And Jesus said, "Follow me." But the man answered saying "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

Think back, if you will, to the last time we were in Ordinary Time, before we entered Lent, Easter, and the Solemnities we just celebrated over the past two weeks. Think back to the Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time (Feb 10), when we heard of the great call of the Prophet Isaiah, the Apostle Paul, the 12 Apostles, especially St. Peter. Think back to the readings when each one who was called, protested their call. Their protest was not one of, “I do not want to answer the call, but I am not worthy to answer the call”. Isaiah sees God’s celestial court and fears he is going to die, until a Seraph touches his lips with an ember from the heavenly altar of incense. St. Paul tells his story of conversion, when he was still known as Saul, as he was on his way to Damascus to arrest those who followed Jesus. On the way there, Saul encountered the Risen Lord who asks Saul, why is he persecuting Him. When Saul asks the person speaking to him, who he is, he gets an answer he did not expect. Of course the answer was, “I am Jesus, now go into the city...” Saul then recounts how because of his early persecution of the Church, he did not deserve to serve the Lord, but Jesus did not care. Then we saw the account of the great catch of fish, with the Apostles. It was so great a catch that Peter asks Jesus to depart from him, for he was a sinful man. Yet, Jesus tells Peter not to be afraid, for he will now be a fisher of people. Jesus does not allow anyone to use the excuse that they are not worthy, because in reality no one is worthy. Moreover, when the ones called finally said yes, their lives totally changed and at times (too many times) life was not pleasant. However, if you were to ask them, I am sure they would say it was well worth it.

Today’s readings also tell us of people called to carry out God’s mission. We see the Prophet Elijah calling Elisha to be the prophet to take the elder’s place. However, Elijah receives an answer that he did not like. An answer, which for most of us would make great sense, “Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye and I will follow you.” Elijah immediately tells the young man, “Go back!” “Have I done anything to you?” Because of these words, Elisha drops everything and follow Elijah, just as God planned it. In Luke’s Gospel, Jesus, who is on His way to Jerusalem, where He will be betrayed, suffer and die for us, is confronted by people who believe in Him, yet place obstacles in the way. One is discouraged because as Jesus tells him that, “the Son of man has nowhere to rest his head.” Another like Elisha wanted to say goodbye to his family, when he tells Jesus let me bury my father. Jesus gives the man an answer similar to Elijah’s to Elisha. He tells the man, “Let the dead bury the dead. But you go and proclaim the Kingdom of God.” The last case was similar when the third man tells Him, let me say goodbye to my family, Jesus tells him, “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the Kingdom of God.” Now keep in mind, that neither Elijah nor Jesus is being cruel or lacking in understanding. The man who wanted to follow Jesus probably wanted a position of respect and have a nice place to stay. That was not part of the mission at that time, nor is it very true in our time. As for the man who wanted to bury his father, there is one small problem. His father was not dead, and he wanted to postpone his becoming a disciple until his father died and there would be no opposition. The same is true of the man who wanted to say goodbye to his family. Jesus’ answer and Elijah’s answer is basically, when God calls, we must not put anything or anyone before the call. We must make no excuses or put creature comforts before our service to God and one another.

The readings from February 10, told us how those called felt unworthy of the call, but God dismissed this objection and they followed. Nevertheless, it is not the same for those today who put obstacles before the call, they do not truly want to answer the call, at least not at that time because it was not the right time. So how do we place obstacles aside in our lives, so we can always answer God’s call and do our part to build the Kingdom of God? St. Paul tells us in his Letter to the Galatians, “I say, then, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh.” The desires of the flesh do indeed include all of the objections that were placed before the Divine call today.

God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today’s Gospel we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent “messenger on ahead of Him.” To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others.

In the month of June, you were the “messenger of God” in bringing hope to the poor. Your gifts enabled the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to assist families, provide food, and provide assistance with utility and rent bills.

APARTMENT NEEDED: One of our clients needs a two bedroom apartment to rent that is close to his place of work (Syosset Hospital). It is for a father of three and one infant grandchild. They can pay less than $2,000 per month.

Thank you for your generosity!

We give generously so that we can show the world what God generosity looks like.

Pope Francis urges us to give, to reach out and to show God’s love.

Bishop Barron’s Word on Fire this week’s video is: Who is God, and why does he matter? Does God exist? Who or what is he? Can we prove his existence? Humans have been asking these questions for thousands of years. The Catholic Church teaches that God is incomprehensible. This means we’ll never fully understand God, or know everything about him, since he is a mystery beyond our comprehension. However, we can know some things about him with great clarity, such as the fact that he exists and his different attributes.

Last weekend St. Edward the Confessor Parish hosted a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island. It’s not too late, and you can still pick up a Baby Bottle in the Gathering Area of the Church.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that counsels women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- free pregnancy test kits
- free sonogram referrals
- maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- medical care referrals
- Material aid including car seats, cribs, cloths, diapers
  .....and many other needed baby items
- Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation. (Make checks out to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON SEPTEMBER 7th & 8th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle. The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother’s heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our preborn children.

Pope’s General Audience

During his General Audience this past Wednesday Pope Francis said that St Luke shows us the Church in Jerusalem “as the paradigm of every Christian community”. His reflection was based on a passage from the book of Acts: “And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers” (2:42). In the Acts of the Apostles, we see the early Christians listening to the apostolic preaching, practicing “a high quality of interpersonal relationships through communion of spiritual and material goods”, remembering the Lord in the celebration of the Eucharist, and dialoguing with God in prayer. Through the grace of Baptism, Christians were able to share what they had – not only the word of God, but also material goods – with their brothers and sisters in need. It is precisely because of “the way of communion” and concern for the needy that the Christian community “can live an authentic liturgical life,” the Pope explained. Finally, the Pope said, the story of the early Church reminds us “that the Lord guarantees the growth of the community.”
