Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Genesis 18:20-32

In those days, the LORD said: "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great, and their sin so grave, that I must go down and see whether or not their actions fully correspond to the cry against them that comes to me. I mean to find out."

While Abraham's visitors walked on farther toward Sodom, the LORD remained standing before Abraham. Then Abraham drew nearer and said: "Will you sweep away the innocent with the guilty? Suppose there were fifty innocent people in the city; would you wipe out the place, rather than spare it for the sake of the fifty innocent people within it? Far be it from you to do such a thing, to make the innocent die with the guilty so that the innocent and the guilty would be treated alike! Should not the judge of all the world act with justice?" The LORD replied, "If I find fifty innocent people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake." Abraham spoke up again: "See how I am presuming to speak to my Lord, though I am but dust and ashes! What if there are five less than fifty innocent people? Will you destroy the whole city because of those five?" He answered, "I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there." But Abraham persisted, saying "What if only forty are found there?" He replied, "I will forbear doing it for the sake of the forty." Then Abraham said, "Let not my Lord grow impatient if I go on. What if only thirty are found there?" He replied, "I will forbear doing it if I can find but thirty there." Still Abraham went on, "Since I have thus dared to speak to my Lord, what if there are no more than twenty?" The LORD answered, "I will not destroy it, for the sake of the twenty." But he still persisted: "Please, let not my Lord grow angry if I speak up this last time. What if there are at least ten there?" He replied, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it."

Responsorial Psalm – 138: 1-2, 2-3, 6-7, 7-8

R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple
and give thanks to your name.

R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Because of your kindness and your truth;
for you have made great above all things
your name and your promise.
When I called you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

The LORD is exalted, yet the lowly he sees,
and the proud he knows from afar.
Though I walk amid distress, you preserve me;
against the anger of my enemies you raise your hand.

R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Your right hand saves me.
The LORD will complete what he has done for me;
your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

R/ Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Reading 2 - Colossians 2:12-14

Brothers and sisters:

You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. And even when you were dead in transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he brought you to life along with him, having forgiven us all our transgressions; obliterating the bond against us, with its legal claims, which was opposed to us, he also removed it from our midst, nailing it to the cross.

Gospel - Luke 11:1-13

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Next Week's Gospel Question

Our Responsorial Psalm response for next week is "If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts." Are you open to God's word and make it part of your life?

Next Week's Readings

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 31, 2022

First Reading - Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

Psalms 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14, and 17

Second Reading - Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Gospel - Luke 12:13-21

From Fr. Mike's Desk

"Then Abraham drew near and said: 'Will you sweep away the innocent with the guilty?' ... 'Should not the judge of all the world act with justice?' ... Abraham spoke up again: 'See how I am presuming to speak to my Lord' ... still Abraham went on, 'Since I have thus dared to speak to my Lord' ... 'Please let not my Lord grow angry if I speak up this last time.' ...one of His disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray...He said to them, 'When you pray say: Father, hallowed be your name...'"

Abraham, the disciples, and Jesus are saying the same thing in this week's reading. Correction, they are doing the same thing, they are praying! Abraham in his persistence is praying to God asking Him to spare the innocent in Sodom and Gomorrah. Each time he asks God to spare the innocent, from 50 to 45, to 40, all the way down to ten, he is praying to God making his petitions and asking God to act with justice and mercy. Jesus tells those who are asking Him how to pray, what are the proper words to use which will fulfill all our needs and every type of prayer.

Why do we pray? Prayer is crucial to our relationship with God and with one another. As we see from Abraham's conversation with God; we should not be afraid to speak to God. In prayer, we get to know God and what God wants for us, and it helps us to truly know who we are, and what we are all about. Prayer can help us totally surrender ourselves to God and help us to free ourselves from the distractions of this world. Jesus' answer in the Gospel tells us that we should consider prayer as the most important activity of our life. Prayer gives us the insight and the ability to do everything that really matters. Still very few of us approach prayer in this manner, and there are times we purposely turn away from prayer.

This usually happens when we realize that we have not been the best person we can be. When we feel we cannot talk to God because of our short comings, or believe God will not listen to us, we might think, so why bother. So, what should we do when we find ourselves in these situations? Pray, Pray, and Pray again, that is the solution to these situations. When we have sinned or failed in life, these are the most important times to pray. We should not allow guilt or any other feelings to get in our way. These are times when we need to feel God's presence the most. Pray because God will forgive you. He already has, but we need to know and feel His forgiveness. Pray because God loves us and all He wants to do is free us from sin and heal us. Pray because God wants to raise you to a better life.

What should we do when we believe that God is not answering our prayers? Should we keep praying or just give up? Of course, the answer is keep praying. Keep praying because God does hear and answer our prayers, maybe not with the answer we want or expect, but God does answer every prayer. We realize this when we employ a very necessary element, time! Time allows us to see God's solution. This is true even when the unthinkable happens. How can I keep praying when prayer does not seem to be fruitful or give me that same peace of mind it offered before? This would appear to be a bad situation; however, it is not. It is not because this dryness indicates many times that our spiritual life is growing. These growing pains tell us that the prayer that used to work is no longer enough. The following will explain this predicament. When we were younger, we learned to ride a tricycle, and we did so with great joy until we moved on to a bicycle with training wheels. Then one day we no longer needed the training wheels, and we could ride the bike faster and totally by ourselves. We were content with the bike until we learned how to drive a car. As it happens in this example, so it does with our spiritual life. Therefore, we need to find what type and style of prayer will help us in our current station and circumstances in our life. We cannot discover new ways of prayer without praying about and asking God what direction we should go. We also need the guidance of a spiritual advisor. When we are indeed open to this, we will grow in our spiritual life and soon our prayer will be more fruitful. There are several types of prayer, and we will look at this next week.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Saint Joseph Prayer Group

Come pray the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy every Thursday night at 7:30 PM in the church. According to tradition, the Blessed Virgin Mary has related to us 15 promises to those who pray the Rosary devoutly. During our prayers this week we will keep in mind the tenth promise, which is:

The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.

