A scholar of the law asked, “...who is my neighbor?”
Jesus answered with a parable then asked, “who do you think was the neighbor?”
The scholar answered “the one who treated them with kindness”.
Jesus said to him “go and do likewise”.

What if you were at a party, and found out that one of the invited guests was Jesus. What would you say to Him, what questions would you ask Him? This was the situation people found themselves in some 2000 years ago. When Jesus went to a person’s house, many people came to hear Him speak, and as we see in today’s Gospel people ask Him about many things. In today’s account, the questions revolve around how one could obtain eternal life. We also see that there is a question as to which is the greatest commandment. The answer that Jesus gives to both types of questions is similar. His answer is to love God with all your heart, being, strength, and mind, and to love your neighbor as yourself.

Jesus gives this answer to the lawyer in today’s Gospel as he asks these questions, and while for many Jesus’ answer would be enough, this is not the case for the lawyer. As Luke tells us, he wished to justify himself with the additional question, who is my neighbor? To this question, Our Lord gives a more involved answer; He gave him the Parable of the Good Samaritan! With this answer, Jesus clearly identifies who is the man’s neighbor and criticizes some of the Jewish practices of the time.

We must remember that for the lawyer, the scribe and the Pharisee, the definition of neighbor was restricted to mean a fellow Jew. The Son of God challenges this definition by His telling the story, and even gets the lawyer to admit that the one who is the true neighbor was the non-Jew (the Samaritan who the Jews detested, and who equally detested the Jews). The definition of neighbor is now extended to mean anyone in need, man or woman, gentile or Jew. Jesus’ definition also expands the idea to mean the one who responds to a person in need. Jesus in this story also give us a critical view of the Jewish practices in following their faith. The Priest and the Levite walk past their neighbor (a fellow Jew) because they are too closely following the Law. According to the Law, one could not touch a dead man (which they could have easily thought the man was) for they would be unclean for a period of seven days. For the Priest that would mean that he would not be able to serve in the Temple. The Temple Liturgy meant more to him than the suffering man in need. The Levite put his personal needs over the needs of his neighbor.

This parable call us to remember that everyone or nation who is in need is our neighbor, and our help must be as wide as the love of God. The help we offer must be practical and not consist of merely feeling sorry for those in need. I am sure that the Priest and the Levite felt some sorrow for the man; however, they still did nothing for the injured man. Jesus challenges us to act just as the Samaritan did.

God bless you always

Fr. Mike

Blood Drive and Special Breakfast

Last Sunday the Knights of Columbus hosted the parish’s summer blood drive and cooked up a special breakfast for the donors. The New York Blood Center collected 39 pints of blood, and in return donated 39 pounds of dry goods to the St. Edward’s pantry. The breakfast was also a great success, and 100% of the funds which were raised will go to support our Seminarians. Thanks to all the donors, and if you missed this wonderful event, watch the bulletin for the next Blood Drive which will be held later this year.

Don MacAvoy and John McElwee did most of the ’made to order’ cooking which included various types of omelettes, pancakes (with whipped cream and strawberries), toast, bacon, sausages, bagels, fresh fruit, juices, coffee and tea.

Surrounded by his fellow Knights, Fr. Mike enjoys a well earned breakfast after saying Mass.

These Knights set up the Holy Family Room for the Blood Drive, the Gym for the breakfast, cooked and served the food, then cleaned up when it was all over. In between these chores they attended all the Masses and accepted donations for the seminarians.

Here are Donna and Brian Zaino checking in to donate blood. We need more donors like them!

Celebrating 125 Years of Mercy in Syosset!

In 1893, the Sisters of Mercy purchased 120 acres of farmland in Syosset to offer some good fresh country air to the poor ailing children that they cared for in Mercy Home in Brooklyn. These children were left homeless and parentless in the aftermath of the Civil War. The new building on Convent Road was speedily completed and on July 25, 1894, the first Mass was celebrated in the chapel and plans were made to bring the children from the Mercy Home to their new country residence which would be known as St. Mary of the Angels. By Winter of that same year, there were 175 little boys sleeping in the dormitories and regularly attending classes taught by the Sisters. There were 5 Sisters assigned to the care of the children.

On July 4, 1899, the Angel Guardian Home was founded in Brooklyn to serve the needs of 90 orphaned little girls ranging in age from 3 to 5 years old. Six Sisters were on the original staff to care for the little ones. In 1900, Angel Guardian Home began providing postnatal shelter to homeless mothers and their babies and 1903 saw the beginning of its foster care program. In 1947 Angel Guardian began its adoption department.

One of the things that Catherine McAuley, the foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, was known for was tending to the needs of the time. From the very beginning of the founding of the Mercy ministries in the Brooklyn/Long Island area, the needs of the time were always being met. Over the years the populations at St. Mary's and Angel Guardian grew due to events like the great Depression and World War II. There were, and continue to be, changes in the child care system in response to current needs. In 2003, those needs were met by merging St. Mary of the Angels with Angel Guardian Home, and this merged agency was called Mercy First.

Mercy First continues in the spirit of Catherine McAuley's legacy to meet the needs of our times by inspiring hope and promoting healing for children and families in need through preventative services programs, foster care and adoption services, scholarship fund programs, residential programs mother baby programs. Most recently, the agency began safe shelter and care in our Start with Hope program for unaccompanied minors fleeing Central and South America and services to children and teens with serious medical and mental health needs.

This will be a year of celebrating 125 years of Mercy-filled services. We rejoice! We celebrate! We invite you to celebrate with us!
During the weekend of June 22nd and 23rd St. Edward the Confessor Parish hosted a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island. It’s not too late, and you can still pick up a Baby Bottle in the Gathering Area of the Church.

On the weekend of June 22nd & 23rd, St. Edward the Confessor Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that counsels women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- free pregnancy test kits
- free sonogram referrals
- maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- medical care referrals
- Material aid including car seats, cribs, clothes, diapers
  .....and many other needed baby items
- Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.
(Make checks out to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON

September 7th & 8th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle. The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother’s heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our preborn children.
