Third Sunday of Advent

Reading 1 - Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

The desert and the parched land will exult; the steppe will rejoice and bloom. They will bloom with abundant flowers, and rejoice with joyful song. The glory of Lebanon will be given to them, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God. Strengthen the hands that are feeble, make firm the knees that are weak, say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you. Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing.

Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; they will meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning will flee.

Responsorial Psalm – 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10

R. Lord, come and save us.

The LORD God keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets captives free.

R. Lord, come and save us.

The LORD gives sight to the blind;
the LORD raises up those who were bowed down.
The LORD loves the just;
the LORD protects strangers.

R. Lord, come and save us.

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations.

R. Lord, come and save us.

Reading 2 - James 5:7-10

Be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not complain, brothers and sisters, about one another, that you may not be judged. Behold, the Judge is standing before the gates. Take as an example of hardship and patience, brothers and sisters, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Gospel - Matthew 11:2-11

When John the Baptist heard in prison of the works of the Christ, he sent his disciples to Jesus with this question, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" Jesus said to them in reply, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offense at me."

As they were going off, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John, "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? Then what did you go out to see? Someone dressed in fine clothing? Those who wear fine clothing are in royal palaces. Then why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you. Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Next Week's Gospel Question

In next week's Gospel we find Joseph, the husband of Mary, facing a dilemma, to keep Mary as his wife, or to divorce her quietly. As a man of deep faith in God, Joseph listens to the Angel of the Lord, and chooses to take Mary into his home and raise Jesus as his son.

When faced with a difficult choice as Joseph was, do you place your trust in God and listen for his voice? And if you hear His voice, do you follow his words?

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 18, 2022

First Reading - Isaiah 7:10-14

Psalms 24:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

Second Reading - Romans 1:1-7

Gospel - Matthew 1:18-24

From Fr. Mike's Desk

We have now come to the turning point of our Advent Journey. While we are still focusing on the Second Coming of Jesus and the end time, we now begin to look at Jesus' First Coming. We do this today by looking more at His Third Coming: Jesus at work in our present life and in the Church's life for the past 2023 years. Today John asks Jesus an important question. Herod imprisoned John because he preached against the King for marrying his wife Herodias (who was originally the wife of Herod's brother Philip). This of course, was an unlawful marriage, and John would not let up in his condemnation of it and his constant call for Herod and Herodias to repent.

John upon hearing what Jesus was doing and what He was saying, sent his disciples to Jesus to ask, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" Why does John ask this question? As we see in other Gospel accounts, John is so sure that Jesus is the one; he points Him out to Andrew and John. He tells them to behold the Lamb of God and that Jesus was their new Rabbi. Is John going through a crisis in faith? It is possible that John no longer believes that Jesus is the Messiah? Perhaps, John's question comes from a distinct set of circumstances. John still has his faith, but he needs understanding. Recall last week, John said that one who was to follow him would clear his threshing floor and gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn in unquenchable fire. John has the impression that the Messiah would be a no-nonsense person, and we had all better follow him or we will be lost. This of course is true, yet John does not see this in Jesus. He sees Jesus forgiving sinners, preaching about love and forgiveness and mercy, and He speaks about a loving God and Father. Jesus is gentle, kind, compassionate, and He will go out of His way to find and rescue the lost sheep. He eats with sinners and tax collectors, and He breaks the Sabbath Laws by healing people on the Sabbath. John is not sure, so he asks the question.

Jesus answers John with, "...what [do you] hear and see; the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them." All these acts fulfilled the Law and the Prophets, and Jesus is acting as the Messiah was supposed to, however, there was more to Jesus. Jesus was also acting as who He is, The Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus is both human and divine (as we will celebrate 14 days from now). Therefore, Christ has the power to forgive sins, to call people back to Himself. Jesus who is our Lord and God surpasses the ancient understandings of the Messiah. Afterward, Jesus praised John, yet in the same speech, He put things into the proper order. John who has one foot in the Old Testament is wonderful, but those who are born again into the Kingdom are greater. Do not feel sorry for John, because he also has the other foot in the New Testament, so he too is a citizen of the Kingdom.

