The Readings for The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear.
Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat."
But his servant objected,
"How can I set this before a hundred people?"
Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat."
"For thus says the LORD,
"They shall eat and there shall be some left over."
And when they had eaten, there was some left over,
as the LORD had said.

Responsorial Psalm – 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

Reading 2 – Ephesians 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Gospel – John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee.
A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near.
When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip,
"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline."
Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

July 26 - The Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, had good, faithful parents who raised her with a love and devotion to God like none other except Jesus Christ Himself. Joachim and Anne serve as role models for parents and both deserve to be honored and emulated for their devotion to God and Our Lady Mary, the Mother of God.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

During this year from the First Sunday of Advent to the Feast of Christ the King, we have been in Lectionary Cycle B, which features the Gospel According to St. Mark. If you have noticed, Mark's Gospel is the shortest and it presents the Liturgists with the problem of how do we spread it out to cover the complete Liturgical year? When the Council Fathers, of the Second Vatican Council, compiled the Lectionary, they were not completely sure how to answer this question. They also were questioning how the Liturgy would handle the reading of John's Gospel. They debated as to whether or not to give John his own cycle year, but how would that solve the problem with the shortness of Mark's Gospel. They decided not to give John his own year, but to insert the Fourth Gospel every year during the Easter Season and to have it read during the summer months of Mark's Cycle. In this way, we proclaim all four gospels at Sunday Mass. This Sunday, we begin hearing from John with the account of the Bread of Life Discourse, following the Miracle of the Loaves and Fish.

We have heard the account of this miracle several times, but on this 17th Sunday of Ordinary Time, a reading from the Second Book of Kings precedes the Gospel. That reading tells us how the Prophet Elisha fed 100 people with only 20 loaves. Like Jesus, Elisha has to feed a great number of people with what surely was not enough. Yet, the Prophet's belief and trust in God allows him to accomplish such a great feat. Not only was there enough food, there was also leftovers. Jesus of course feeds over 5000 with far less, only five loaves and two fish. This shows a far greater power is at work, and this is true, for someone far greater is carrying out the miracle. Furthermore, Jesus performs this miracle under His own power (unlike saints and prophets who must invoke the power of God through intercessions). The Gospel tells us, that after Jesus fed the great crowd the people wanted to make Him king. Why, because Jesus reminded them of the tradition that the Messiah would feed the people like Moses did during the Exodus. Thus, they declared Him king, and with that, our Lord ran away! Jesus does not accept their crown for that would be allowing humans to decide the Messiah's mission. They wanted Jesus to be a king of a political nature, wanted Him to be a rival to Rome, and even defeat Rome. After all, He is the Messiah, He has the power of miracles, and He can use it to stop Rome! However, Jesus had no intention of setting up a political kingdom; all He wanted was to establish the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom whose only concern is the forgiveness of sins and eternal life. We see this, if we look at the miracle, and all Jesus did through spiritual eyes.

As I am sure, you have heard many times, this miracle represents the Eucharist in John's Gospel, and it prefigures how Jesus will feed us constantly with His Body and Blood. The crowd was huge and very diverse, with people from every lifestyle, and Christ called them all to Himself. Christ calls the very same people, all of us, every day and again He feeds us with His Body and Blood. This reminds us of the other Spiritual meaning behind this miracle. Remember, that in Jesus' time (and even today) when one shared a meal with a person or a group this meant you shared life with that person. Likewise, they shared in your life that is why the leadership got upset when Jesus ate with sinners and tax collectors. When Jesus invites us to share in this Sacred Meal, He is inviting us to share His life, He is sharing with us the forgiveness of sins, the love of The Father, the Grace of the Holy Spirit, and gift of Eternal Life. Jesus because of His great love and generosity gives us the ability to extend the invitation to others. He urges us, to invite them to the Feast of Heaven and Earth, to come to the Table of Plenty where God will provide for all of our needs.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. Amen.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola

Saint Ignatius of Loyola, was a Spanish Basque Catholic priest and theologian, who together with Peter Faber and Francis Xavier founded the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and became its first Superior General in 1541. The Jesuit order is dedicated to teaching and missionary work. Its members are bound by a special vow of obedience to the sovereign pontiff to be ready to fulfill special papal missions.

Ignatius was noted as an inspired spiritual director. He recorded his method in a celebrated treatise called the Spiritual Exercises, and set out a simple method on how to reflect on your relationship with God, and how to pray.

1. Place yourself in God’s presence. Give thanks for God’s great love for you.
2. Pray for the grace to understand how God is acting in your life.
3. Review your day — recall specific moments and your feelings at the time.
4. Reflect on what you did, said, or thought in those instances. Were you drawing closer to God, or further away?
5. Look toward tomorrow — think of how you might collaborate more effectively with God’s plan. Be specific, and conclude with the “Our Father.”

Many quotes have been attributed to Saint Ignatius, but the one which most often comes to mind is -

“Teach us to give and not to count the cost.”

Ignatius of Loyola

Born: 23 Oct. 1491 - Died: 31 Jul. 1556

Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622
