The Readings for The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:
“Set out for the great city of Nineveh,
and announce to it the message that I will tell you.”
So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh,
according to the LORD’S bidding.
Now Nineveh was an enormously large city;
it took three days to go through it.
Jonah began his journey through the city,
and had gone but a single day’s walk announcing,
“Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed”,
when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small,
put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD,
and your love are from of old.
In your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice
and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Reading 2 – 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters,
the time is running out.
From now on, let those having wives
act as not having them,
those weeping as not weeping,
those rejoicing as not rejoicing,
those buying as not owning,
those using the world as not using it fully.
For the world in its present form is passing away.

Gospel – Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel
of God: “This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them.
So they left their father Zebedee in the boat
along with the hired men and followed him.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

We continue this week with the Divine call and the Human response. Last week John's Gospel told us how Jesus called His first disciples, but this week, Mark's Gospel gives us a different account. Mark begins his Gospel with the Baptism of the Lord, followed by Jesus going into the desert for 40 days, and Jesus coming out of the desert to learn that John had been arrested. With that news, Jesus began His public ministry and proclaimed, "This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand, repent and believe in the gospel." With this proclamation, He goes by the Sea of Galilee where Jesus sees Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets. After they make their cast, Jesus tells them to follow Him, and this they did, along with James and his brother John. Wow, now that's a call! Why did they leave everything to follow Jesus? In other accounts of this story, they do not follow Jesus until after He tells them where to cast the nets for a great catch of fish. That, of course, was a demonstration of His Divine power, but in Mark's account we have no great sign but His call. Perhaps that is totally what Mark wants us to see and what Mark wants us to respond to as well.

In our first reading, Jonah was called by God to warn the people of Nineveh to repent, but he refused the call, and tried to run away from God. Eventually after a whole series of actions, which result in a storm at sea, and an encounter with a large fish, Jonah gives in and answers God's call. As we are told, he announces that in 40 days more the city would be destroyed by God because of their evil ways. Following the Prophet's call, the king ordered that a fast be proclaimed and all people put on sack cloth. The people responded to the word of God, and they repented. God also repented of the destruction He was going to launch on them because they heard and acted on God's word.

The divine call was given, and the people responded. Jesus calls His disciples, and they follow, again just on the strength of His call. Let us not forget that Jesus, the Son of God, can read souls, so He knew they would follow (at least that is what Mark wants you to know). Jesus' call goes past the mind, human emotions, and feelings. It goes right to the heart and soul of a person. You and I are witnesses to this, as we too have responded to Jesus' call. Our Lord knows us better than we know ourselves, and so He knows how we will respond. But once the call is made, and freely accepted it must be acted on. The disciples dropped everything and followed Him, even though they did not know where it would lead them. Even Jonah who was afraid, did what God commanded even though He did not know the outcome.

What are we to do when we respond? The psalm for today tells us. "Teach me your ways, O Lord, make known to me; teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me for you are God my savior... Good and upright is the Lord; thus, He shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble His way." Lord teach us your ways, help us to respond to Your call and fulfill Your great plan for our salvation. Help us to go beyond fear and weakness. Just as You speak to our hearts, let our hearts respond to You with a total, yes!

Today we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. Usually we have the school open on that Sunday for all to visit. This year, because of conditions, we will curtail some of what we do. There will be tours of the school, but they will be made by appointment. For more information or to schedule and appointment please call Mr. Albrecht our Principal at: 516-921-7767 or go to the school website: www.stedwardconfessor.org

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 44 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

This weekend I have the sad task of burying my second pastor Fr. Joseph Coschignano. While this is indeed a bittersweet moment, as we say goodbye, it is also a time to celebrate his life and his over 50 years as a priest serving the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Fr. Joe entered my life, or I entered his life, in the spring of 1996. My first assignment at St. Brigid's was coming to an end, and as it was the custom of the time, those who were moving went out on interviews to parishes that needed an associate pastor. The idea of the interview was to try the pair the priest with the parish and hopefully choose which parish was right for the priest and which priest was right for the parish. Of course, this is not always perfect and sometimes that which looks good on paper is terrible in real life. I interviewed with Fr. Joe, and then I interviewed with other pastors, and I decided that I would like to go to St. Peter the Apostle in Islip Terrace. The pastor at that time was Fr. Jerry Ringenback who was the Spiritual Director at the Seminary when I was there, and we got along quite well. It seemed like a good fit, but it was not to be, as the personnel director of the diocese told me they would like me to go to Rocky Point. I of course agreed, and so I arrived at St. Antony of Padua Church, in Beautiful Rocky Point on June 25, 1996.

One of the reasons why I did not want to go to Rocky Point was because my first pastor Msgr. Frank Gaeta used to be the pastor of Rocky Point just before Fr. Joe. I thought it would be awkward for me and him to go to Rocky Point after being with Fr. Frank. However, Fr. Joe told me that one of the reasons he wanted me to come to Rocky Point was for that very fact. As he told me I knew Fr. Frank and I knew how he ran the parish (Fr. Joe left many things the way he found them to make it easier for the people) so I would easily fit in. He also told me many people loved Fr. Frank and could not get over his being transferred some 7 years earlier. Fr. Joe believed that I could help those members of the parish as I had a similar personality to Fr. Frank. Fr. Joe shared with me, how much he loved the people of the parish, and how he would do anything to help those who were still upset.

What I learned the most from Fr. Joe was that one must do more than just work in the parish; one must also love the people of the parish. While I always knew this was true, no one gave me a better example than Fr. Joe. Fr. Joe was a very organized person, sometimes too organized, and at times this could be a source of tension, but he was a loving and forgiving person, which I learned to become more and more after being with him, and for the most part we got along very well.

We were together for four years until he was transferred to St. John's in Center Moriches and after that St. Barnabas' in Bellmore from where he retired. I will miss Fr. Joe and I ask you to pray for him and his family who happen to live in St. Edward's and the surrounding area. Also please keep praying for our country and the world as we go through the next few weeks. Pray for peace and understanding. Let us also pray for the end of the spread of the COVID19 virus, and for the world to return to a New and Better Normal.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

We Still Need Your Help

Thanks so much! We have collected $13,650 so far against our bill of $40,000.

If you can please consider helping the parish out, we can still use your support. The Federal Communication Commission is phasing out the 600 MHz frequencies currently in use by many Church congregations including St. Edward's. What this means is that our current sound system will not be able to comply or function with the new required frequency. Our sound system, which has served us well until recently, is the same system originally installed when our church was built, and includes the Holy Family Room and Auditorium. It has become antiquated and has failed several times. Replacement parts are virtually nonexistent. As a result of this and the FCC regulation, we must replace our sound system for the church, Holy Family room and Auditorium. Although we are blessed by your kind generosity, our weekly collections are lower than anticipated and as you know our fundraisers have been cancelled because of the pandemic.

So, we need your help! I am asking you to consider being a donor to help defray the cost of this system. I know times are tough for many and we are experiencing the need to tighten our belts as well, but the sound system is imperative for our liturgical services and school functions.

Please consider helping the parish out. Thanks and God bless!