As we consider this week's readings, we are all faced with the question, has there been times when we doubted Jesus, especially when we see so much of what is happening in this world, and even in our lives. I am sure that the answer is yes, and it is true of most of us when we ask this question. But when we ask it, we should remember His answer to John. That answer again reminds us of all He did and continues to do even to this day through the actions of the Saints and His Living Body the Church. Take heart in the words from today's Psalm,

"The Lord God keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry...sight to the blind...the Lord protects strangers."

Today at 3:00 PM we will celebrate our annual Mass for Deceased Children. All are invited.

Please consult the bulletin for Advent Confessions and Mass times for Christmas Eve and Days Masses.

Happy Third Week of Advent!

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

“For where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am with them”.

All are welcome to come and pray the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy with The Saint Joseph Prayer Group every Thursday night at 7:30 PM in the church. There are no commitments, and all are welcome to attend. Come and pray for healing in the world, and for your own special intentions. Praying for His assistance and guidance is a calming and reassuring way to end your day. As is stated in Matthew 18:20, Jesus promises His presence among us, and with us, when we gather to pray. Prepare for His coming this Christmas, and pray.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us that the good news can be seen, touched felt and heard through the lives of God's people. We are now charged to take up the ministry of Jesus's, but we can't just ask people to take our word for it; our actions must speak for us. Since Christmas is a time of love and gift giving, please share in Jesus ministry by giving a gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that those who are poor can know the good news of Jesus.

St. Vincent de Paul provides services on a confidential basis. We can help with:

- ◆ Food Assistance
- ◆ Clothing
- ◆ Furniture Referrals to SVdP Furniture Store
- ◆ Limited Emergency Financial Assistance/past due bills
- ◆ Social Services Referrals
- ◆ Referrals for Informal Counseling
- ◆ Home Visitation to better understand the people we serve

“Help should be given in such a way that the recipients may gradually be freed from dependence on others and become self-sufficient”

Catholic Ministries Appeal - Your Help Today Is Needed

We are coming to the end of another calendar year and with that, we will be completing our 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal Campaign. For many years now St. Edward's has always achieved the quota given to us. It is so important to fund the wonderful work of the many ministries of our diocese. Thousands of people, every year, count on the help given through your kind donations and that of many others. This year we are so very close to our parish goal. As of this week we are only 8.5% short of our annual goal. Another $9,600.00 will put us over the top. Not only is this important for the work of the diocese but if we achieve our goal, we will receive a rebate of some of that money, which is so dearly needed for our own parish. Your benevolence has always been so overwhelming and greatly appreciated. To date, 213 parishioners have generously donated to this year's Appeal. We are a parish family of nearly 2,400 families. We know things are very difficult for everyone right now because of inflation. As hard as it is for us, imagine the plight of those who depend on our support!

If you are financially able, please consider making a contribution to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you are unable, we ask for your prayers for the people the diocese serves and for the success of the campaign.

Thanks and God bless!

RCIA - Right of Christian Initiation for Adults

- * Do you know someone who is looking to become a Catholic?
- * Do you know a baptized adult Catholic who has never been catechized — that is, never participated in the Church or received First Holy Communion?
- * Do you know someone who was never confirmed — baptized and made First Holy Communion, but never continued learning about their faith?

Perhaps they belong in the St. Edward's RCIA process!

Care for Our Church and Parish

When coming to Mass, please park your vehicles in the designated spaces. Do not park in front of the dumpsters, as access is needed 24 hours a day and may create a safety hazard.

As mentioned last week, please be reminded that when attending Mass, you are asked to leave all drinks, including coffee, juices and water outside the church, and food as well. Those with medical conditions, and those caring for infants are excluded from this requirement.
