The Readings for the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Isaiah 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased
to crush him in infirmity.
If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD
shall be accomplished through him.
Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness
of days; through his suffering, my servant
shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

Responsorial Psalm – 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us
who have put our hope in you.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Hebrews 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Gospel – Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him,
"Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them,
"You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them,
"*You know that those who are recognized as rulers
over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant;
whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.*"

Gospel - Mark 10:46-52

From Fr. Mike's Desk

What's with the Apostles? We have seen them in action during the past few weeks in Mark's Gospel. Several times we have seen them ask questions or argue among themselves as to who is the greater, and of course, Jesus had to set them straight. A few weeks ago, Jesus used the example of a little child to show them how they are to be toward one another, and to realize that no one is greater than anyone else in the eyes of God. Likewise, Jesus instructs them that they should work at being innocent and open as a little child, who seeks no position in this world and accepts all that is given to him or her. In today's Gospel, we are told that James and John stood before Jesus and asked to sit on His right and left at the places of honor and authority. Jesus, of course, tells them that they do not know what they are asking, and then He asks them if they are willing to share with Jesus the cup that He must drink and share in the baptism of fire he must undergo. They tell Jesus that they can and are willing to do so, and Jesus tells them that they will share in these things. However, even with that, giving them the positions of honor are not for Him to give. That is left to the Father in Heaven, and in all truth, they should not be asking this question.

Now back to the opening question, what's with the Apostles, and why does Jesus have to always correct them? Why do they not get it? Well, before we judge them, we should remember that what has become familiar to us over the past 2,021 years was very new to them. They were very much thinking like people of the Roman World, and they were acting according to the ideas of the time and certainly on how one could get ahead. It is not that they do not believe in Jesus and the coming of the Kingdom, they just did not understand that the Kingdom of God is totally different from anything they ever knew; from anything we have ever known. Jesus is telling them to realize that the citizens of the Kingdom must abandon all pre-conceived societal notions and see things the way He is telling them.

Lucky for us, the Apostles did not always get it right, because as Jesus corrects them, He teaches us how we should live in this world and in the next. The great lesson we learn here is how Christians should exercise authority in the Church and toward the world. Jesus does not put down authority and structure; after all, He vested full authority with the Apostles who were called apart from the rest of His disciples. Afterward the Apostles established the Order of Deacons to minister to the physical needs of the people, and as we see in Paul's Letter, there are indeed many different roles, gifts and ministries in the Church, two thousand years ago and today. No, Jesus does not oppose the idea that some are to be in authority over others, but He does tell us that the nature of Christian Authority is SERVICE! We are to follow Jesus' words when He says, "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and give his life as a ransom for the many." When the Church leadership loses sight of the fact that they are to lead by giving their lives in service to the flock, then we see trouble and misunderstandings as we have seen happen throughout the Church's history.

We must not make the same mistake of James and John in today's Gospel, but we must act like the Apostles acted after they received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. These were the Apostles, who like Jesus, gave their lives in total service to the flock that Jesus gave them to shepherd. We too are to give ourselves in service to one another, and we must not laud any authority given to us (either in the Church, the world or within our families) not just for our own good, but for the good of all.

Please keep praying for our young people who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation during this month, that they will receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit and learn how to use them for the good of the community. Also remember that on Tuesday November 2nd at 7:30PM we will celebrate a Mass of Remembrance for all those who have died in the past year.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

The Knights of Columbus Celebrate Their 60th Anniversary

Last Saturday, October 9th, the Joseph J. Gorman Council #5091 of the Knights of Columbus, based out of St. Edward’s Parish, celebrated their 60th Anniversary. The Council’s Chaplain, Fr. Michael Maffeo, held a Mass at 3:00 PM in the church, and this was followed by a catered dinner in the Holy Family Room. Since 1961 this Council of Knights have supported our church, the school and the local community with acts of charity and service. The Parish appreciates their dedication and support, and wishes them all the best during the next 60 years!

Home and Family Blessing

I would like to begin by wishing you, and those you love a very blessed holiday season, from Thanksgiving to Christmas and through the New Year celebrations. I believe to classify 2020 and 2021 as years of trials and turmoil while a very objective opinion, is one by shared by many. I must acknowledge that serving as your pastor during this period has been a blessing in many varied ways. Many of you have invited me to share in those heartbreaking events which forever have impacted on your very essence; the loneliness of death on both the dying and those who love them, having to reschedule significant events such as a baptism, wedding, or funeral to name a few. Obviously, there are many more severe occurrences of a personal nature, the burden of which you have carried silently, and I believe with great courage. It is a great joy that, for the most part, many of scars associated with the pandemic and its related events are behind us. Our being together sharing the sacraments, a meal (Italian), attending to the poor and needy, seeing our children back in school and so many other positive happenings bring us all hope and promise. I am thankful for all the good our parish has received.

As a way of expressing my thanks and appreciation to St. Edward parishioners I, along with the parish priests and deacons would like to offer a special Thanksgiving blessing to you and your family. The blessing will be no longer than ten minutes and will take place fifteen feet from the front of your home. Each of us will be carrying a face mask in the event you wish it to be worn. In order that the blessings occur in an efficient manner I am requesting that you complete the form below by providing a date and time that works best for you. Once we have coordinated the home and family blessings you will be informed of the day and approximate time of the blessing. I would also request that you pass this invitation on to anyone you believe may be interested in receiving a blessing. I am also requesting that together we pray in thanksgiving for all those graces bestowed on our St. Edward's family and that we remember in a special way our family members, friends, and parishioners who are suffering or have entered the Kingdom of God. Please respond by email to Deacon Jim at jimur7@verizon.net or deposit the requested information in an envelope addressed to Deacon Jim by using the rectory door mail slot. When responding by email please use FAMILY BLESSING on the subject line. All email requests will be acknowledged.

Olivewood Handcrafted from the Holy Land A Traditional Art and Livelihood for holy Land Christians

The handicrafts trade evolved as a cultural tradition of Christians in the Holy Land for many centuries. This indigenous form of art has since become an industry of great importance to the local people of the Holy Land who rely on it for livelihood, and to Christian pilgrims from all around the world whose holy pilgrimage can be memorialized for a lifetime in cherished olive wood or mother of pearl souvenirs. The olive wood carving market is the major source of income in the Bethlehem area. More than 65 percent of the income of the community in Bethlehem comes from this work.

In recent years, however, the holy crafts trade has suffered many hardships due to social and economical pressures. Because of a sharp fall in tourism and also as a result of diminishing numbers of craftsmen who leave their traditional trade and emigrate due to the difficult conditions in their homeland, the Holy Land handicraft market is facing serious danger, and so is the Christian community in the Land. Sixty five years ago the Christians represented more than 28% of the total population in the Holy Land, today they are less than 1.5%. The loss of Christians in the land of Christianity's birth will represent a tragedy of immeasurable proportions for the billions of Christians worldwide.

Thank you for your vital support for a Christian tradition and in protecting this very important culture and industry.

October is the month dedicated to Our Lady's Rosary.

Feast of St. Edward the Confessor

DID YOU KNOW - This past Wednesday, October 13th, was the Feast of St. Edward. His piety gained him the surname "the Confessor". He died in London on January 5, 1066 and he was canonized in 1161 by Pope Alexander III.

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

*O*n the weekend of October 2nd & 3rd, St. Edward the Confessor Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- o free pregnancy test kits
- o free sonogram
- o maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- o medical care referrals
- o Material aid including car seats, cribs, cloths, diapersand many other needed baby items
- o Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.
(Make checks out to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON November 13th & 14th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle. The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother's heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our preborn children.
