Twenty-eight Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - 2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.

Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant."

Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

Responsorial Psalm – 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

R/ The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
his right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

R/ The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

R/ The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands:
break into song; sing praise.

R/ The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Reading 2 — 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory.

This saying is trustworthy:
If we have died with him
we shall also live with him;
if we persevere
we shall also reign with him.
But if we deny him
he will deny us.
If we are unfaithful
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.

Gospel — Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Next Week's Gospel Question

In next week's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that it is necessary to "pray always without becoming weary", and in doing so, God will answer their prayers, and will do it speedily. For our prayers to be answered, do we pray constantly without losing hope? Do we have the faith which is required to trust in God and His mercy?

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 16, 2022

First Reading - Exodus 17:8-13

Psalms 121:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

Gospel - Luke 18:1-8

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today's Gospel gives us the account of the Ten Lepers, who came to Jesus to be cured. They stood some distance away (about 50 yds) and yelled, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" Jesus answered them with, "Go show yourselves to the priests." We are told that as they went on their way they were cured, and their skin returned to normal. One of them realizing that he was cured, returned to Jesus to give thanks. He was a Samaritan, and Jesus replied, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?"

Jesus is disappointed by the response (or lack of one) on the part of the nine, and He seems even a little amazed that the one who returned was a foreigner. Why is it that the nine never returned to give thanks? Were they truly ungrateful, were they so caught up with their own lives that they did not care? As I mentioned in past years, with this passage, Jesus' cure, along with the blessing by the priests, would allow the nine to return to their normal lives. Perhaps they were so caught up with this prospect that all they could do was rush home to reunite with their families and their friends. Who could blame them? Yet there is a lesson to be learned here. Now Jesus is not so petty that He needs a thank you, but Jesus is upset that they received this great gift from God and seem to take it for granted!

This passage is the same one we use for Thanksgiving Day. The day which we as a nation thank God for all the blessings bestowed upon us. This is the day we remember how God is with us in good times and when we are facing troubles. Jesus is telling us not to be like the nine, we must never take God for granted, nor should we do so, with the people in our lives. We must strive to be grateful for the blessings both great and small we receive from God and others. Yes, we all have days when we receive nothing but curses instead of blessings. However, even in these times God has blessed us. Why, because on these days He has not abandoned us, but has supported us.

Jesus gives us His very self every day in the celebration of the Eucharist. Eucharist, the very word means to give thanks. So, we are always thanking Jesus for giving us His body and blood, soul, and divinity in the Blessed Sacrament. This allows us to become more like Christ and grow closer to Him, and to each other. Maybe the nine gave thanks later, maybe they even sought out Jesus later in the day. We will never know for sure, but the Samaritan acted rightly, because he sought out Jesus and recognized the power of God in Jesus and he was humbled.

Can we do the same? Will we do the same, or just say that is what God is supposed to do? Think about your answer, and how and why you have thanked God in your life. Think of it as being a warmup for Thanksgiving Day.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Thank God each and every day for what you have received.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

“For where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am with them”.

In honor of the 105th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima, we will say a Public Rosary
on the front lawn of the church
on Jackson Avenue
Saturday, October 15th at noon.

We hope to have a large attendance, so join us and spread the word to your friends & family.

Chairs will be provided.

Come and pray the Rosary
and Chaplet of Divine Mercy with the Saint Joseph Prayer Group every Thursday night at 7:30 PM in the church. There are no commitments, and all are welcome to attend. Come and pray for healing in the world, and your own special intentions. Praying for His assistance and guidance is a calming and reassuring way to end your day. As is stated in Matthew 18:20, Jesus is promising His presence among us, and with us, when we gather to pray.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel we hear that only one of those healed returned to glorify God and to give thanks to God. It is true, that when we have a grateful heart we know that everything is a gift from God.

We read and hear about numerous problems in the news, and in these challenging times St. Vincent DePaul has helped with rent assistance, tuition assistance, home repair, utilities payments, car insurance, help with property tax exemptions, and help navigating Social Services including Child Welfare - all adding up to 135 calls and home visits supporting dozens of Neighbors in Need. Our organization is proud to say we are doing something to help make a difference in the lives of people in our parish.

To be ready for the challenges going into 2023, we need your help. There will be a second collection on the weekend of October 15th and 16th. Look for an envelope in the packet you receive by mail; envelopes are also in the pews. Please place your envelope in the collection basket or return it to the rectory. Together, we will continue the Mission we pray for at every St. Vincent de Paul meeting: ‘...to seek and find the forgotten, the suffering and the deprived so that we may bring them God's love.’

