Reading 1 - Amos 8:4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! "When will the new moon be over," you ask, "that we may sell our grain, and the sabbath, that we may display the wheat? We will diminish the ephah, add to the shekel, and fix our scales for cheating! We will buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!" The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done!

Responsorial Psalm – 113:1-2, 4-6, 7-8

R/ Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Praise, you servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD.
Blessed be the name of the LORD
both now and forever.

R/ Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

High above all nations is the LORD;
above the heavens is his glory.
Who is like the LORD, our God, who is enthroned on high and looks upon the heavens and the earth below?

R/ Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

He raises up the lowly from the dust;
from the dunghill he lifts up the poor
to seat them with princes,
with the princes of his own people.

R/ Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Reading 2 — 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Beloved:

First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all. This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle — I am speaking the truth, I am not lying —, teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.

Gospel — Luke 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Next Week's Gospel Question

The Gospel speaks about how we treat those in need. Do we do enough for those in need of our treasure... our time and our love?

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 25, 2022

First Reading - Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Psalms 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

Second Reading - 1 Timothy 6:11-16

Gospel - Luke 16:19-31

From Fr. Mike's Desk

St. Paul writes in his First Letter to Timothy how we should seek out peace and harmony. As he writes, “...I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgiving be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.”

St. Paul is telling us how we are to live in this very rapidly changing world. As it is now, so it was two thousand years ago. Yes, there are different problems, and we have different lifestyles, but as the expression goes, the more things change, the more they remain the same. Just as we have now, there is war and destruction, great moral conflicts, dishonesty, and so many people are not sure what to do. Paul knows that the only answer to all doubts, questions, and anxieties is Jesus. That is why the Church for all these years, has always prayed for peace in the world. We have always prayed for all political and state leaders so they can keep the peace and look out for all citizens. Why does St. Paul tell us to do this? His answer is, “For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men...Jesus Christ.” Only if we pray and invoke Jesus’ name can this world become a better place. Only if we pray can we replace dishonesty with honesty, turmoil with calm, and hatred with love.

But, we may say, I do pray. We as a Church pray, and yet we see the world engulfed with so many problems and issues, why? Well as Paul tells us and as Our Lord tells us, our prayers do work, they are answered and God loves us even more for engaging in prayer and seeking His help, but more must be done. As we turn to today’s Gospel, we are given another instruction to follow. In the story of the Unjust Steward, we learn that he is about to be let go because he was squandering his master’s property. He was taking more for himself than he deserved. He is about to be fired, so he formed a solution. He simply offered to accept less than what was due to his master. This, of course, would win the steward their favor, especially when he went out looking for a new job. The steward’s master knew what he was doing but did not try to stop him. In fact, he commended the steward for acting prudently. Jesus tells us, “For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation.”

Yes, the steward knew what he was doing, and yes, he succeeded. So why would Jesus hold him up as a person to follow? Jesus is not supporting his dishonesty; however, He is supporting how the steward dealt with the situation. As Christ’s followers, living in this crazy world, we are told to act wisely with the things of this world, so we can convert them and ourselves into the next world. We must always strive to be wise in our reacting with the world. We must not allow the world to control us or cause us to have undue worry. If we truly ruled the world instead of it ruling us, then our prayers recommended to us by St. Paul, will be answered. We end with St. Paul’s wish from today’s letter. “It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.”

May God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Pandemic Fundraiser

My Dear Parish Family,

If you recall, for the past two years we have successfully held our Virtual Fundraisers, as we have not been able to have the Parish Bar-B-Q, the Sister Jackie Run or even the Annual Festival. While we are hosting a Casino Night, we will still be significantly behind in our fundraising efforts. These fundraisers go a long way in helping us keep St. Edward's working and providing for all of our ministries.

Last year, your generosity allowed us to realize over $55,000. Who would have guessed? Well, I did, because I know how much we all love St. Edward's, and we all want what is best for our beautiful parish. This year we are trying to top 2021, so we are setting a goal of raising $60,000. I know that may seem like a great deal of money, but I know we can do it.

While this has been a difficult time for all of us, I would like to thank you for your continued generosity and support to St. Edward's. As I am sure you have noticed in the weekly bulletin, our collections remain low, but our expenses have increased and, in some instances, are considerably higher. So, we must seek your help. Believe me, I wish I did not have to ask you at this time, but circumstances require me to do so.

Please know that all the money raised will go to the continued support of the parish in every way, especially for our programs that help so many of our neighbors. Please fill out the participation form below and return it to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket at Mass. Let us pray again that 2023 will allow us to have the real fun and fundraisers safely.

God bless you, stay safe and enjoy the summer.
