The Readings for the Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me;
I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
I preferred her to scepter and throne,
and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her,
nor did I liken any priceless gem to her;
because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand,
and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.
Beyond health and comeliness I loved her,
and I chose to have her rather than the light,
because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.
Yet all good things together came to me in her
company, and countless riches at her hands.

Responsorial Psalm – 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Return, O LORD! How long?
Have pity on your servants!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness,
that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.
Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us,
for the years when we saw evil.

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!

Let your work be seen by your servants
and your glory by their children;
and may the gracious care of the LORD our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us!

Prosper the work of our hands!
R. Fill us with your love, O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!

Hebrews 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters:
Indeed the word of God is living and effective,
sharper than any two-edged sword,
penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and
marrow,
and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart.
No creature is concealed from him,
but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him
to whom we must render an account.

Gospel – Mark 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
Jesus answered him, "*Why do you call me good?
No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments:*

*You shall not kill;
you shall not commit adultery;
you shall not steal;
you shall not bear false witness;
you shall not defraud;
honor your father and your mother."*

He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell,
and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.
Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply,
"Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you." Jesus said, "*Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers
or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions,
and eternal life in the age to come.*"

Gospel - Mark 10:35-45

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last month on September 12th, Saint James called us to put our faith into action as he wrote, “Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.” James gives us the challenge to move beyond ourselves in our relationship with God and to share that relationship with others. It is also a call to act as Jesus would act toward others who are in need. Today Jesus challenges the rich young man's notion of faith as well as challenging the notion of the gathered people, the Apostles and even you and me.

The Gospel account relates that the young man ran up to Jesus with great excitement and calls Him good teacher. But Jesus does not respond to the young man's flattering words. In fact, Jesus points out to him that only God is good, and that we must never take anything away from God. Notice how Jesus answers the young man's question on what he should do to inherit eternal life. Our Lord tells him that he must go and sell everything he has, give it to the poor and then you will have treasure in Heaven, and then He tells the man to follow Him. The man went off sadly because he had many possessions, and as a result his total focus was on this world. This is what Jesus implies when He tells the Apostles how difficult it is for a rich person to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus tells the young man that he was correct to follow all the Commandments, however, he does place before the young man the challenge that he must change his life and move outside of himself. Likewise, what have we done to change our focus from ourselves to others, to the life that is to come, and most importantly to seek God with all our hearts? Jesus tells him and us to amend our life so you can answer these questions, then we will have eternal life.

Keep in mind, that the young man's problem is not his money or the things he owns, no it is his total dependence on his wealth and maintaining the status quo of this life. It is not that he is a bad person, no remember Jesus looks upon him with love, but he cannot move beyond his comfort zone, even when he is told to do so by the Son of God. But we cannot be too hard on the young man, because he had everything in the world and the people of that time thought that this was a clear sign of Divine favor, and this should carry over into the next life; even the Apostles thought this way. The young man most likely was looking for Jesus to reaffirm his position in life, and was expecting that he would not have to sell anything. That is why he was surprised at Jesus' answer and why the Apostles were caught off guard and made the comment, who could be saved? Then Jesus tells them, “It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter into the kingdom of God.” Jesus is telling them that this thought about wealth and salvation is not God's thought on salvation. Jesus wants them to know that salvation comes from God and it is not based on anybody's wealth or poverty.

Please keep in your prayers our young people who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation during this month. Pray for them that they may be open to receiving all the gifts of the Holy Spirit and move on to become adult members of the Church.

Thank you for all you do for Saint Edward's!

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

*O*n the weekend of October 2nd & 3rd, St. Edward the Confessor Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- o free pregnancy test kits
- o free sonogram
- o maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- o medical care referrals
- o Material aid including car seats, cribs, cloths, diapers .....and many other needed baby items
- o Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.
(Make checks out to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON November 13th & 14th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle. The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother's heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our preborn children.
