The Readings for The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Reading 1 - Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard.

Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother.

My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins - a house raised in justice to you.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways!

For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants around your table.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.

The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Reading 2 – Colossians 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and avoid any bitterness toward them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged.

Gospel – Luke 2:22-40

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, They took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord.

He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, He took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted - and you yourself a sword will pierce - so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer. And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. This Feast is a devotional feast (as is mentioned in the Liturgical Sourcebook and Workbook for Lectors and Gospel Readers), meaning that this feast does not mark a particular event like the Nativity or the Resurrection. However, it is designed to promote a devotion to The Holy Family so it can serve as a model for modern family life. This feast was added to the Church's Calendar by Pope Leo XIII in 1893, and it was first celebrated on the Sunday after the Feast of the Epiphany. The Second Vatican Council moved this feast to be remembered on the Sunday that falls between Christmas and the Epiphany, thus linking the feast closer to Christmas. This also reminds us that God's presence is not only seen in Jesus the Babe of Bethlehem, but also as a part and member of a human family.

Many times when we contemplate the Holy Family we interpret this to mean that they were always a happy family. While I am sure that at many times they were happy, there were also many times they were unhappy or had to face their shares of trouble, just like your family and mine. After all a family that is always happy can only be found on TV Land or on the menu of some local restaurants and take outs. Yes, they had their troubles as we can see in the various Gospel accounts for this day (i.e. the Flight into Egypt, or how upset Joseph and Mary were when they could not find Jesus until they arrived at the Temple). Like all families they knew the loss of a loved one, especially as St. Joseph died before Jesus began the Public Ministry. So how did they get through all of these things and some of the things that even we go through? They relied on their strong faith in God, this very same faith that allowed the Blessed Mother to say yes, when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to her, just as Joseph had when he was told in a dream whose child it was that Mary was carrying. The same strong faith which brought the Holy Family to the Temple to fulfill the Law of Moses and likewise helped the Blessed Mother to hear and ponder the words uttered by Simeon and Anna as we see in today's Gospel.

This is the same faith which helped other Scriptural families accomplish so much. It helped Abraham leave his homeland and travel to the Holy Land as he believed God's promises to him would be fulfilled, and it allowed Moses' mother to put him in the small ark and send it down the Nile knowing that God would save her son. This is the same faith which can help us when we are faced with trouble or difficult situations. Bear in mind that this faith may not make the trouble go away, but it will give you strength to face trouble, endure it and hopefully gain insight and grow from the experience. No family is perfect, but each family should strive to do their best to love one another, to forgive one another and to support each other. This is what makes a family holy, and this what we found at Nazareth and what we can find right here in Syosset.

We close with the Blessing of Families from the Book of Blessings:

We bless your name, O Lord, for sending Your own incarnate Son to become part of a family, so that as He lived its life, He would experience its worries and joys. We ask You, Lord, to protect and watch over our families, so that in the strength of Your grace we may enjoy prosperity, and possess the priceless gift of Your peace. May the Lord Jesus, who lived with His Holy Family in Nazareth dwell also with our families, keep us from all evil and make us all one in heart and mind. Amen.

Merry Christmas!

MEMORANDUM

To: All Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Rockville Centre
From: Lisa Houkanen, M.D., Director of the Office of Human Life, Family & Bioethics
Re: Moral Questions Regarding the New COVID-19 Vaccines
Date: December 15, 2020

As the first doses of the new COVID-19 vaccines, authorized by the FDA for emergency use, have begun to be administered to people in our country, a number of questions have arisen regarding the morality of accepting the new vaccines based on the link to abortion in their development and production.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has released a memorandum, entitled Moral Considerations Regarding the New COVID-19 Vaccines. This document was authored by Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades, Chairman, Committee on Doctrine, and Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann, Chairman, Committee on Pro-Life Activities. A copy is attached to this memo, and the original may be found at www.usccb.org/moral-considerations-covid-vaccines.

In addition, the National Catholic Bioethics Center has released its own memorandum, entitled Points to Consider on the Use of COVID-19 Vaccines. A copy of this memo is also attached, and the original may be found at www.ncbcenter.org.

This memorandum is meant to give a very simple and general explanation of the morality of using the new COVID-19 vaccines regarding their remote connection to abortion. This memo does not address the personal decision of an individual as to whether to be vaccinated or not. For a more comprehensive Catholic moral analysis of the use of the new vaccines, we encourage you to read both memoranda from the USCCB and the NCBC, as well as going to the website of the Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics of the Diocese of Rockville Centre for more information which will be updated periodically: www.respectlife.drvc.org.

