the major mysteries of our faith and this is one big mystery. On this day we try to explain and celebrate the Triune Nature of the One True God. Oh sure, we could get away with the idea that it is a mystery so that's all we can say, but that is not good enough and not what God expects. God, throughout time, has been revealing Himself and this Triune Nature to us. One such explanation of God existing in the Blessed Trinity is seen in the Creed attributed to Saint Athanasius. St. Athanasius was the Patriarch of Alexandria who lived from 298-373 AD. While this statement of faith and doctrine is attributed to him, many believe he did not write it because it was written in Latin and not the Greek he would have used. And its contents fit more with the theology of the Western Church and of Church scholars from a later time than he lived.

As the Creed states; “...and the Catholic faith is this: That we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confounding the persons, nor dividing the substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Spirit. But the godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit is all one, the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit. The Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Spirit uncreated. The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, and the Holy Spirit incomprehensible. The Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Spirit eternal. And yet they are not three eternal, but one eternal. As also there are not three incomprehensible, nor three uncreated, but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible. So likewise the Father is almighty, the Son is almighty, and the Holy Spirit is almighty. And yet there are not three almighties, but One Almighty. So the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three gods but only One God. So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, and the Holy Spirit is Lord, and yet not three Lords, but One Lord. For we are compelled by the Christian verity [truth] to acknowledge each Person by Himself to be both God and Lord, so we are also forbidden by the Catholic religion to say that there are three gods or three lords. The Father is not made, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made, nor created but begotten. The Holy Spirit is of the Father, neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding. So there is one Father, not three fathers; one Son, not three sons; one Holy Spirit, not three holy spirits. And in the Trinity none is before or after another; none is greater or less than another, but all three Persons are co-eternal together and co-equal. So that all things as is aforesaid, the unity in Trinity and the Trinity in unity is to be worshipped. He therefore that will be saved must think thus of the Trinity.”

Now I am sure that this answers any questions that you may have about the Blessed Trinity, if not don't worry, after all it's a mystery. Just keep in mind what our readings tell us today, that all of God has been working and is involved in our salvation. That every part of God will stop at nothing so that we can be free of sin, darkness and spiritual death.

Next weekend we will celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ and we will have our Procession with the Blessed Sacrament following the 11:30 Mass around the church grounds. We are just weeks away from our Parish Family Bar-B-Q so make sure to get your tickets and be a part of all the fun with the members of your St. Edward's Family. We will have the Bar-B-Q on Saturday June 29th following the 5PM Mass rain or shine.

God bless you always!

All the things we usually chase—money, pleasure, power, and honor—make us happy only for a little while, but then they fade. They don’t satisfy our deep need for joy. Jesus offers a different way. What’s His path to happiness?

Faith-in-Action Weekend

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

Matthew 25:40

The Fourth Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Service

One could argue that there is no better quote about Christian service in the Bible than the one stated above. We are called to evangelize and there is no better way to do this than to show love to all. If there is to be more Christians in the world than it can only happen through our service to others.

With so much suffering in the world, there are so many ways available for us to go out and help others.

You can make a difference right in your own parish or in a Diocesan ministry.

- Bring a senior to Mass.
- Talk to your pastor to find out how you can be of service.
- Food pantries, soup kitchens and religious education programs are there waiting for us to get involved.

You can make a huge difference in someone's life. Think about that; if you donated a few hours of your time to a certain service project or opportunity, you could brighten the days of an individual who needed it. Let us make Long Island a better place for someone today.

Living Stewardship

We are called to evangelize, and what better way is there to do that than to love. Show love today to all you encounter, that is the simplest and easiest way to love. We can go a step further by helping those who need love the most.

Intercession

Help us Lord to realize that we need to put our Faith into action. Ignite our hearts so that we may show love to all of our brothers and sisters. In Your Name we pray...
