From Fr. Mike's Desk

A steward is defined as one who takes care of the property or business matters of another. That is exactly the person's job in today's Gospel, only he is not very good at his job. We are told by Our Lord that this person was about to be fired for squandering his master's property. As we are all familiar with this story (as we hear it every three years), we know that this unjust or dishonest steward will not dig ditches and that he is too proud to beg, so he finds a way to survive after he is let go. He cuts his commission to those who owe his master goods and services, so he will gain their favor and provide for his future employment.

His master, we are told, commended his dishonest steward for acting in such a way that will provide for his needs. Jesus tells this story in order to make several points that we, His Church, must consider. We are to follow the example of the dishonest steward. Now Jesus is not telling us to become dishonest people, but He is telling us to use the things of this world to benefit and spread the Gospel. We should use every opportunity, media tool, and whatever resources that are available to help convert those who only live their lives focused on this world. Yes, we are to use the things of this world to survive in it, but we must be careful not to let them control us. For if we get so caught in the things of this world, and start working for them, instead of merely using them, they become our masters and our total focus.

As Jesus warns us, "...No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." This is one of life's greatest challenges. For it is indeed arduous to keep the balance between our spiritual life and the needs we have to meet in our physical life. We cannot do it on our own; we need the help of God to make sure that we focus on serving the right master. We accomplish this through prayer, receiving the Sacraments, reading and praying with Scripture, practicing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy, and following the Precepts of the Church. All of these help us to strengthen us and keep us on the right track.

During this time of the year, we start our Religious Education Classes; last week we blessed the Catechist (on Catechetical Sunday) and they are ready to go. Please keep our catechists, our students and their families in your prayers that they may be open to learning about their faith, that they may learn about their relationship with Jesus and how that is so much more important than the things of the world. Help them to learn at an early age how to balance life in this world with their focus on the life that is to come.

Please keep in your prayers our young people who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Yesterday they were on retreat to prepare themselves. Please keep them, their sponsors and their families in your prayers so they can truly become good adult members of the Church.

We conclude with this prayer for the Universal Church: God our Father, by the promise you made in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ, your Son, you bring together in your Spirit, from all the nations, a people to be your own. Keep the Church faithful to its mission: may it be a leaven in the world renewing us in Christ, and transforming us into your family. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives, and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

Best Catholic School on Long Island

Good afternoon,

For the fifth consecutive year St. Edward the Confessor School has been nominated for Long Island Press Best Catholic School on Long Island. We were blessed to win the award in 2018 and look forward to bringing home this great honor once again. In addition, I have been nominated as Best Principal on Long Island for the fifth year, after winning in both 2017 and 2018 it would be great to bring this honor back to St. Edwards as well. Voting begins on October 1st and occurs daily. It is imperative that everyone vote every day to help us win! The voting period starts October 1 and runs through December 15, 2019. During this time, votes are accepted one vote per category per day per person at:

For Seniors Who Are Looking For A New Place To Live

Are you a Senior who is thinking, "now my house is too big, it is too lonely, too much to manage. Does it mean it's time to move and leave Syosset?"

It could mean moving, but it does not mean you have to leave Syosset - All you have to do is change your address to:

235 Cold Spring Road, Syosset: Harvest House!

Over thirty-four years ago, right in the heart of Syosset, the Sisters of St. Dominic, Amityville, NY opened HARVEST HOUSE, RESIDENCE FOR INDEPENDENT SENIORS. It is the only one of its kind on Long Island.

Harvest House is not a big elaborate building, but rather a 'homey home' as you have always lived. It is not institutional, but small with seven other seniors and a live-in Director who takes care of everything, including meals, shopping, etc. Best of all it is affordable! We want you to see this beautiful home and answer any questions you might have about what it is like to live in Harvest House.

So COME and SEE. You will love the possibilities it holds for you. We invite you to join us at an informational Continental Brunch to be held on Tuesday, September 24, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.

HARVEST HOUSE
235 Cold Spring Rd., Syosset, NY

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

As you place your gift in the Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

APARTMENT NEEDED: One of our clients needs an apartment to rent that is in Syosset. It is for a father and two children. They can pay $2,000 a month. If you can help us, help this neighbor in need, please call our office at (516) 218-7837. Thank you!

Please consider joining us in the Walk/Run for the Poor on Saturday, September 28. If you are not able to walk or run, please consider making a donation to sponsor our conference. See the bulletin for more information.

If you know of someone who might benefit from a home visit, please call (516) 218-7837. If you would like to volunteer, please join us at our next meeting on Tuesday, October 1, 2019 at 7:00 pm in the meeting room on the third floor of the school.
