Growing in Faith, Love, and Christ

Then Jesus said,
"I came into this world for judgment,
so that those who do not see might see,
and those who do see might become blind."

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today is Laetare Sunday, and traditionally this has been a day of celebration within the Lenten Season. The name comes from the opening antiphon for today's Mass, which in Latin is, Laetare Jerusalem. This translates to Rejoice Jerusalem. Today we wear the rose colored vestments (as we do on the Third Sunday of Advent), and it serves as a reminder that our goal is about to be realized, Easter is almost here. Easter the great day of the Resurrection, when the true light of Christ shines forth. It will shine through every believer, and every baptized person. For through baptism we become one with Christ and each other, and we become vessels of Christ and the Holy Spirit.

This is what we see literally in the Gospel account of the Man Born Blind. There is much discussion about what happened on that faithful day at the Temple. The man comes to Jesus' attention and He insists on curing him. In some accounts, the man does not want Jesus to touch him. In the film Jesus of Nazareth, Peter asks Jesus if He should cure the man. After all, he lived his whole life blind, how will he be able to exist in the world when he can see. How will he earn a living since he does not know how to do anything, but beg? However, Jesus does not accept Peter's argument, and He tells Peter (and all of us) that He is the Light of the World, and as long as He is in the world, He will not allow anyone to stay in darkness. In the Gospel, Jesus refers to the work He must do. As He says, "We have come to do the work of the One who sent Me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world I am the light of the world." After this, Jesus puts mud on the man's eyes and tells him to go to the Pool of Siloam, which means sent. As I just recently learned, the Pool of Siloam is not within the Temple itself, and it is quite a way down the hill on which the Temple was built. For a blind person this was a long walk. As the name of the pool tells us, the blind man was sent, and when he washed in the pool, he could see. He no longer protested and was completely delighted. He is so happy that he tells everyone he sees, even the religious leaders. They, of course, criticize the cure and one who accomplished it, because he did it on the Sabbath.

After a big discussion, the Pharisees, the Scribes, and the Temple Officials throw the man out of the Temple. It is after this happens, that Jesus sees the man and asks him if he believes in the Son of Man? This Messianic Title goes back to Ezekiel and Daniel. The man asks Jesus, who is he that I might believe in him? In addition, Jesus tells him that He was the Son of Man and the One sent by God. Last week He told the Samaritan Woman that He was the Messiah, and now He shares with this man, who can now see clearly, who He is. For in his cure, he not only received his physical sight, he received spiritual sight, and he was able to see the Light of Christ where the leaders could not. Jesus states, toward the end of the Gospel, "I came into this world for judgement, so that those who do not see might see and those who do see might become blind." Some of the Pharisees replied, "Surely we are not blind..." Jesus said to them "If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you are saying 'We see' so your sin remains." What is their sin? They sinned because they refused to see the Light of Christ, and by not understanding that His work was the work of God the Father. They were so caught up in their ideas of what was right and proper; they could not see God at work. The man, who was cured, saw Jesus as the one God sent, unfortunately, they could not! I am sure that there were many things standing in their way, and some of them were things that were not easy to change in their understanding, Jesus would have cured them of their blindness if they only let Him. Jesus could heal us of our blindness if we only would allow Him. He does this for us, if we realize that the work He is speaking about is not only His work but our work too, the work of the Church. It is up to us to lead people to the Light, which is Christ and we must always have our eyes open to see where the Light is leading us.

Happy Fourth Sunday of Lent!

March 17, 2020

My dear brothers and sisters of St. Edward's,

Every day we seem to be experiencing change after change as new information is released about the coronavirus. It has put all of us on high alert and concern. As a precaution, we have been told to suspend all parish and organization meetings and events, including CYO. In addition, our bishop has temporarily closed all the diocesan schools. During this period, we are continuously deep cleaning and sanitizing all areas of student activity. Likewise, we have our cleaning service sanitizing and spray disinfecting the church. We are committed to assuring that all who come to St. Edwards will be safe in our parish environment.

Bishop Barres also cancelled all Masses through Tuesday, April 14. Sadly, this includes Holy Week & Easter Sunday liturgies. We have been asked to postpone baptisms, except in the case of an emergency. Weddings and funerals are still available but must be limited to immediately family (under 50 people).

First and foremost, we want you to be safe. If you fit into the parameters of concern as stated by the Centers of Disease Control and our local authorities, please follow their guidelines. We are in the process of making emergency plans to assist our parishioners and members of our community during this difficult time. This is a time we all need to come together. You can be assured that the priests, deacons and staff of St. Edward's will continue to help you in any way we can, but we also need your help.

Even though you are not able to attend Mass for the time being, we still need your support. Our bills remain and we need your financial support to keep our ministries and facilities working. For convenience, you may want to set up an automatic giving account. We have enclosed a sign-up form that you can mail, deliver or e-mail. It would be of great help if you can assure that we can meet our obligations. That can only happen through your continued generosity. Please know that we are embarrassed to bring this up at a time like this and we are only if you can afford to do so.

Also, effective Monday, March 23rd our rectory office hours will be: Mon-Thurs, 9am-5pm, Friday 9 am-1 pm, Saturdays and Sunday 9 am - 1 pm. There will be no evening office hours. We pray for all of you and your families that you remain safe and healthy. We intercede through our Most Blessed Mother, the Immaculate Conception, patroness of the United States to keep us safe and to rid our great nation of this terrible affliction.

God bless you all and thank you. Stay safe!

Fr. Mike
