The Readings for The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Job 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said:
Who shut within doors the sea,
when it burst forth from the womb;
when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door,
and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Resp. Psalm – 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
or:
R. Alleluia.

They who sailed the sea in ships,
trading on the deep waters,
These saw the works of the LORD and his wonders in the abyss.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
or:
R. Alleluia.

His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high.
They mounted up to heaven; they sank to the depths;
their hearts melted away in their plight.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
or:
R. Alleluia.

They cried to the LORD in their distress;
from their straits he rescued them,
He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze,
and the billows of the sea were stilled.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
or:
R. Alleluia.

They rejoiced that they were calmed,
and he brought them to their desired haven.
Let them give thanks to the LORD for his kindness and his wondrous deeds to the children of men.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.
or:
R. Alleluia.

Reading 2 – 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:
The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died.

He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ
according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Gospel – Mark 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: “Let us cross to the other side.” Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up.
Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!”
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?” They were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last week Jesus told the gathered crowds and the Apostles two parables which deal with the sowing of seed, how the seed grows and how the farmer does not know how any of it happens. Jesus then mentioned the mustard seed which grows into a large bush and the birds of the air build their nest in it. The parable with the seed compares to the Kingdom or Reign of God, and no matter what mankind does or fails to do, it will still appear, but we are better off if we cooperate with God. If we do this, we will help be co-creators of the Kingdom. This leads us to the mustard seed which grows into a big bush which represents the Church, which grows so large, so it can do its part to establish the Reign of God.

After Jesus is done speaking, Mark tells us that He and the Apostles go across the Sea of Galilee, and Jesus is so tired that He falls asleep in the stern of the boat on a cushion. In the middle of their passage a sudden violent windstorm comes over the sea and it is tossing the boat which begins to take on water. The Apostles filled with fear, wake Jesus up and plead with Him to help. Within moments Jesus commands the wind and the waves to be calm and silent. After He does this, Jesus asks the Apostles, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" Now, it is not unusual for Jesus to carry out a miracle right after giving a major discourse, but there is more behind the miracle of the Calming of The Sea.

As we saw in the first parable last week, the Reign of God belongs not to humanity, but to God, and nothing we can do will stop its progress, and it proceeds according to God's will not ours. This week we are reminded that only God has command over the forces of nature, and the very fact that Jesus can command them, signifies who He truly is. Notice Jesus uses the same words to calm the sea that He used to drive out the demon from the man in the synagogue ("Quiet! Be still!"). Jesus came to the man's aid with these words, He came to the Apostles aid with the same words, and yes, He comes to our aid with these words. Jesus is always present to us, He is always with us and the story of the boat on the stormy sea, is the same story of us in our sometimes-stormy lives. If we listen with our hearts, we can hear Jesus telling us be quiet, be still.

Now I am giving you an assignment. Why is it so important for Mark to point out that Jesus is resting on a cushion, in the boat's stern? There is a meaning behind it, and if you look at the other Gospels account of this miracle, they do not mention this. The answer will be given next week!

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 65 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

On Monday May 31st, we observed Memorial Day, and the first unofficial day of Summer 2021. While we missed the Memorial Day Parade, in which we honor and remember all of those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our nation, we do hope that we will be able to have it next year. COVID cases are going down as the number of new infections and hospitalizations are far less than last year at this time; however, we are still faced with the reality that people are dying from it. Let us continue to pray that the numbers keep going down and that those who are sickened by the virus will be able to recover and have no lasting ill effects.

Summer is finally here, but our first weekend felt more like late Fall instead of late Spring, but I am sure warmer weather is on its way. I hope that many of you will be able to get away, or at least be able to host more family events at home. Hopefully, you can get away to the beach or a park, if even for a few hours a week; just to avoid being trapped in the house. This Summer should be a little brighter and lighter and stay that way all the way to Fall, but let's not rush the seasons!

Use this time to enjoy the wonderful things Summer has to offer, use this time to appreciate the gifts we have received, and to improve our relationship with God and each other. This is the time to renew our lives and hopefully with God's help become the best person we can be.

