Jesus answered them, saying, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough."

Protect Our Children Hotline

If you or someone you know has experienced an incident of sexual abuse by clergy, an employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, please contact law enforcement and the diocesan’s Office for the Protection of Children and Young People. The diocese maintains a special phone number for these situations:

516-594-9063
“And this the will of the one who sent me that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.” In this quote from John’s Gospel, Jesus is telling the whole world that God the Father sent the Son so that all can be saved. Christ calls all to salvation and eternal life in the Kingdom. However, in today’s gospel that question is asked and its’ answer contradicts the above quote. As we read in Luke’s Gospel, “Lord will only a few people be saved?” In addition, He answered, “Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many I tell you will attempt to enter, but will not be strong enough.” Now we may ask which account is correct. Well knowing that both come from the New Testament, and are inspired by the Holy Spirit, we can conclude that they are both correct!

Certainly, God the Father wants all of His children saved, yes, He did send Jesus: and the Holy Spirit was sent upon the Church for our salvation. However, we must also remember that God gave us Free Will, and while this is a great gift, it can be our greatest liability. Just ask Adam and Eve. Free Will gives us the ability to place our will before God’s and when we do, this sin occurs. This is what Jesus means when He says that some will not be strong enough to enter. They will not be strong enough because they keep placing their will before God’s. As we have seen through most of this summer, the readings keep telling us that to enter Heaven we need more than just a lukewarm faith. Heaven requires us to have more than a knowledge of Jesus. It requires us to know Jesus truly, to have true conversions, and to have a strong desire to be one with Him and with one another as members of His Living Body, the Church.

Those who do not work for this will hear from Jesus, “I do not know where you are from.” Yet, before we lose all hope, realize that these words are for those who do not try to repent, and for those who do not seek any type of relationship with Him because they feel they do not need it. Remember the above quote, Jesus came to save all who do acknowledge Him and try to live as He has told us. That is why Jesus also says, “...people will come from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.” Thus, many will come and they will be saved, provided they are strong enough and allow their faith to change and shape their lives. This requires us to look at our whole life and examine our conscience to see how well we are living according to Jesus’ teachings, and how well we try to put God’s will before ours. After we examine our lives, hopefully we will be hearing, “come and recline at my Father’s table”. Keep in mind that we may not always succeed in surrendering our wills to God’s will, but God does appreciate the fact that we are entering into the struggle to try to do what is right.

Some points of Reference to Examine One’s Conscience is to see how well you have followed the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes of Jesus, how well you practice the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy, and how well have you followed the Precepts of the Church. These can all be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church or look it up on line in the Baltimore Catechism.

God bless you always and enjoy the rest of the summer, which is ending soon, sorry Kids

Fr. Mike

From Death to New Life

Modesto DiRaimo
A Message of Importance from Bishop Barron

Week Three: With this abuse crisis, why should we stay in the Church?

As we continue our parish book discussion of Letter to a Suffering Church by Bishop Robert Barron, we focus on a burning question lots of Catholics are asking: Why should we stay in the Church? A recent Gallup poll revealed that 37% of Catholics are considering leaving the Church due to the sexual abuse crisis. Maybe you’re in that group.

So why should we stay? As Bishop Barron says, we stay because no matter how difficult things become, no matter how much wickedness and sin creeps into the Church, the treasure of the Church remains—not financial treasure, mind you, but the treasure of life in Christ, especially through the Eucharist.

Watch the short video on flocknote which will be sent to you 8/26 to understand this great treasure. Join the discussion to answer the following questions:

⇒ What does St. Paul mean when he says, “We hold this treasure in earthen vessels”? What is the treasure? What is the vessel?
⇒ Do we still receive grace from the sacraments if they are mediated by sinful clergy?
⇒ What is the single most important reason for staying faithful to the Church?

Summer Events!
Thursday August 29th - WTC Observatory Trip – See Flocknote for more details!

This summer I had the wonderful opportunity to go to Boston. On this trip I encountered God many times especially at my worksite.

We helped this kind elderly woman with her front and back yard. Although the work was tough, it was worth it since I knew it was what God was calling me to do.

This mission trip took my out of my comfort zone and I'm very glad it did. CHWC was a great experience and I hope others can experience it too.