Substitute Teachers Needed

With an expected increase in COVID cases, St. Edward the Confessor School, like schools across Long Island, is facing a substitute teacher shortage. If you, or anyone you know, might be interested in subbing and are a certified teacher, or are interested in being trained to sub in one of our classrooms or as a teacher's assistant, please contact Ms. Moran in the School Office as soon as possible:

Email: tmoran@stedwardconfessor.org

Tel: 516-921-7767

All subs, like volunteers, must be VIRTUS trained.

Calling Young Catholic Men to a Leadership Program

The Columbian Squires, the official youth organization of the Knights of Columbus, is a leadership development program for young Catholic men, 10-18 years old. There are over 25,000 Catholic young men in over 1,500 local units, called Circles, throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Bahamas and Guam.

- ◆ The Squires is designed to develop young men as leaders who understand their Catholic religion, who have a strong commitment to the Church and who are ready, willing and capable of patterning their lives after Christ.
- ◆ A Squires circle is run by and for young men, under the guidance of several Knights, who serve as counselors. Squires are to be leaders, thus, to the degree they are able, they are given the opportunity to lead, by running their own meetings, setting their circle's agenda and implementing their program of activities.
- ◆ Squires have fun. They meet new friends; they travel, play sports and socialize. Squires are serious-minded, too. Squires are involved in promoting vocations, marching in defense of unborn life, feeding the hungry, clothing the poor, supporting Special Olympics and promoting Catholic education, among countless other activities.

The KofC Council at St. Edwards, in conjunction with the KofC Council at St. Paul's in Brookville, are looking for young Catholic men who desire to become leaders to join the Eugene J. Reilly Squires Circle #5612.

For additional information and details on joining, please contact either:

St. Edward's Religious Education Program

Registration Info for Religious Education Classes for the 2022-2023 School Year

St. Edward's Religious Education is an 8 year religious studies program. Public School Students are required to begin their religious studies in grade 1 and finish in grade 8.

Preparation for First Holy Communion takes place in grades 1 and 2. Students will receive their First Confession in March of grade 2 and then their First Communion in May of that year. Children in Grades 3 through 6 are required to attend classes for further study in their religious formation. Formal preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation occurs in grades 7 and 8. Students then receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Fall of grade 9.

In person Religious Education Classes begin the week of September 25th.

Families whose children attended Religious Education Classes last year

The re-registration emails were sent out again on August 15th. If you have not yet registered and/or cannot recover this registration email, kindly contact Mrs. Braun by emailing at abraun@st-edwards.org or by calling 516-921-8543.

Families who are new to the Program may register online by going to the Religious Education Website: saintedwardre.com.

Select the link: On-Line Registration for NEW Families. And kindly follow the prompts.

All new families will later be contacted by a member of the office staff so that any concerns or need for further information may be addressed.

For further info regarding registration, please contact Mrs. Braun at abraun@st-edwards.org or call 516-921-8543.

October is the month dedicated to praying the Rosary.

All are welcomed!
Parish Rosary Celebration

Monday, Oct. 17th
6:30 pm in the Church

Fr. Mike will be leading us in prayer.

We especially invite the children in the Parish School as well as the children attending the Religious Education Program, in particular, the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd graders to join with us and help lead a decade of the Rosary. Both the young and “not so young” are welcome to gather as we rededicate ourselves and our families to Our Lady by praying this most beloved prayer.

Parish Pasta Supper to follow in school. For more info, please call Mrs. Pettei at 921-8543.

Parish Pasta Supper

will follow the 6:30pm Rosary in the School Cafeteria.

All are welcome to come “mangia” with us!

Baked Ziti, Penne Ala Vodka, Baked Macaroni and Cheese, Pasta with Broccoli, Macaroni with Meat Sauce, Buttered Spaghetti along with bread, dessert and cold beverages.

So, come pray with us! And then take a break from cooking on Monday night because dinner is on us!

Admission is free. However, good will offerings will be accepted

RCIA - Right of Christian Initiation for Adults

Do you know someone who is looking to become a Catholic?

Do you know a baptized adult Catholic who has never been catechized—that is, never participated in the Church or received First Holy Communion?

Do you know someone who was never confirmed—baptized and made First Holy Communion, but never continued learning about their faith?

Do you know someone who is aching to belong to a loving church community?

Is this person you?

Perhaps they belong in the St. Edward's RCIA process!