Happy Summer (and if you do not like Summer, you will have to wait for the Fall)!

Fr. Mike

The Saint Joseph's Prayer Group - Updated Time

Starting last week The Saint Joseph's Prayer Group began meeting at 7:30 PM in the Church. The change in time was to accommodate older parishioners who wished to avoid driving in the dark. Considering that praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy takes less than 30 minutes, this time change will allow people to leave the church no later than 8:00 PM and arrive home before sunset. Prayers work, and don't we all know someone who could use them. Pray!

On the Cross, Jesus Prayed for Each of Us

During his general audience this past Wednesday, Pope Francis concludes a long series of catechetical lessons on "prayer," focusing on the priestly prayer of Jesus. Pope Francis said "the most beautiful thing to remember" is "the grace that we do not only pray, but that, so to speak, we have been 'prayed for,' we have already been received in Jesus's dialogue with the Father, in communion with the Holy Spirit." He went on to say that "Prayer...is one of the most evident features in Jesus' life... because the dialogue with the Father was the incandescent core of His whole existence." Jesus' prayer, the Pope said, "is intense, the prayer of Jesus is unique and also becomes the model for our prayer." Pope Francis insisted, "Jesus prayed for everyone, He also prayed for me, for each one of you. Each one of us can say: 'Jesus prayed for me on the Cross.' He prayed. Jesus can say to each one of us: 'I prayed for you, at the Last Supper, and on the wood of the Cross.'"

Rededication of the St. Edward the Confessor Statue

Last Saturday, June 12th, following the 5:00 PM Mass, Fr. Mike held a ceremony to rededicate the statue of St. Edward the Confessor, and the upgraded grounds immediately surrounding the statue on the front lawn of the church. The cleaning of the statue, as well as the installation of the paving stones, benches, trees and lawn, were an Eagle Scout project that was undertaken by Michael Albrecht (pictured above with Fr. Mike). Michael raised the funds, purchased the materials, and supervised the project to its' successful completion. The parishioners who were present for the rededication ceremony received a blessing from Fr. Mike.

Pictured above, Fr. Mike blesses the statue of St. Edward and the surrounding grounds. Pictured on the left is; Eagle Scout Michael Albrecht surrounded by family, his father Vincent, mother Krista, and sister Lizzie. From all the parishioners at St. Edwards, we thank you for undertaking this project, and for all the planning and hard work that it took. We wish you the best of luck as you head off to Hofstra University in the fall.

Taxpayer Dollars and Abortion

THE DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has started important initiative to oppose repeal of the Hyde Amendment. Catholics across the country are uniting to send a strong message to Congress that we oppose repealing the Hyde Amendment which;

- ◆ Has protected Americans from funding abortion through federal taxpayer dollars since 1976.
- ◆ Is estimated to have saved 2.4 million children to date.
- ◆ Has received bipartisan support through the years.
- ◆ Supporting the Hyde Amendment does not change access to abortion, but respects the views of those who do not want their taxpayer dollars to fund abortion.
- ◆ permanent repeal means billions of taxpayer dollars will go towards abortions.

Please sign the petition at www.notaxpayerabortion.com so that your voice is heard!

Work on the Church Plaza

As announced previously, we have contracted with a firm to replace the existing cement plaza with a new one that will enhance the appearance and which will avoid any potential hazardous situations. Construction will begin this Monday, June 21st, and is expected to take approximately five days. During that time, access to the church will be through the side entrances. We expect to have it completed before the weekend Masses on June 26 & 27. The funds for this project will come from our Capital Campaign account, however, if you would like to make a donation it will be gratefully appreciated and can be dropped off at the rectory."

Words to Contemplate

Then Jesus asked them,

“Why are you terrified?
Do you not yet have faith?”

Mark 4:40

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks the disciples “Why are you lacking in faith.” In our life’s journey, we also must learn to believe in God’s presence and to trust in his care.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can continue show God’s love and care to others.
