From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today the Book of Wisdom tells us that death does not come from God and that God does not rejoice in death. According to ancient Jewish Tradition, death, and illness came about because of sin and the work of the devil. For if sin did not enter the human family because of the sin of Adam and Eve, we would have died in a pleasant way and we would pass from our side of the Kingdom to God's side without pain or fear. As a consequence of sin, death is sometimes painful and usually feared, and many certainly want to avoid it. While today we know that physical death and illness are not a result of people's sins or their relatives' sins, illness and faith are nonetheless tied together in today's Gospel.

Jarius came to Jesus because his daughter was sick and dying. He asked Jesus to heal her and Jesus, without pausing for a minute, goes with Jarius to heal his sick child. On the way there, the woman who was suffering from a hemorrhage comes up to Jesus, touches him and she is cured. We are told that she went to many doctors, and they could not find a cure. One might think that she would have given up all hope, but she does not, and she believes that Jesus can heal her. So strong is her faith that she believes that she does not even have to ask for a cure, just touch His cloak. She was right, for she was healed, and the second Jesus realizes it He turns around looking for the person who touched Him. However, when He spots her, she gives herself up. Jesus does not scold her but says to the woman that her faith has saved her. Jarius likewise has this faith in Jesus which is why he sought Jesus out.

Death does not come from God, and as we see in the rest of the Gospel account, death is not stronger than God, and we see this as Jesus brings the little girl back to life. Many times, when illness attacks, we sometimes give in to fear and anger. We may even believe that God has abandoned us or a loved one, but this is not true. Through the actions in today's Gospel, faith in Jesus grew on the part of Jarius and his family, the woman with the hemorrhage, the Apostles, and the gathered crowd. They most assuredly would remember that moment when Jesus' healing power was seen and they would share this story with everyone they met, and in turn their faith in Jesus would grow. We should do the same thing for we have it a little better than Jarius and the woman, for we too have Jesus and all He does for us, and we have the Holy Spirit to help us get past all fear and anger. The Holy Spirit also comforts and heals us in body and soul.

The Holy Spirit comes to us always, especially in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. An important part of this Sacrament is the forgiveness of sins, which is why it can only be celebrated by a bishop or a priest, and this is so we can get passed the fear and anger that sin brings with it. The anointing is done with olive oil which is blessed by the Bishop at the Chrism Mass celebrated during Holy Week, and the words used in the anointing are: Through this holy anointing may the Lord in His love and mercy help you and heal you through the power of the Holy Spirit (this is said while the person's forehead is anointed). May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up again (this is said while the person's hands are being anointed). This Sacrament was never intended to be a sacrament reserved only for the end of life, somehow that became the practice during the late Middle Ages, and it stayed that way right up to the Second Vatican Council. The Council Fathers restored the Sacrament to its proper place, and it once more took on the name of the Anointing of the Sick instead of Extreme Unction (meaning last anointing). This Sacrament is to be received by anyone suffering from serious illness, about to undergo surgery, or suffering from the effects of old age. It is not reserved solely for those who are about to die, and one can receive it more than once in a lifetime. In fact, one can receive it more than once during the occurrence of the same illness or condition. This Sacrament is not to be taken lightly and it is not to be used for something minor or short term, and in no way is it to replace the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

God bless you always and heal you!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 7, 2024

First Reading - Ezekiel 2:2-5

Psalms - 123:1-2, 2, 3-4

Second Reading - 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Gospel - Mark 6:1-6

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Mark's Gospel we will hear how Jesus went to His home town and began to teach in the synagogue. Those who heard Him questioned His authority, wisdom and ability to cure sick people. They heard His teaching, and may have witnessed some of His deeds, yet they did not believe in Him.

Consider your faith. Do you truly believe in Jesus, His wisdom and healing touch? If not, why?
