205 Jackson Avenue, Syosset, New York 11791

Growing in Faith, Love, and Christ

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."

Jesus told him, "*Go your way;
your faith has saved you.*"
Immediately he received his sight
and followed him on the way.

The Readings for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Jeremiah 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD:
Shout with joy for Jacob,
exult at the head of the nations;
proclaim your praise and say:
The LORD has delivered his people,
the remnant of Israel.
Behold, I will bring them back
from the land of the north;
I will gather them from the ends of the world,
with the blind and the lame in their midst,
the mothers and those with child;
they shall return as an immense throng.
They departed in tears,
but I will console them and guide them;
I will lead them to brooks of water,
on a level road, so that none shall stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial Psalm – 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
we were like men dreaming.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
like the torrents in the southern desert.
Those that sow in tears
shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping,
carrying the seed to be sown,
They shall come back rejoicing,
carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Hebrews 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters:
Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him:

You are my son:
this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place:
You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel – Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Next Week's Readings

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 31, 2021

First Reading - Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Psalms - 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

Second Reading - Hebrews 7:23-28

Gospel - Mark 12:28b-34

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.” Jesus said, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’ The blind man replied to him, ‘Master I want to see.’ Jesus told him, ‘Go your way; your faith has saved you.’ Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.”

Today we are given a great lesson in faith and the power of prayer. The Prophet Jeremiah tells the people that they should have faith in God for He will console and guide them even after all they have suffered. God will never forget Israel, who is His first born. Yes, God allowed them to fall, because they abandoned His will, yet God would not allow their disobedience to be the last word in their relationship with Him. God went out of His way to restore them, first by sending the King of Persia who restores them to Jerusalem, and then He sends His only begotten Son who will indeed be the last Word in their relationship with God. Have great faith in God, for He will not let us go or abandon us, and as it was during the time of Jeremiah so it is for us now.

We have a great justification in our faith as we read the account of Bartimaeus and realize that his prayers were answered. When he hears that Jesus is coming, he knows what Jesus can do, so he calls out to Jesus with deep faith and confidence. Bartimaeus cries the more and louder when they tell him to be quiet, which of course gets Jesus' attention. When Jesus calls him over, the crowd changes how they act. They bring Bartimaeus quickly over to Jesus and they tell him, what is quoted above, to take courage. This statement is important for us as well, for we should always take courage when we are approaching God the Father with our prayers. Take courage for the Father has sent His Son so we can be in relationship with Him, and they both send the Holy Spirit so we will always receive the Grace we need to increase our faith. Christ shows the Father's love for us constantly by what He does for our sake in His death and resurrection, in His giving of Himself to us in the Eucharist, and in His answering our prayers; just as He answered the prayers of Bartimaeus, Jairus with his daughter, the Centurion's servant, and so many examples that we see throughout the New Testament. We also see this in the lives of the Saints throughout the 2021 years of the Church's history. Whenever you have any doubts remember today's Gospel and Jeremiah's words of consolation, they can truly inspire all of us!

Also remember on Tuesday, November 2nd at 7:30 PM we will celebrate a Mass of Remembrance for all those who have died in the past year.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Retrouvaille Weekend

You can help heal your marriage.

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationships. Primarily a practical program to improve communication, build stronger marriages and help couples reconnect. Presenters are not trained marriages counselors, but rather couples sharing their personal stories of marital struggles and the tools they used to rediscover their love.

For confidential information about the Retrouvaille program, or to register for the upcoming weekend that begins on Friday, November 5, 2021, please visit our website www.HelpOurMarriage.org or call 1-800-470-2230.

Home and Family Blessing

I would like to begin by wishing you, and those you love a very blessed holiday season, from Thanksgiving to Christmas and through the New Year celebrations. I believe to classify 2020 and 2021 as years of trials and turmoil while a very objective opinion, is one by shared by many. I must acknowledge that serving as your pastor during this period has been a blessing in many varied ways. Many of you have invited me to share in those heartbreaking events which forever have impacted on your very essence; the loneliness of death on both the dying and those who love them, having to reschedule significant events such as a baptism, wedding, or funeral to name a few. Obviously, there are many more severe occurrences of a personal nature, the burden of which you have carried silently, and I believe with great courage. It is a great joy that, for the most part, many of scars associated with the pandemic and its related events are behind us. Our being together sharing the sacraments, a meal (Italian), attending to the poor and needy, seeing our children back in school and so many other positive happenings bring us all hope and promise. I am thankful for all the good our parish has received.

As a way of expressing my thanks and appreciation to St. Edward parishioners I, along with the parish priests and deacons would like to offer a special Thanksgiving blessing to you and your family. The blessing will be no longer than ten minutes and will take place fifteen feet from the front of your home. Each of us will be carrying a face mask in the event you wish it to be worn. In order that the blessings occur in an efficient manner I am requesting that you complete the form below by providing a date and time that works best for you. Once we have coordinated the home and family blessings you will be informed of the day and approximate time of the blessing. I would also request that you pass this invitation on to anyone you believe may be interested in receiving a blessing. I am also requesting that together we pray in thanksgiving for all those graces bestowed on our St. Edward's family and that we remember in a special way our family members, friends, and parishioners who are suffering or have entered the Kingdom of God. Please respond by email to Deacon Jim at jimur7@verizon.net or deposit the requested information in an envelope addressed to Deacon Jim by using the rectory door mail slot. When responding by email please use FAMILY BLESSING on the subject line. All email requests will be acknowledged.