Funeral Mass for Mrs. Anita Fischer

There will be a Funeral Mass at Saint Edward's Church on Saturday, July 30, 2022 at 9:45 a.m. for Mrs. Fischer. She was a founding faculty member and beloved 3rd grade teacher for 26 years at Saint Edward the Confessor School. All are welcome to attend.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

For 2022 the goal of St. Edward the Confessor Parish was to raise $112,100. As of July 19th our Parishioners have pledged nearly $98,000, putting us within 13% of our goal. Please consider making a pledge to help us achieve our goal. 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal., which would include Priests', Deacons' and lay leaders' education and formation, affordable and safe housing for seniors, veterans and adults with mental and physical disabilities, Respect Life Initiatives and religious education for hundreds of thousands of students.

You can make a pledge of any amount by visiting: www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org

St. Edward's Casino Night - Postponed

Due to many circumstances beyond our control, we have been forced to change the date of our Casino Night to: Thursday, October 13, 2022. Here is what you need to know:

Reservations: We will be holding all reservations that have been made to this point and will keep your space for the Casino Night on October 13, 2022. Should you want a refund, please call the rectory and we will generate a refund to you.

Grand Raffle Drawing: The drawing for the Grand Raffle Prize of $12,000 will still be held at the conclusion of Casino Night, on October 13, 2022. Your raffle number will be sent to you in the middle of August.

Once again, we are sorry for any inconvenience, but hope you understand. We greatly appreciate your participation in our events, as they help our parish very much. We hope you have a good summer and look forward to seeing you in October.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

“Faith and charity in action” is the best way to describe what we have been committed to since our inception more than 130 years ago. Whether it is a pastor, a bishop or the pope who needs our help, the Knights of Columbus responds. Pope John Paul II once referred to the order as the “strong right arm of the Church” for their support of the Church, as well as their charitable work. Come join with us, and become part of something special.

Who are the Knights?

We're a band of brothers, a network of men in communities around the world dedicated to growing the faith and doing good in the service of God and our neighbors.

“By working together we were able to donate more than $1.4 billion and 664 million volunteer hours to worthy causes in the past decade.”

What we believe:

- CHARITY is our first principle, we volunteer our time to serve our parish and our communities. We are the men who get things done.
- We are in Solidarity with our Bishop and priests.
- We support LIFE from conception to natural death.
- Our founder, Father McGivney's dream started with the idea that widows and orphans needed to be protected and supported.
- Aid victims of natural disasters and other catastrophic events, local and worldwide.

By joining the Knights of Columbus, you become part of the largest Catholic fraternity in the world. As you grow in faith, you are supported by a true brotherhood built on shared values, and on a common desire to be the man God has called you to be.

The Knights at St. Edwards offer you the opportunity to volunteer for worthwhile charitable causes. Devote as much time as you have, knowing that even if it's only 1 or 2 hours per month, your service will positively impact someone's life.

Come find out how you and your family will benefit when YOU join the Knights of Columbus.

help a child

When you sponsor through Unbound, you help a child and family achieve their God-given potential. You walk with them on their path to change.

encourage a youth

Getting an education can be especially hard for young people faced with poverty. Your support provides resources and encouragement. It says, "I believe in you."

befriend an elder

Elders often experience difficulties related to nutrition, health care and social isolation. Your support helps an elder with needs like food, health care, home visits and group activities.

sponsor today

We're all part of one human family created in God's image. As a sponsor with Unbound, you'll get the satisfaction of knowing you're living out your faith as part of a caring and inclusive global community. You'll also learn about your new friend from letters and photos, and you can write and send photos, too!

I want to sponsor:

UNBOUND

"Unbound has given me a way to put my faith in action. As an Unbound sponsor, I have had the opportunity to be part of a reliable community which gives hope and helps others to achieve their dreams."

— Lillian Acevedo, Unbound sponsor since 1986

WHO WE ARE

Unbound is an international development organization founded by lay Catholics and grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first. We build relationships of mutual respect that bridge cultural, economic and religious divides. We work side by side with people of diverse faith traditions in Latin America, Asia and Africa.

HOW WE WORK

We believe the surest path out of poverty is a self-directed one. Sponsored individuals and families use your support to work toward goals like education, dignified housing, better nutrition and developing livelihoods. Mothers lead the way in our programs through active participation in small groups. From accessing microloans to starting small businesses and forming their own credit cooperatives, mothers are creating paths to self-sufficiency for their families.

HIGHLY RATED STEWARDSHIP

Unbound receives top ratings from independent charity evaluators. This demonstrates the work we put into solid financial stewardship. Visit unbound.org/financials for details.

Sacristan Needed for Weekend Masses

St. Edwards is currently looking for an addition to our paid weekend sacristan ministry. Responsibilities include being available to cover the weekend Masses on a rotation basis. Individual must be at least 18 years of age. If you or someone you know might be interested please contact Deacon Tom Connolly at 516-921-8030, ext. 136

St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Bins

As we have in the past, we ask you again, when donating items to be put in the St. Vincent de Paul clothing bins please limit it to clothing. St. Vincent de Paul does not accept furniture, toys or any other items. Additionally, if the bins are full and cannot take additional clothing items do not leave clothing donations around the bins. We are required to throw out any items not placed in the bin. This becomes a big safety and health concern for our children and all of our parishioners. Your co-operation is greatly appreciated.
