The Readings for the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Genesis 2:18-24

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said:

"This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called 'woman,'
for out of 'her man' this one has been taken."

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

Responsorial Psalm – 128:8, 10, 12-13, 14

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Blessed are you who fear the LORD,
who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants
around your table.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

May you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel!

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Hebrews 2:9-11

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels," that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

Gospel – Mark 10:2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 10, 2021

First Reading - Wisdom 7:7-11

Psalms - 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

Second Reading - Hebrews 4:12-13

Gospel - Mark 10:17-30

From Fr. Mike's Desk

The Pharisees in today's gospel presented Jesus with a very tough question, and like many questions they placed before Him, they were hoping to trip Him up. They ask Jesus about marriage and divorce, and they were positive that His answer would place Him in a great deal of trouble. Depending on His answer, they could say that He was a very strict and rigid teacher, or they could paint Him as being a real liberal who has no respect for the Law of Moses. Even though they agreed that Moses permitted a husband to write a Bill of Divorce against his wife and totally dismiss her, they knew that this was controversial. However, Jesus does not fall into their trap. He takes neither a rigid point nor liberal. Rather, He refers them back to the very beginning of everything. Jesus quotes Genesis and God's original plan from men and women.

Jesus reminds the people, and us, that marriage is more than a mere social or legal relationship. It reflects God's true love for us. Jesus tells us that marriage joins a husband and wife in a union, which makes them now one body, a new creation that did not exist before the union was formed. Human beings should not sever this marital union instituted and blessed by God, for the couple have become one heart beating in two bodies, and one soul giving life to two persons.

We know how hard it is, sometimes, for a couple to maintain this in a marriage, and we are painfully aware that 50% of all marriages in America fall apart. Why is this? Possibly, it is because only one person in the marriage is living the marriage commitment: for marriage is not 50-50, as so many think. No, marriage is a 100-100 commitment and partnership and if only one partner is living this way, the marriage will fail. Sometimes a marriage falls apart because a lack of communication on the part of the spouses, or if one partner has a different idea of what marriage should be. Sometimes the problem can be interfering family members or friends, who place a husband or a wife in the position of choosing between them or the person's spouse. Those who do this, no matter what their relationship is to the husband or wife, are committing a sin of the most serious nature. A sin because they are interfering with God's will for the couple He joined. Sometimes, things do not work out, because the spouses do not fully understand what marriage is about or, perhaps, they were too immature to enter the union or just got married because of society's pressures.

Therefore, we should try to avoid getting into any of these situations, those of you who are not married, but are thinking about it. It would be better not to enter this most holy union lightly or without profound realization, that many lives will be touched and changed because of forming this union. This union is not based in mere feelings or infatuation, for marriage is a sacrament, which means it is a direct encounter with Christ. Therefore, it carries with it, His love for the couple and the grace of the Holy Spirit to increase faith, and help the couple live out the union. If open to His love and this grace, couples can survive anything.

Please pray for all of those who are in this wonderful union of heart, soul, mind, and body. Pray that they will grow stronger in their love for each other and in turn their love for God. Please pray for those entering this fantastic union that they will be ready to undertake this change in their lives. May they never enter marriage without a sincere purpose or understanding of what it is that they are promising to each other and God. Likewise, we pray for those who tried very hard to make their marriage work but because of life's situations could not do so. Pray that God may heal the wounds and pains caused by the breakup and help them move on to make a new life.

We close with the following prayer:

Father, You made the bond of marriage a holy mystery, a symbol of Christ's love for His Church. Hear our prayers for each married couple. With faith in You and in each other, they pledge their love. May their lives always bear witness to the reality of that love. Amen.

Please keep in your prayers our young people who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation during this month. Pray for them that they may be open to receiving all the gifts of the Holy Spirit and move on to become adult members of the Church.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

St. Francis - Love of All Creation

St. Francis of Assisi, patron saint of animals and environment could be viewed as the original Earth Day advocate. Francis' devotion to God was expressed through his love for all of God's creation. St. Francis cared for the poor and sick, he preached sermons to animals and praised all creatures as brothers and sisters under God.

Francis' deep love of God overflowed into love for all God's creatures—expressed not only in his tender care of lepers and his (unsuccessful) attempt to negotiate peace between Muslims and Christians during the fifth Crusade, but also in his prayers of thanksgiving for creation, his sermons preached to animals and his insistence that all creatures are brothers and sisters under God.

Pope Francis has stated, “It is my hope that the inspiration of St. Francis will help us to keep ever alive a sense of ‘fraternity’ with all those good and beautiful things which Almighty God has created. And may he remind us of our serious obligation to respect and watch over them with care, in light of that greater and higher fraternity that exists within the human family.”

Prayer of St. Francis

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.*

*O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

*O*n the weekend of October 2nd & 3rd, St. Edward the Confessor Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- o free pregnancy test kits
- o free sonogram
- o maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- o medical care referrals
- o Material aid including car seats, cribs, cloths, diapers .....and many other needed baby items
- o Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.
(Make checks out to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON November 13th & 14th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle. The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother's heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our preborn children.