Ideally, a vaccine will have no connection at any stage of development or production with the use of cell lines initially derived from an aborted fetus. Unfortunately, none of the three COVID-19 vaccines that will be ready for distribution to the public, either immediately or in the very near future, meets this criterion. The Pfizer and Moderna vaccines, using mRNA technology, do NOT use morally compromised cell lines in the design, development, or production of the vaccine. A confirmatory test, however, employing a cell line connected to abortion was performed on both these vaccines. Thus, while neither vaccine is completely free from any connection to abortion, in this case the connection to the initial evil of abortion is very remote and finite. In contrast, the AstraZeneca vaccine, using viral vector technology, is more morally compromised because it relies on a cell line produced from a past abortion in the design, development and production stages of that vaccine as well as in a confirmatory test. Therefore, its connection to abortion, albeit remote, is both greater and on-going.

Consequently, on moral grounds related to their connection to the evil of abortion, it is recommended that, of the alternatives available in the very near future, the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines are preferred to the AstraZeneca vaccine.

Both the USCCB memo and the NCBC memo concur that, for grave reasons, it can be morally permissible for Catholics to receive a vaccine remotely connected to the evil of abortion if there are no reasonable alternatives available and they make known their objection to the use of morally compromised cell lines. Indeed, vaccination under these circumstances may be viewed as an act of self-love and charity towards one's neighbor in limiting a serious infectious disease. However, it should be noted that there is no moral obligation to vaccinate.

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 40 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to The 4th Sunday of Advent, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

O HOLY NIGHT

🎵 O holy night! The Stars are brightly shining. It is the night of our dear Savior's birth. Long lay the world in sin and error pining. 'Til He appeared and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices. For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.

Fall on your knees! O hear the angels' voices! O night divine. O night when Christ was born; O night divine, O night, O night Divine.

Led by the light of Faith serenely beaming. With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand. So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming. Here come the wise men from Orient land. The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger; in all our trials born to be our friend.

He knows our needs; to our weakness is no stranger. Behold your King! Before Him lowly bend! Behold your King, Before Him lowly bend!

This is one of my favorite Christmas Carols, and I like it so much because it serves as a reminder of what it is, we are celebrating this coming Friday December 25. God has become one of us in the person of Jesus and he has set us free from all sin, death, and darkness. He is the true light of the world, and He has come into the world to make all things new and bright.

This carol was composed by Adolphe Adam in 1847. Adam was a prolific composer of operas and ballets, and he got the idea from a French Poem Midnight Christmas written by Placide Cappeau. Cappeau had been asked by a parish priest to write such a poem. However, it was the Unitarian Minister John Sullivan Dwight, who was born in Boston, who gave us this Carol in English as we know it.

This year this hymn and Christmas is so badly needed because we as a world have lost sight of what is truly important and that is the love of God that is so perfectly made manifest in the birth of Jesus over 2000 years ago. Yes, the virus has taken a toll on all of us, some worse than others and it has caused a great deal of pain and sorrow. But Jesus is the true remedy for all this pain and sorrow, Jesus is the total cure from all this world can throw at us, and He offers us great comfort if we open ourselves to it and Him.

Try to do your best to focus on the joy of Christmas given to us by God our Father through the birth of His Son. Let us help each other to share it. Please accept my wishes to you and yours for a very Merry Christmas and a very Happy and Blessed New Year.

We Need Your Help

We have good news and bad news... The good news is that we are starting to see a slow but steady increase in the number of people who are coming back to Mass on Sundays. We are so happy to see you again and we look forward to having everyone back together as a faith community. Now the bad news... the Federal Communication Commission is phasing out the 600 MHz frequencies currently in use by many Church congregations including St. Edward's. What this means is that our current sound system will not be able to comply or function with the new required frequency. Our sound system, which has served us well until recently, is the same system originally installed when our church was built, and includes the Holy Family Room and Auditorium. It has become antiquated and has failed several times. Replacement parts are virtually nonexistent. As a result of this and the FCC regulation, we must replace our sound system for the church, Holy Family room and Auditorium. Unfortunately, this does not come without a considerable cost. The best estimate we have received is approximately $40,000. This could not have come at a worse time. Although we are blessed by your kind generosity, our weekly collections are lower than anticipated and as you know our fundraisers have been cancelled because of the pandemic.

So, we need your help! I am asking you to consider being a donor to help defray the cost of this system. I know times are tough for many and we are experiencing the need to tighten our belts as well, but the sound system is imperative for our liturgical services and school functions.

Please consider helping the parish out. Thanks and God bless!

Baby Bottle Campaign to Benefit the Life Center of Long Island

The Life Center would like to thank the Parishioners of St. Edward the Confessor Parish for participating in our Baby Bottle Campaign. In your Last campaign in 2019, St. Edward the Confessor Parishioners donated $4,773.50!!

We are still collecting baby bottles for our parish's recent baby bottle drive for the Life Center of Long Island.

DO YOU STILL HAVE A BABY BOTTLE?

It's not too late to return your bottle. We will take them back full or empty. Please bring it to the church or rectory so that we may return it to the Life Center.

Thank you!
